Cpl. Frank Freyermuth dies in Germany

Word was received Monday of the death of Cpl. H. Frank Freyermuth of Arlington Heights. Frank died in Germany April 12, according to war department wire received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Freyermuth, 614 N. Chestnut, Arlington Heights.

Frank entered service July 29, 1943, training at Fort Bliss, Tex. He was assigned to an anti-aircraft artillery unit, that was later to be rated as the best in the service. The unit then transferred to Muroc, California, where they received their superior rating.

Exhibitions for other units were next on the list, Frank finally stopping at Camp Polk, Louisiana, before going overseas in December of 1944. George Hauff of Arlington Heights is with the same outfit, though in a different company.

From England Frank went directly to Germany where he served as a range finder on "Susan," their pet gun. The unit was trained on jet-propelled targets in this country, the only group to receive such training at that time. These planes travel 600-700 miles per hour and present a more difficult target.

Prior to entering service Frank studied engineering for one semester at Ames, Iowa. He has one brother in the service, William, who is stationed with the combat engineers on Oahu in the Hawaiian islands.

Loses fingers in home accident

Gordon Haskins, 302 E. McDonald rd., Prospect Heights, was the victim of an unfortunate accident at his home on Monday afternoon. He was working in his garage at an electric joiner, when he cut off the index and middle fingers on his right hand to the first joint.

He was taken to the Palatine hospital immediately by his wife, and had his fingers dressed. He remained at the hospital for a few days, receiving treatment for shock and having his hand under constant watch for infection.

Six boys fined $25 and costs for reckless driving

Arlington Heights police, in response to complaints filed with them by residents near the high school, "captured" four high school boys the first of the week who were driving recklessly in that vicinity. Two other drivers were taken into custody last week.

Judge Neumann fined each boy $25 and costs and then remitted the fines provided that the boys did not drive a car for thirty days. Two of the boys, residing outside of town, are permitted to drive their cars to school but can not drive them about town at any time. The parents of the boys have thanked the police department for their action and promised to curb the joy-riding propensities of their sons. In each case there were a number of riders in the cars whose safety was endangered.

Have narrow escape

Those who saw a Chevrolet car hauled into the Lattof garage Thursday evening could not understand how all of the eight occupants had escaped serious injury. The driver had lost control of the car as it was going around the bend on the Northwest highway, east of Palatine. It overturned and skidded on its top. The boys say the car was only going "twenty miles an hour". They were returning home from a track meet at Palatine.

Memorial service for Lt. Geo. Grossi at Methodist church

A 4:30 p. m. Vesper Memorial Service will be held Sunday for the late Lt. Geo. F. Grossi who was killed in action Apr. 28, 1944. Lt. Grossi was in the Air Corps and was killed in Italy shortly after his assignment to that theater of operation.

At the request of his wife, Alice Bartholomew Grossi and his mother, Mrs. George Grossi, the service will be held in the Methodist Meeting House, North Dunton at Saint James Street, Arlington Heights at 4:30 p. m. April 29th. The choir and soloists of the church will sing fitting music and the Merle Guild Post of American Legion will post the colors and a color guard. The minister of the church will conduct an appropriate service for the young man who gave his life for his country.

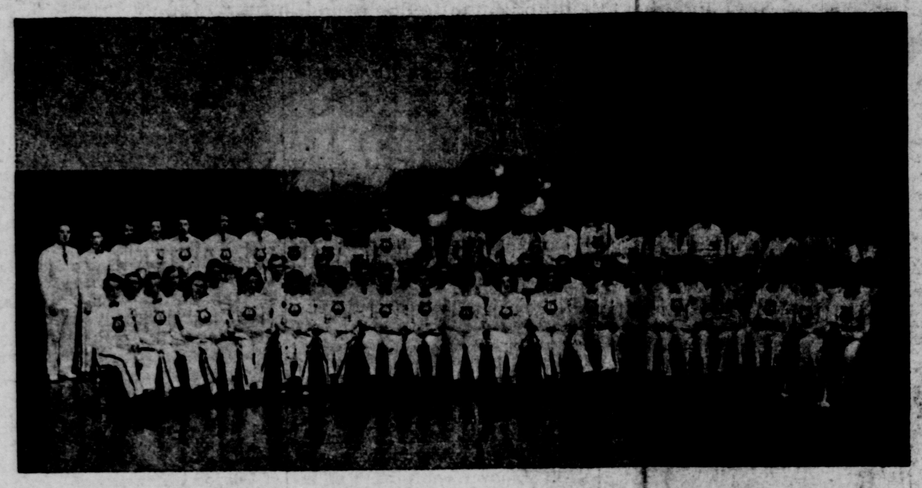

This is to be a public service and all the friends and class mates of George are asked to be present.

High school board renews contract with M. F. Egdorf

The Board of Education of the High School is pleased to announce that the contract recently tendered M. F. Egdorf as Principal of the Arlington Heights Township High School for the ensuing year has been accepted by Mr. Egdorf.

Mr. Egdorf has been exceptionally successful in other communities in developing a well-rounded school program and the Board is confident that with the continued support of the community the high school will occupy its rightful place among the leading schools in this area.

High school spring concert Friday

The annual Spring Concert of the Arlington Township High School Music Department, will be held on Friday night, April 27, at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium. This concert is given free to the public. All are invited to attend.

German war prisoners to aid truck growers

Establish camp at Dam No. 2 near Wheeling

Opening of a branch German prisoner of war camp at Dam Number Two, north of Des Plaines to help meet the shortage of agricultural labor in that area was announced this week by Col. Geo. H. Cushman, Fort Sheridan post commander.

War prisoners who will be quartered at the Navy air field at Arlington Heights will not be available for farmers. They will be used exclusively for work at the Glenview station. The army will be in direct charge of the men.

The camp, which opened Wednesday, Apr. 25, will be in a former Civilian Conservation Corps camp, three and one-half miles north of Des Plaines on the east bank of the Des Plaines River. It will be known as Camp Pine.

Lt. Col. E. R. Schuelke, commander of the base prisoner of war camp at Fort Sheridan, said the newly-organized North Cook Farm Labor Association, Inc., with headquarters at Des Plaines, would handle the details of drawing the prisoner of war labor as needed in an area approximately 20 miles to the north, west and southwest of Des Plaines. W. F. Sass, 6032 Eddy Street, Chicago, is president of the association. The prisoners of war will be assigned to work in groups of not less than ten each.

Col. Schuelke said 75 prisoners of war will be housed at Camp Pine to inaugurate the farm labor program with the possibility that additional numbers will be quartered there later on in the season. He said the prisoners of war will assist with essential greenhouse nursery work, shifting over to truck farm labor about the middle of May.

Although the armies in Europe have been collecting German war prisoners by the hundreds of thousands there are not yet enough in the United States to supply the demand. Farmers in Wisconsin and other parts of the country are asking for more war prisoner labor than is available at this time.

The prisoners of war will work a nine-hour day with the farmers using this labor paying 60 cents per hour. Payment for the work will be made directly into the United States Treasury. The prisoners of war receive 80 cents per day in canteen coupons. The War Manpower Commission has certified that civilian labor is not available.

First Lt. James E. Campbell, 95 Christopher Street, of New York City, will be the commanding officer of Camp Pine.

Rush work on new homes in Arlington Park

55 homes will be completed by fall; 150 in program

Ollie L. Besinger, president of Besinger Co., announced this week that foundations have been poured for the first ten homes that his firm will rush to completion in Arlington Park. Permits have been taken out with the village authorities for fifty-five homes which will be completed before fall. Those 55 homes will only be a drop in the bucket, states Mr. Besinger, who is looking forward to a total of 150 within a year.

Besinger Co. not only does the building, but acts as its own selling agent and retains the mortgages of the purchasers. All homes will be two stories, 6 rooms with brick garage attached. "These homes," explained Mr. Besinger, "will be carefully constructed. All plumbing trim will be of brass, conduit wiring and trim will be carefully inspected quality—the kind of a home that it is safe to buy."

Announcement of the price has not yet been made but they will be available to war workers and those engaged in essential trades. The fact that every home will face streets with cement paving, and have direct connections with water and sewer, sets them apart from the average home offered at this time.

Victor Sander dies in action in Germany

Word has been received by Mrs. Vic Sander of Mt. Prospect of the death of her husband, Staff Sergeant Victor Sander. He was killed in action March 31 in Germany.

S-Sgt. Sander was serving in a Mecz. Cav. Recon. Sq., connected with the 4th Armored Div. of Gen. Patton's army. They had long ago crossed the Rhine and operated in small groups behind the German lines.

Victor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Sander, was born May 15, 1919. He was baptized and confirmed in the West Northfield Lutheran church. On November 14, 1942, he was united in marriage to Luella Tegtmeier, but he was soon called into the service of his country, leaving for Camp Grant Jan. 28, 1943.

Victor earned many medals for expert firing and received his entire army training at Fort Jackson, S. C., plus 3 months of maneuvers in Tennessee.

In April, 1944, S-Sgt. Sander left for Fort Dix, N. J., then overseas, landing in England. Shortly before this cavalry left for France (in July), Vic's platoon was placed in the SHAEF, and went to France as an armed patrol for officers visiting the front. Due to many casualties in the old unit they were again called back in November.

Thanksgiving Eve Vic was quite seriously burned in a fire in Luxemburg and was hospitalized for a month. On Jan. 1 he joined his buddies in combat and had not had a rest period since.

Recently he sent home many things such as silverware, many perfumes and souvenirs including German flags, knives, etc. His latest letter received by his wife was dated March 29.

The family is awaiting further information from the government before having memorial services. His passing is mourned by those he loved, his devoted wife, his widowed mother, Mrs. Frieda Sander, 2 brothers and 4 sisters: Lt. Robert Sander (USA in Ohio), Sgt. Anton Sander (USA in France), Esther Bawman, Alice Birkenheier, Loretta Koelper and Ruth Grant.

Teachers request dismissal hearings

Mr. Joyner and Mr. Grose, who were served charges of dismissal on April 5, 1945, have requested the Board of Education to grant them a public hearing which is provided by school law.

The board is required to set the date for the hearings which, according to the tenure law, must come before the end of the present school term June 7.

All agree conditions a determent to trade

May turn parks into parking lots

Arlington Heignts business men are disgusted with parking conditions in Arlington Heights. They can not understand why somebody has not found the answer long ago. "Better Parking" has been a MUST on the program of the business men for some time.

The recent reorganized Chamber of Commerce had a survey made last month that tells how many cars are parking within the business district on a week day and on a Saturday, but the committee responsible for the survey has not yet been able to find the answer.

The city officials fear that police enforcement of ordinances that limit parking on certain streets would be a hardship on commuters. Mayor Goedke thinks the first step is the location of all day parking zones of sufficient size to accommodate all commuters and "share-the-rides" autoists. "After we have found the place where these fellows can park, we can force them off the main business streets and there will then be plenty of room for shoppers," says Mayor Goedke.

Chief Skoog admits that existing parking ordinances have become almost a dead letter. "However, if we enforced the ordinances," says Mr. Skoog, "the first fellows to receive tickets would be local business men who park their cars in prohibited zones."

In an attempt to find the answer the Herald interviewed a number of the business men this week. Only one or two suggested solutions. All agreed that something ought to be done at once.

The answer given by the one or two is a reduction in the size of the present railroad parks. When such an answer was suggested to many of those interviewed, it was at once evident that it is not a popular answer. Many are very zealous of that green grass and the trees within the park.

Many of those interviewed by the Herald suggested that a scientific study be made of the parking situation before a start is made on cutting up the parks.

"Enforce the present ordinances," says Wilbert Hartmann. Ernest Malzahm says, "we have delayed too long now. What we need is action even if it is necessary to take a 20-foot slice off the south sides of the railroad parks."

Ray Lemke of Gieseke store favors action at once. "If our streets are too narrow in the business district, let us widen the streets."

Arthur Franzen, cashier Arlington Heights National Bank, "the only solution I see is biting a slice off the south park."

"Today's answer to the parking problem is rigid enforcement of existing traffic regulations. It's a police job. Any further encroachment upon our parks for parking lots will mar one of the most attractive features of Arlington Heights. The Chamber of Commerce will shortly undertake an educational campaign to make the A. B. C. card holders "Park-Right" minded. Your publicity this week is a big step in this direction."

WM. F. MEYER, JR.,
Vice Pres. Chamber of Com.

J. D. Flentie thinks that there is a lot of available parking that is not now being used. "Enforcement of the 2-hour parking rule, will force the commuters off the streets that are needed by shoppers. He favors a new one-way street with diagonal parking in the Railroad park west of Dunton st. between the tracks and the first row of trees between Dunton and the Schneberge material yard.

G. H. Wilke says, "something should be done. I admit that I sometimes park my car in a two hour limit zone, but there are a lot of others who do likewise."

C. A. Hughes, farm adviser says, "parking in the Farm Bureau area is very congested. About half of our available space is taken by commuters' cars. Farmers and employees of the Farm Bureau who come and go all day frequently have to park a block away."

"Are business men or commuters willing to pay a small fee for a parking space for their cars?" is the inquiry made by the owner of a possible parking lot.

"If occupants of apartments in the business district parked their cars somewhere else than in front of the stores there would be ample room for short-time parking of the shoppers", says Otto Krause.

"I think many of the store owners and their employees are to blame for present parking conditions," says Walter Jacobs; "they are unwilling to walk a block to get to their cars at noon or the end of the day, but they expect their customers to walk a block in order to trade at their stores."

"Let us find parking facilities for the business men away from the business district", says Mr. Christensen, "then there will be more than enough room for shoppers. One car parked all day takes parking away from a possible twenty shoppers Multiply that parked car by nineteen other similarly parked and you have space for 400 shoppers. What more do you want?"

"I would like to see the police make a test on Campbell street, between Vail and Evergreen," says Mar Johnson. "Enforce the present ordinance on those two blocks for two weeks and watch the result."

Suggestion has been made that the south side of Miner street, between Evergreen and State road, would take care of a lot of commuters' cars and would not interfere with theatre parking.

According to the survey made by the Chamber of Commerce, there were 391 cars parked within the business district between the hours of 1 and 2 p. m. on a Friday. On a Saturday the number was 439.

V-bomb kills Palatine boy in Antwerp

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Herrmann, Palatine, received word Saturday morning from the war department that their son, Sgt. Geo. Herrmann, Jr., was killed April 11. No official information has been received regarding the manner of death or place. However the family has had reason to believe that a V-bomb was the cause.

Sgt. Herrmann was with a railroad battalion stationed at Antwerp. The March 26th issue of Time magazine and a news story in the Chicago Tribune last Friday told of the many deaths caused by bombs among U. S. army personnel stationed in Antwerp.

The news story stated that in five months the Nazis had launched 4,000 of the bombs against that city, causing the death of 1,000 Belgian civilians and 628 American soldiers. From letters received from their son, the Herrmanns have known that Nazi bombs had badly wrecked the city and that their son had had several narrow escapes. He never complained and seemed to take his army experiences in full stride. A letter written the day before his death was received a few days before the official notice arrived.

Legion plans Memorial day

Memorial Day will be observed in Arlington Heights Wednesday, May 30, and the members of the American Legion are mindful of the increased casualties since the last roll call in May, 1944.

William Garms has been appointed as parade chairman for the Legion and will be in charge of parade arrangements for Memorial Day, Any civic organization wishing to enter the parade may call or speak to Mr. Garms for a location assignment.

Memorial services will be held at Memorial Park as usual, unless otherwise necessary, because of weather or other unforeseen circumstances.

It is suggested that all interested organizations communicate with Mr. Garms as quickly as possible so a joint meeting can be arranged for the purposes of arranging a suitable program for the occasion.

Sgt. Maurice Sheahan, Jr., killed in action

Sgt. Maurice E. Sheahan, Jr., formerly of Arlington Heights, has been killed in action in Germany it was learned last week. The Shea-

hans left Arlington Heights for Ontario, Calif., last September. The father in stationed with the army is China.

Sgt. Sheahan was wounded at least once before. He suffered a slight wound in January in Belgium, as revealed a month ago. He evidently returned to the front lines after recovering.

Maurice entered the army in November of 1942. He received basic training at Aberdeen Proving Grounds in Maryland. He was promoted to corporal in January of 1943, serving as an instructor at Aberdeen.

His next stop was Fort Benning, Georgia, where he earned [illegible] trooper's wings in 1943. [illegible] Camp [illegible] going [illegible]

Mrs. [illegible] lives at 318 West C. Street, Ontario, California.

Two Arlington students win

Two Arlington Heights Township High school students won honors in speech contests held Friday, April 13.

Elmer Neumann, son of Mrs. E. Neumann, won fourth place in the city finals of the Chicago Herald-American oratory contest. As an award, he received a $50 war bond. There were about 120 Chicagoland high schools entered in the contest. Judges complimented Elmer on his sincerity and choice of words.

Beverlee Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peterson, placed tenth in the Illinois State High School Association speech contest, held at the University of Illinois. Beverlee was in the humorous reading section, in which she presented a selection from "My Sister Eileen," by Ruth McKenny.

Award emblems to 17 in band

Seventeen candidates for the Arlington Heights High School band were awarded full membership in that organization this past week upon completing the three requirements. Each student must play with the band on trial for one semester; play an accompanied solo at the spring recitals, and be voted in by the band officers.

Lyre emblems were presented to each of the folowing bandsmen by the president, Phillip Weber:

National prize home to be erected in Scarsdale

Charles West, realtor, announced this week that construction will start soon on a home in Scarsdale, the plans of which recently won first place for suburban homes in the contest conducted by the National association of Home Builders. The home is one story, five rooms, laundry and service room as well as a garage.

A model of the home was on display at the Hotel Sherman in February and later at Marshall Fields. The owner of the new home will be a war veteran.

Mr. West also sold a home that will be built in Stonegate.

Arlington Cubs to fly kites in meet Sunday

The annual Kite Flying Contest of Arlington Heights Cub Scout Pack 232 will be held on the grounds of the South School this Sunday afternoon, April 29, at 2 p. m. In event of inclement weather, that is, rain or a dead calm at this two o'clock deadline, the judges will postpone the contest until the following Sunday, May 6.

Each entry will be judged for its excellence in one of two main classes. The first is performance, which will be determined by the distance flown or length of string attained. The second is originality of design and workmanship. All entries in this latter class must also demonstrate their flyability, since the judges have determined that a kite must fly, otherwise it isn't a kite!

This is the first big outdoor contest for the boys and it will provide lots of fun and excitement. No small inducement for a large number of entries is the quality of the prizes offered. These are items of baseball equipment which were selected by Cubmaster Ben Cochrane many weeks ago and which have since completely disappeared from the market.

All of the boys' parents and friends are invited to witness this exhibition of Cub Scouts handicraft. Plenty of thrills and spills will be on the program.

Golf league to select teams

The Arlington Heights Golf League will select its teams this Friday for the coming season. New members will play a qualifying round starting at 6:00 p. m.

On May 4 the regular season's play will begin and continue every week, playing nine holes each Friday evening up to and including August 31. The season closes on that day.

Secretary Bailey has received a large number of applications. It is not too late to join as a regular or alternate. The fee is 75c a week. Call Clarence Bailey at Arlington Heights 678-J, or come to the Mt. Prospect course this Friday at 6 p. m.

Collect over 4 tons of clothing for war relief

Arlington Heights citizens opened their hearts, their closets and attics to the extent of 8,900 lbs. of used clothing for the war relief in Europe. Mrs. Coleman, chairman, will give a report in next week's Herald. A huge moving van was necessary to haul the load to a Chicago warehouse Wednesday.

Pfc. Wallace Granzin hurt in Germany

Pfc. Wallace Granzin of Arlington Heights has been slightly wounded in Germany it was learned Wednesday morning. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Granzin, 1005 N. Dunton st.

Pfc. Granzin is a member of the 41st Armored Infantry regiment, a unit serving with the 2nd armored division. In a letter to WUS last fall he mentioned riding through Belgium and the welcome received from the population.

Pfc. Granzin was wounded April 10. No further details are known.

Victor Sander dies in action in Germany

Word has been received by Mrs. Vic Sander of Mt. Prospect of the death of her husband, Staff Sergeant Victor Sander. He was killed in action March 31 in Germany.

S-Sgt. Sander was serving in a Mecz. Cav. Recon. Sq., connected with the 4th Armored Div. of Gen. Patton's army. They had long ago crossed the Rhine and operated in small groups behind the German lines.

Victor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Sander, was born May 15, 1919. He was baptized and confirmed in the West Northfield Lutheran church. On November 14, 1942, he was united in marriage to Luella Tegtmeier, but he was soon called into the service of his country, leaving for Camp Grant Jan. 28, 1943.

Victor earned many medals for expert firing and received his entire army training at Fort Jackson, S. C., plus 3 months of maneuvers in Tennessee.

In April, 1944, S-Sgt. Sander left for Fort Dix, N. J., then overseas, landing in England. Shortly before this cavalry left for France (in July), Vic's platoon was placed in the SHAEF, and went to France as an armed patrol for officers visiting the front. Due to many casualties in the old unit they were again called back in November.

Thanksgiving Eve Vic was quite seriously burned in a fire in Luxemburg and was hospitalized for a month. On Jan. 1 he joined his buddies in combat and had not had a rest period since.

Recently he sent home many things such as silverware, many perfumes and souvenirs including German flags, knives, etc. His latest letter received by his wife was dated March 29.

The family is awaiting further information from the government before having memorial services. His passing is mourned by those he loved, his devoted wife, his widowed mother, Mrs. Frieda Sander, 2 brothers and 4 sisters: Lt. Robert Sander (USA in Ohio), Sgt. Anton Sander (USA in France), Esther Bawman, Alice Birkenheier, Loretta Koelper and Ruth Grant.

Teachers request dismissal hearings

Mr. Joyner and Mr. Grose, who were served charges of dismissal on April 5, 1945, have requested the Board of Education to grant them a public hearing which is provided by school law.

The board is required to set the date for the hearings which, according to the tenure law, must come before the end of the present school term June 7.

All agree conditions a determent to trade

May turn parks into parking lots

Arlington Heights business men are disgusted with parking conditions in Arlington Heights. They can not understand why somebody has not found the answer long ago. "Better Parking" has been a MUST on the program of the business men for some time.

The recent reorganized Chamber of Commerce had a survey made last month that tells how many cars are parking within the business district on a week day and on a Saturday, but the committee responsible for the survey has not yet been able to find the answer.

The city officials fear that police enforcement of ordinances that limit parking on certain streets would be a hardship on commuters. Mayor Goedke thinks the first step is the location of all day parking zones of sufficient size to accommodate all commuters and "share-the-rides" autoists. "After we have found the place where these fellows can park, we can force them off the main business streets and there will then be plenty of room for shoppers," says Mayor Goedke.

Chief Skoog admits that existing parking ordinances have become almost a dead letter. "However, if we enforced the ordinances," says Mr. Skoog, "the first fellows to receive tickets would be local business men who park their cars in prohibited zones."

In an attempt to find the answer the Herald interviewed a number of the business men this week. Only one or two suggested solutions. All agreed that something ought to be done at once.

The answer given by the one or two is a reduction in the size of the present railroad parks. When such an answer was suggested to many of those interviewed, it was at once evident that it is not a popular answer. Many are very zealous of that green grass and the trees within the park.

Many of those interviewed by the Herald suggested that a scientific study be made of the parking situation before a start is made on cutting up the parks.

"Enforce the present ordinances," says Wilbert Hartmann. Ernest Malzahm says, "we have delayed too long now. What we need is action even if it is necessary to take a 20-foot slice off the south sides of the railroad parks."

Ray Lemke of Gieseke store favors action at once. "If our streets are too narrow in the business district, let us widen the streets."

Arthur Franzen, cashier Arlington Heights National Bank, "the only solution I see is biting a slice off the south park."

"Today's answer to the parking problem is rigid enforcement of existing traffic regulations. It's a police job. Any further encroachment upon our parks for parking lots will mar one of the most attractive features of Arlington Heights. The Chamber of Commerce will shortly undertake an educational campaign to make the A. B. C. card holders "Park-Right" minded. Your publicity this week is a big step in this direction."

WM. F. MEYER, JR.,
Vice Pres. Chamber of Com.

J. D. Flentie thinks that there is a lot of available parking that is not now being used. "Enforcement of the 2-hour parking rule, will force the commuters off the streets that are needed by shoppers. He favors a new one-way street with diagonal parking in the Railroad park west of Dunton st. between the tracks and the first row of trees between Dunton and the Schneberge material yard.

G. H. Wilke says, "something should be done. I admit that I sometimes park my car in a two hour limit zone, but there are a lot of others who do likewise."

C. A. Hughes, farm adviser says, "parking in the Farm Bureau area is very congested. About half of our available space is taken by commuters' cars. Farmers and employees of the Farm Bureau who come and go all day frequently have to park a block away."

"Are business men or commuters willing to pay a small fee for a parking space for their cars?" is the inquiry made by the owner of a possible parking lot.

"If occupants of apartments in the business district parked their cars somewhere else than in front of the stores there would be ample room for short-time parking of the shoppers", says Otto Krause.

"I think many of the store owners and their employees are to blame for present parking conditions," says Walter Jacobs; "they are unwilling to walk a block to get to their cars at noon or the end of the day, but they expect their customers to walk a block in order to trade at their stores."

"Let us find parking facilities for the business men away from the business district", says Mr. Christensen, "then there will be more than enough room for shoppers. One car parked all day takes parking away from a possible twenty shoppers Multiply that parked car by nineteen other similarly parked and you have space for 400 shoppers. What more do you want?"

"I would like to see the police make a test on Campbell street, between Vail and Evergreen," says Mar Johnson. "Enforce the present ordinance on those two blocks for two weeks and watch the result."

Suggestion has been made that the south side of Miner street, between Evergreen and State road, would take care of a lot of commuters' cars and would not interfere with theatre parking.

According to the survey made by the Chamber of Commerce, there were 391 cars parked within the business district between the hours of 1 and 2 p. m. on a Friday. On a Saturday the number was 439.

V-bomb kills Palatine boy in Antwerp

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Herrmann, Palatine, received word Saturday morning from the war department that their son, Sgt. Geo. Herrmann, Jr., was killed April 11. No official information has been received regarding the manner of death or place. However the family has had reason to believe that a V-bomb was the cause.

Sgt. Herrmann was with a railroad battalion stationed at Antwerp. The March 26th issue of Time magazine and a news story in the Chicago Tribune last Friday told of the many deaths caused by bombs among U. S. army personnel stationed in Antwerp.

The news story stated that in five months the Nazis had launched 4,000 of the bombs against that city, causing the death of 1,000 Belgian civilians and 628 American soldiers. From letters received from their son, the Herrmanns have known that Nazi bombs had badly wrecked the city and that their son had had several narrow escapes. He never complained and seemed to take his army experiences in full stride. A letter written the day before his death was received a few days before the official notice arrived.

Legion plans Memorial day

Memorial Day will be observed in Arlington Heights Wednesday, May 30, and the members of the American Legion are mindful of the increased casualties since the last roll call in May, 1944.

William Garms has been appointed as parade chairman for the Legion and will be in charge of parade arrangements for Memorial Day, Any civic organization wishing to enter the parade may call or speak to Mr. Garms for a location assignment.

Memorial services will be held at Memorial Park as usual, unless otherwise necessary, because of weather or other unforeseen circumstances.

It is suggested that all interested organizations communicate with Mr. Garms as quickly as possible so a joint meeting can be arranged for the purposes of arranging a suitable program for the occasion.

Sgt. Maurice Sheahan, Jr., killed in action

Sgt. Maurice E. Sheahan, Jr., formerly of Arlington Heights, has been killed in action in Germany it was learned last week. The Shea-

hans left Arlington Heights for Ontario, Calif., last September. The father in stationed with the army is China.

Sgt. Sheahan was wounded at least once before. He suffered a slight wound in January in Belgium, as revealed a month ago. He evidently returned to the front lines after recovering.

Maurice entered the army in November of 1942. He received basic training at Aberdeen Proving Grounds in Maryland. He was promoted to corporal in January of 1943, serving as an instructor at Aberdeen.

His next stop was Fort Benning, Georgia, where he earned paratrooper's wings in November of 1943. He had additional training at Camp Forrest, Tennessee, before going overseas.

Mrs. Sheahan lives at 318 West C. Street, Ontario, California.

Two Arlington students win

Two Arlington Heights Township High school students won honors in speech contests held Friday, April 13.

Elmer Neumann, son of Mrs. E. Neumann, won fourth place in the city finals of the Chicago Herald-American oratory contest. As an award, he received a $50 war bond. There were about 120 Chicagoland high schools entered in the contest. Judges complimented Elmer on his sincerity and choice of words.

Beverlee Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peterson, placed tenth in the Illinois State High School Association speech contest, held at the University of Illinois. Beverlee was in the humorous reading section, in which she presented a selection from "My Sister Eileen," by Ruth McKenny.

Award emblems to 17 in band

Seventeen candidates for the Arlington Heights High School band were awarded full membership in that organization this past week upon completing the three requirements. Each student must play with the band on trial for one semester; play an accompanied solo at the spring recitals, and be voted in by the band officers.

Lyre emblems were presented to each of the folowing bandsmen by the president, Phillip Weber:

National prize home to be erected in Scarsdale

Charles West, realtor, announced this week that construction will start soon on a home in Scarsdale, the plans of which recently won first place for suburban homes in the contest conducted by the National association of Home Builders. The home is one story, five rooms, laundry and service room as well as a garage.

A model of the home was on display at the Hotel Sherman in February and later at Marshall Fields. The owner of the new home will be a war veteran.

Mr. West also sold a home that will be built in Stonegate.

Arlington Cubs to fly kites in meet Sunday

The annual Kite Flying Contest of Arlington Heights Cub Scout Pack 232 will be held on the grounds of the South School this Sunday afternoon, April 29, at 2 p. m. In event of inclement weather, that is, rain or a dead calm at this two o'clock deadline, the judges will postpone the contest until the following Sunday, May 6.

Each entry will be judged for its excellence in one of two main classes. The first is performance, which will be determined by the distance flown or length of string attained. The second is originality of design and workmanship. All entries in this latter class must also demonstrate their flyability, since the judges have determined that a kite must fly, otherwise it isn't a kite!

This is the first big outdoor contest for the boys and it will provide lots of fun and excitement. No small inducement for a large number of entries is the quality of the prizes offered. These are items of baseball equipment which were selected by Cubmaster Ben Cochrane many weeks ago and which have since completely disappeared from the market.

All of the boys' parents and friends are invited to witness this exhibition of Cub Scouts handicraft. Plenty of thrills and spills will be on the program.

Golf league to select teams

The Arlington Heights Golf League will select its teams this Friday for the coming season. New members will play a qualifying round starting at 6:00 p. m.

On May 4 the regular season's play will begin and continue every week, playing nine holes each Friday evening up to and including August 31. The season closes on that day.

Secretary Bailey has received a large number of applications. It is not too late to join as a regular or alternate. The fee is 75c a week. Call Clarence Bailey at Arlington Heights 678-J, or come to the Mt. Prospect course this Friday at 6 p. m.

Collect over 4 tons of clothing for war relief

Arlington Heights citizens opened their hearts, their closets and attics to the extent of 8,900 lbs. of used clothing for the war relief in Europe. Mrs. Coleman, chairman, will give a report in next week's Herald. A huge moving van was necessary to haul the load to a Chicago warehouse Wednesday.

Pfc. Wallace Granzin hurt in Germany

Pfc. Wallace Granzin of Arlington Heights has been slightly wounded in Germany it was learned Wednesday morning. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Granzin, 1005 N. Dunton st.

Pfc. Granzin is a member of the 41st Armored Infantry regiment, a unit serving with the 2nd armored division. In a letter to WUS last fall he mentioned riding through Belgium and the welcome received from the population.

Pfc. Granzin was wounded April 10. No further details are known.

Set June 2 for garden show in Mt. Prospect

Plans are now being made for the eighth annual spring garden show which is being sponsored by the Mount Prospect Woman's Club. The day is set for Saturday, June 2, and the place is Mount Prospect public school.

Any one who does not employ a professional gardener is eligible to make as many entries as he may choose.

Due to an early spring many fine specimens are expected to be entered, so make plans now for your entries and make this annual spring garden show a grand success.

The board

So that the members of the community may know to what lengths efforts are being made to discredit Mr. M. F. Egdorf and your Board of Education, the Board submits the following two unsolicited letters written by citizens of communities in which Mr. Egdorf previously served as High School Principal.

Watseka, Illinois
April 15th, 1945.
President Citizen's Committee,
Arlington Heights High School,
Arlington Heights, Illinois.
Dear Sir:

It has come to my attention that a representative of the Citizen's committee of Arlington Heights was in Watseka Saturday, April 14th investigating our former principal, Mr. M. F. Egdorf.

I do not know from whom he received his information as to who to interview but my investigation reveals that he certainly did not see the representative citizens of this city but rather seemed to have been "steered" to the ones that were known to have a dislike for Mr. Egdorf.

Mr. Egdorf was principal of our High School for three years and at the time he was offered the position at Arlington Heights had been tendered a contract for a fourth year here by unanimous vote of the School Board at a substantial increase in salary. It is not only my opinion but the opinion of practically all of the people of this community who take a sincere interest in our high school, that Mr. Egdorf did more to bring our school up to a high standard during the three years he was here than had been done during any like three year period in the history of our school. Mr. Egdorf also took a very active part in our community life, being President and one of the men responsible for the Watseka Youth Center, an active member of the Watseka Kiwanis Club, attended church regularly and in every way was considered a high type citizen.

I understand that much of the criticism at Arlington Heights comes from the faculty. Mr. Egdorf got along well with all the good teachers in our school but would not tolerate "complacency or laziness" in his teachers and for that reason several of them either quit or were asked to resign for the good of the school and no doubt your representative was "steered" to interview these ex-teachers. However, had he seen fit to interview other teachers who are still in the system such as Miss Verna Burns, head of the English Department, Mr. Orson Croxton, Science and Mr. LeRoy Morley, Coach & P. E., all of whom have been with us for fifteen years or more, or Miss Wilma Harrington, commercial, Mrs. Slagel, Languages or Don Wene, Ass't Coach and Math. he would undoubtedly have gotten a different point of view entirely, that is, that Mr. Egdorf was one of the best, if not the best, principals that they had ever taught under and fair in every way but that he expected every one of his teachers to do that for which they were being paid and not to "soldier" on the job.

Also had your representative seen fit to interview any of the following prominent business men he could have had un-biased opinions from men who have been in positions where they have had to judge men all their lives:

Al Schafer, manager, Western Condenser Co.
R. P. Devine, Hardroad Contractor and President of High School.
H. D. Van Matre, Head of Iroquois County Farm Bureau
Rev. B. A. Murray, Pastor Presbyterian Church.
J. Earle Mavity, Editor and owner, Iroquois County Daily Times.
Jos. S. Euans, President, First Trust and Savings Bank.
Frank E. Blake, Ex-Mayor and former president High School Board.
S. L. Martin, Manager, People's Coal and Lumber Co.
H. C. Pollitz, President, Pollitz, Inc.
J. Sapiro, Fay Plankael and L. H. Goetz, Plankael Goetz Company.
Chalmer Giffens, Manager J. C. Penney Co.
P. J. McFall, Insurance Agent and President Chamber of Commerce.
O. A. Olson, C. T. M., American Tel. & Tel. Co.
C. H. Dowsett, Physician.
R. C. South, Circuit Judge.
S. C. Malo, County Judge.
Phil Brown, ounty Sheriff.
Bernard White, Editor, Watseka Republican.
H. W. Bradshaw, Mayor, City of Watseka.

In a country where our sons are dying daily to uphold the ideals of democracy and fair play, I feel that every man is entitled to a square deal and not be persecuted, as seems to be what they are trying to do with Mr. Egdorf. I was Secretary of the High School Board during the three years Mr. Egdorf was here and he co-operated and worked with the School Board in every way possible and I count Mr. Egdorf as one of my best friends and for that reason I am writing this letter to assist him to receive fair play which I feel sure he will receive if all the facts are brought to light.

Yours very truly,
E. C. Ringger,
Sec'y., District No. 250
Watseka Com. High School.

Colfax, Illinois
April 19, 1945.
Secretary, Board of Education
Arlington Heights High School
Arlington Heights, Illinois
Dear Sir:

Information is at hand that a group of people are trying to make an investigation of the record of M. F. Egdorf, former principal of the Colfax High School.

It is the opinion of the undersigned that the work of Mr. Egdorf, while principal of our school, was entirely satisfactory and that he was well qualified for the job. Changes were made the first year he was here and it was the unanimous opinion of the Board of Education that they should be made for the best interest of the school and not because he could not nor did not get along with the faculty or lack of ability on his part.

Some of the things he did for the school are as follows: Started the band in school, football, reorganized the library, added some new courses and had the gymnasium re-modeled.

Excellent spirit existed between the teachers and Mr. Egdorf. It is our opinion—"They could not have been better."

The next year after Mr. Egdorf left here some of the teachers resigned. The coach, who was under Mr. Egdorf here, took his job and became principal. Later he went to Watseka, Illinois, to coach under Mr. Egdorf and is still there.

The year Mr. Egdorf left here all teachers were offered more than one-year contracts—including Egdorf.

It is the opinion of this group that by far the majority of the people here are interested in the school and would concur with this opinion.

We are for fair play and sincerely think that Mr. Egdorf is a good man for your school.

Yours very truly,

Signed,

Carl E. Alpers, Pres. of Board of Education.
G. C. Harris, Secy. of Board of Education.
C. Y. Miller, Past Pres. Board of Education.
M. B. Willhoite, Funeral Director.
Raymond Rathburn, Mayor of Colfax.
Ernest Hyatt, Sinclair Oil Co.
A. M. Hester, Atty. at Law.
L. E. Eagan, Hardware Dealer.
Harry W. Corpe, Village Clerk.
G. E. Selmer, Railroad Agent.

It is apparent that some members of the Faculty of the High School are more interested in further disrupting the morale of the school by investigating the previous record of Mr. Egdorf and by causing misleading paid advertisements to be published in the newspaper than they are in furthering the education of the pupils in the High School District.

If those Faculty members who are responsible for the investigations and paid advertisements are sincere in believing that they are being mistreated, the law affords them an opportunity for redress—advertisements, investigations, and disrupting the morale of the High School students will not furnish that redress. Such actions are unethical and unprofessional and should be frowned upon by all fair minded citizens.

Respectfully submitted,
Board of Education, District No. 214
Arlington Heights Township High School

The students

It is not generally appropriate that a dispute or disagreement between teachers and the school administration be brought before the students. However, when the students are brought directly into differences by unprecedented discussions during class periods by some of the teachers involved, a representative group of students feels justified in publicly expressing their views.

The students believe that the operations in the school during the past year indicate a definite progressive trend. For the first time the school has entered into three state contests in various fields. Chapters of two national honor organizations have been installed.

Students are not only encouraged to attend college but receive valuable counsel in the selection of schools. This is most evident in the fact that even now a sizeable portion of the senior class is enrolled or plans to enroll in colleges and universities.

School pride and spirit along with an appreciation of accomplishment is felt by the pupils. The students in general have been made to feel a desire to cooperate.

In bringing their disputes into the classrooms the teachers have forgotten the education and welfare of their students. Such discussions are almost embarrassing to students who have always respected these teachers and considered them as friends.

The students, in presenting their opinions, have done so with no intent of malice, but with the hope that their expression may in some way aid in remedying an extremely unhealthy situation.

The teachers

The following is a copy of an article which appeared in the February 11, 1944, issue of the Arlington Heights Herald. When the report was received by the school board last year they were so well pleased with it that they promptly published it. The first part of the article was written by the school board, six out of seven of whom are still on the board. Mr. Conger assured us that at no time were they warned of being discredited except one year when the inspectors considered the library facilities inadequate. This condition was remedied the following year, 1939, with the addition of the new wing to the building and ample book shelves in the two study halls.

The article published in this newspaper dated February 11, 1944, is as follows:

The Arlington Heights Township High School being an accredited high school, both in the state and the North Central association, is inspected alternately by the state department and the University of Illinois high school visitor for the North Central association. High Schools which are found to be unsatisfactory are inspected early, while those which are always found to be in the upper classifications are inspected every other year.

It has come to the attention of school authorities in Arlington Heights on several occasions that misleading information has been circulated regarding the standing of the local high school. Such attempts to spread untrue rumors may have started with a few individuals who from personal reasons have wished to harm the standing of the high school.

Inasmuch as the report has just been received from the high school visitor's office regarding the inspection which was made January 11, the report is being published in full, herewith. The local high school has not been inspected except every two years or three years, indicating that the state officers consider the school to be in good condition. No high schools are rated other than "accredited" or "warned" or "not accredited." The Arlington Heights high school has been accredited continuously since 1930 by the North Central association.

The report follows:
Dear Mr. Conger:

On January 11, 1944, I visited the Arlington Heights Township High School. The report of the visit is as follows:

1. Instruction and Spirit. I was able to observe only a limited amount of instruction on the day of my visit. I was very favorably impressed with what I observed. There appeared to be a fine esprit de corps among the faculty. The school spirit was commendable. The whole spirit of the school is such as to make for the development of desirable social attitudes and habits of behavior.

2. School Plant. You have a good substantial plant which, however is being out grown. I understand that additions are being considered which will make it possible to better adapt the educational offerings to the needs of the pupils when building materials become available.

3. Instructional Equipment. In general, the equipment is very good for the size of the classes and the courses offered.

4. School Library. The collection of books and materials is about average for schools of this size. The library room is very small for the number enrolled.

5. School Records. Satisfactory.

6. Administration and Supervision. This school is well organized and efficiently administered. The excellent esprit de corps of the teachers and the fine school spirit are evidence of effective supervision.

7. Preparation of Teachers. According to the annual report, 13 out of 27 teachers have Master's degrees and one a Doctor's degree. Others are doing advanced work. For general preparation this is very good. Teachers are well trained for the subjects to which they have been assigned.

8. Teaching Load. Average.

9. Pupil Load. Satisfactory.

10. Educational Program. Average.

11. General Estimate of the school. This is a very good school.

The report of this school will be presented to the committee on admissions at its next meeting and you will receive a report of the action taken some time before the close of the school year.

I enjoyed my visit to your school and appreciate the hospitality and the many courtesies extended to me.

The board

So that the members of the community may know to what lengths efforts are being made to discredit Mr. M. F. Egdorf and your Board of Education, the Board submits the following two unsolicited letters written by citizens of communities in which Mr. Egdorf previously served as High School Principal.

* * *

Watseka, Illinois
April 15th, 1945.

President Citizen's Committee,
Arlington Heights High School,
Arlington Heights, Illinois.

Dear Sir:

It has come to my attention that a representative of the Citizen's committee of Arlington Heights was in Watseka Saturday, April 14th investigating our former principal, Mr. M. F. Egdorf.

I do not know from whom he received his information as to who to interview but my investigation reveals that he certainly did not see the representative citizens of this city but rather seemed to have been "steered" to the ones that were known to have a dislike for Mr. Egdorf.

Mr. Egdorf was principal of our High School for three years and at the time he was offered the position at Arlington Heights had been tendered a contract for a fourth year here by unanimous vote of the School Board at a substantial increase in salary. It is not only my opinion but the opinion of practically all of the people of this community who take a sincere interest in our high school, that Mr. Egdorf did more to bring our school up to a high standard during the three years he was here than had been done during any like three year period in the history of our school. Mr. Egdorf also took a very active part in our community life, being President and one of the men responsible for the Watseka Youth Center, an active member of the Watseka Kiwanis Club, attended church regularly and in every way was considered a high type citizen.

I understand that much of the criticism at Arlington Heights comes from the faculty. Mr. Egdorf got along well with all the good teachers in our school but would not tolerate "complacency or laziness" in his teachers and for that reason several of them either quit or were asked to resign for the good of the school and no doubt your representative was "steered" to interview these ex-teachers. However, had he seen fit to interview other teachers who are still in the system such as Miss Verna Burns, head of the English Department, Mr. Orson Croxton, Science and Mr. LeRoy Morley, Coach & P. E., all of whom have been with us for fifteen years or more, or Miss Wilma Harrington, commercial, Mrs. Slagel, Languages or Don Wene, Ass't Coach and Math. he would undoubtedly have gotten a different point of view entirely, that is, that Mr. Egdorf was one of the best, if not the best, principals that they had ever taught under and fair in every way but that he expected every one of his teachers to do that for which they were being paid and not to "soldier" on the job.

Also had your representative seen fit to interview any of the following prominent business men he could have had un-biased opinions from men who have been in positions where they have had to judge men all their lives:

Al Schafer, manager, Western Condenser Co.
R. P. Devine, Hardroad Contractor and President of High School.
H. D. Van Matre, Head of Iroquois County Farm Bureau
Rev. B. A. Murray, Pastor Presbyterian Church.
J. Earle Mavity, Editor and owner, Iroquois County Daily Times.
Jos. S. Euans, President, First Trust and Savings Bank.
Frank E. Blake, Ex-Mayor and former president High School Board.
S. L. Martin, Manager, People's Coal and Lumber Co.
H. C. Pollitz, President, Pollitz, Inc.
J. Sapiro, Fay Plankael and L. H. Goetz, Plankael Goetz Company.
Chalmer Giffens, Manager J. C. Penney Co.
P. J. McFall, Insurance Agent and President Chamber of Commerce.
O. A. Olson, C. T. M., American Tel. & Tel. Co.
C. H. Dowsett, Physician.
R. C. South, Circuit Judge.
S. C. Malo, County Judge.
Phil Brown, ounty Sheriff.
Bernard White, Editor, Watseka Republican.
H. W. Bradshaw, Mayor, City of Watseka.

In a country where our sons are dying daily to uphold the ideals of democracy and fair play, I feel that every man is entitled to a square deal and not be persecuted, as seems to be what they are trying to do with Mr. Egdorf. I was Secretary of the High School Board during the three years Mr. Egdorf was here and he co-operated and worked with the School Board in every way possible and I count Mr. Egdorf as one of my best friends and for that reason I am writing this letter to assist him to receive fair play which I feel sure he will receive if all the facts are brought to light.

Yours very truly,
E. C. Ringger,
Sec'y., District No. 250
Watseka Com. High School.

Colfax, Illinois
April 19, 1945.

Secretary, Board of Education
Arlington Heights High School
Arlington Heights, Illinois

Dear Sir:

Information is at hand that a group of people are trying to make an investigation of the record of M. F. Egdorf, former principal of the Colfax High School.

It is the opinion of the undersigned that the work of Mr. Egdorf, while principal of our school, was entirely satisfactory and that he was well qualified for the job. Changes were made the first year he was here and it was the unanimous opinion of the Board of Education that they should be made for the best interest of the school and not because he could not nor did not get along with the faculty or lack of ability on his part.

Some of the things he did for the school are as follows: Started the band in school, football, reorganized the library, added some new courses and had the gymnasium re-modeled.

Excellent spirit existed between the teachers and Mr. Egdorf. It is our opinion—"They could not have been better."

The next year after Mr. Egdorf left here some of the teachers resigned. The coach, who was under Mr. Egdorf here, took his job and became principal. Later he went to Watseka, Illinois, to coach under Mr. Egdorf and is still there.

The year Mr. Egdorf left here all teachers were offered more than one-year contracts—including Egdorf.

It is the opinion of this group that by far the majority of the people here are interested in the school and would concur with this opinion.

We are for fair play and sincerely think that Mr. Egdorf is a good man for your school.

Yours very truly,

Signed,

Carl E. Alpers, Pres. of Board of Education.
G. C. Harris, Secy. of Board of Education.
C. Y. Miller, Past Pres. Board of Education.
M. B. Willhoite, Funeral Director.
Raymond Rathburn, Mayor of Colfax.
Ernest Hyatt, Sinclair Oil Co.
A. M. Hester, Atty. at Law.
L. E. Eagan, Hardware Dealer.
Harry W. Corpe, Village Clerk
G. E. Selmer, Railroad Agent.

It is apparent that some members of the Faculty of the High School are more interested in further disrupting the morale of the school by investigating the previous record of Mr. Egdorf and by causing misleading paid advertisements to be published in the newspaper than they are in furthering the education of the pupils in the High School District.

If those Faculty members who are responsible for the investigations and paid advertisements are sincere in believing that they are being mistreated, the law affords them an opportunity for redress—advertisements, investigations, and disrupting the morale of the High School students will not furnish that redress. Such actions are unethical and unprofessional and should be frowned upon by all fair minded citizens.

Respectfully submitted,
Board of Education, District No. 214
Arlington Heights Township High School

Milo J. Vondracek, Minister

Sunday:

9:45 a. m. The Sunday church school is making rapid strides in achieving some of the goal outlined last fall. Mr. M. W. Prellberg, superintendent, reports decided increases in attendance and an improved attitude toward learning on the part of the students.

11 a. m. The morning worship service will again turn our attention toward the more significant implications of this Christian religion we profess in a world that is too much given to its own clever devices. The choir will sing and the sermon will be "Blundering Builders."

4:30 p. m. A Memorial vesper service for the late Lt. George F. Grossl will be held in the sanctuary. The choir will sing appropriate music, the American Legion will post a color guard and the minister of the church will conduct this service.

6 p. m. The pre-hi youth fellowship will meet under the guidance of Miss K. Hines.

7 p. m. The Hi-League Fellowship will be led in a devotional service.

Our Schools

This is the seventh in a series of articles by Supt. R. E. Clabaugh and Eleanor Milstead on schools and school legislation.

Did you know?

That House Bill No. 77 which provides for cash scholarships to be given by the state to about 3000 high school students in Illinois each year has been introduced to the House of Representatives and merits the support of all forward-looking citizens.

That the teachers minimum salary bill, H. 175, was heard by the House Education Committee on Tuesday and that if you have not written in support of it, your letter is still needed.

That the I. E. A. Teacher Retirement bills (the main bill is H. 441) providing in addition to the present minimum retirement allowance of $400 at fifty after twenty-five years of teaching service, $600 as a minimum at sixty after thirty years of teaching, and also increasing the minimum in disability allowances from $200 per year to $400 per year, are advancing. H. 441, now on third reading in the House, needs your support.

That House Joint Resolution 31, making possible the sensible amendment of the Illinois state constitution needs your support.

That the Junior College Bill, S. 153, was unanimously recommended by the Senate Education Committee to pass and needs support in the Senate now.

That if you are interested in the progress of education in Illinois you should consider it your duty to write in regarding these bills now.

If you want information about where to write or would like your name on a mailing list to receive information about your school legislation you may call 596.

Thank helpers in war fund drive

To the good people of Arlington Heights, captains and all volunteer workers in the recent Red Cross Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Knapp of the Arlington Theatre, we want to express our deepest appreciation for their able assistance.

The generous contributions in the village itself surpassed that of former years.

We hope we will be pardoned for being seemingly late in making a report in which we know you are vitally interested.

We had hoped the final credits of all industrial plants allocated to Arlington Heights would be in before now, however such not being the case the standing to date is $6,423.68, of which we can be justly proud. $7,200 was the set quota and when all credits are in, we feel sure we will go over the top.

Again, please accept the sincere thanks of the Red Cross committee.

Mrs. H. G. Taylor, chairman.
Mrs. G. C. Hieber, co-chairman

Sandwiches, too, at 'Bundles' party

Our apologies for not mentioning in last week's paper that besides cake and coffee, sandwiches will be served at the Bundles for America card party May 16. This will be an evening party at the Field House so the men can join in the fun, too. Everyone who buys a ticket (60c, incl. tax) is aiding a man in service or his family. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Nicholas Mayer, 1369-M, or from any Bundles worker. Some lucky person will win an F. D. R. war bond at the party.

Dear neighbor

I missed writing you last week — there were many tag ends to tie up, and I wanted to be able to give you all the facts on the 7th War Loan Drive. The committee for Arlington Heights is now fully organized, with the following personnel:

Chairman, Paul E. Miller.

Co-chairmen. Aubrey M. Neville, S. A. Baker, Donald D. Florence.

Business Men's Group, Donald D. Florence.

Southwest, Albert W. Meyer, chairman; Marion Hogate, co-chairman.

Scarsdale, Earl W. Hedlund, chairman.

Stonegate, Wallace Jacobus, chairman.

East, Chas. O'Hagan, chairman.

North, Frank H. Meyer, chairman.

Northwest Martin W. Freeman, Mrs. John F. Shanklin, chairmen.

Sherwood, Ben K. Babbitt.

Rural group, Geo. F. Meyer, chairman; C. H. Mills, co-chairman.

Women's group, Mrs. Kenneth W. Kennedy, chairman.

Director publicity, Mrs. Rex Volz.

Understand every nome in Arlington Heights and the surrounding community will be contacted during the period of the drive — May 14th to June 30th. I want to remind you that any bonds you buy now will be credited to our quota, provided of course, purchase is made right here in Arlington Heights. The quota assigned Arlington Heights is $140,000.00. Yes indeed, that is a large order, but the committee has every confidence that the good neighbors of Arlington Heights will meet that quota without fail.

Remember. I mentioned the 7th War Loan Drive Poster Project? Well, I certainly wish you could have been along with me when I was privileged to see the work from our four schools. I knew we had some talented youngsters in Arlington Heights, but I was simply amazed at the posters displayed. Picking five from each school was not an easy job for the judges; each poster there told a story — each artist told you why you should buy a bond — and each poster was as individual in its treatment and projection of thought, as the child who drew it. They were all good, and while the choosing was hard, I think the judges were very fair and impartial. The War Loan Committee is indebted to Mrs. N. E. Schwartz, Mr. Herbert Chidley of Palatine, and Mr. Harry Freyermuth, who gave hours of their time to go over the many, many posters entered in the project. And, too, many thanks to Mrs. H. R. Collard and her committee who did all the ground work for the Poster project. These posters are excellent publicity for the Drive, and I'm hoping we can display all of them somewhere here in town so that all of you can see them and I know you'll rave over them as I did. I'll tell you more about our posters in another letter.

Y'know the enthusiasm that develops from working together on a community project like the 7th War Loan Drive makes the work much easier and the hours spent seem less long — and the welding together of ideas brings an efficient, smooth-running working organization. Don't you want to do your part? Call your neighborhood representative and give him a lift. You'll be a Good Neighbor, for sure. You may offer to help through a sense of duty, but you'll finish up by making new friends and really enjoying every minute you spend.

My curiosity is about to consume me — I've been asked to suggest to you all that you keep your eyes peeled in the vicinity of the railroad park for the next few days. You'll be watching, too?

And now, until next week, when I'll have more 7th War Loan Drive news for you, keep on buying bonds.

Your Neighbor.

Mt. Prospect Firemens dance Saturday night

The Mt. Prospect Firemen are holding their annual spring dance at the Mt. Prospect Country Club, on Saturday evening, April 28. The entire proceeds of the dance will be turned over to the fire house fund. The fire laddies are planning on building a new firehouse and auditorium as soon as the war is over, so do your part and help them along.

Have you heard the "Warmed Over Five?" A real treat is in store for you—bells and all, there'll be no wall flowers with this music.

Due to the curfew, dancing will be from 8 to 12, so come early. Curfew rings at 12.

Arlington Heights 7th in home building for March permits

Arlington Heights issued building permits for 25 homes during March, placing that community seventh among the Chicago suburbs, and first among the northwest suburbs. Des Plaines was tenth with eleven homes.

Ball season opens Sunday at Mt. Prospect

Arlington church team is visitor in double header

The baseball season will be inaugurated this coming Sunday afternoon when St. John of Arlington Heights is the visiting team in a double header in Mt. Prospect. Twenty boys have tried out for the team and from this group a fairly good team has been formed. The boys have been practicing diligently for the past several weeks and after a few games of real competition the team should give the fans some good baseball. Several of the boys play on the high school team and some of the other boys show real promise.

Games have been scheduled for the next two Sundays but the team is looking for more games, both at home and in the neighboring area. Any team wishing games please call Wm. Wille at Mt. Prospect 1170-J.

Since the older boys have gone to war Mt. Prospect has been without a baseball team for several years. The youngsters hope to keep the game alive in Mt. Prospect.

For real baseball thrills and good clean sport come and help support your home town team. The diamond is located on Busse and Owen and the first game starts at 1:30.

RM1c Milford R. Fink, son of Mrs. H. Hestrup, Palatine, and Miss Ruth Lamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lamp, Washington, D. C., were united in marriage March 22 at 7:30 p. m. at the Congress Street Methodist church, Washington, D. C.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely dressed in a white wool street length dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage. Miss Elsie Moreland, maid of honor, wore a blue crepe dress with white accessories and orchid corsage.

The groom was attended by R M1c Timmons, who has served overseas with him the past three and one-half years. John Lamp, brother of the bride, and RM1c Wilson were ushers.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors.

Mrs. H. Hestrup, mother of the groom, was a guest at the wedding.

The young couple will make their home at 3241 N. Street, Washington, D. C., where RM1c Fink is stationed.

Nurses club enjoys book review

The Arlington Heights Nurses Club held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. H. O. Meisenheimer Friday, April 20. The evening was enjoyed by everyone by the presence of Mrs. Ellerbrake of Barrington. Mrs. Ellerbrake gave a book review of "The Robe" by Lloyd C. Douglas. This book, which had been read by many present, was given a new meaning by the reviewer's explanation of its many simple but beautiful passages.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leckband Saturday, May 19, at 8 p. m.

Milo J. Vondracek, Minister

Sunday:

9:45 a. m. The Sunday church school is making rapid strides in achieving some of the goal outlined last fall. Mr. M. W. Prellberg, superintendent, reports decided increases in attendance and an improved attitude toward learning on the part of the students.

11 a. m. The morning worship service will again turn our attention toward the more significant implications of this Christian religion we profess in a world that is too much given to its own clever devices. The choir will sing and the sermon will be "Blundering Builders."

4:30 p. m. A Memorial vesper service for the late Lt. George F. Grossi will be held in the sanctuary. The choir will sing appropriate music, the American Legion will post a color guard and the minister of the church will conduct this service.

6 p. m. The pre-hi youth fellowship will meet under the guidance of Miss K. Hines.

7 p. m. The Hi-League Fellowship will be led in a devotional service.

Monday:

7:30 p. m. The interdenominational leadership school will meet for its third session.

Dr. Vartan Melconian will again address the General Hour at 7:45 p. m. on "Christ the Saviour." There are now about 125 registrations for the school.

Thursday:

8 p. m. The choir will rehearse appropriate music for the special services that are forthcoming in the church.

Understand every nome in Arlington Heights and the surrounding community will be contacted during the period of the drive — May 14th to June 30th. I want to remind you that any bonds you buy now will be credited to our quota, provided of course, purchase is made right here in Arlington Heights. The quota assigned Arlington Heights is $140,000.00. Yes indeed, that is a large order, but the committee has every confidence that the good neighbors of Arlington Heights will meet that quota without fail.

Remember, I mentioned the 7th War Loan Drive Poster Project? Well, I certainly wish you could have been along with me when I was privileged to see the work from our four schools. I knew we had some talented youngsters in Arlington Heights, but I was simply amazed at the posters displayed. Picking five from each school was not an easy job for the judges; each poster there told a story — each artist told you why you should buy a bond — and each poster was as individual in its treatment and projection of thought, as the child who drew it. They were all good, and while the choosing was hard, I think the judges were very fair and impartial. The War Loan Committee is indebted to Mrs. N. E. Schwartz, Mr. Herbert Chidley of Palatine, and Mr. Harry Freyermuth, who gave hours of their time to go over the many, many posters entered in the project. And, too, many thanks to Mrs. H. R. Collard and her committee who did all the ground work for the Poster project. These posters are excellent publicity for the Drive, and I'm hoping we can display all of them somewhere here in town so that all of you can see them and I know you'll rave over them as I did. I'll tell you more about our posters in another letter.

Y'know the enthusiasm that develops from working together on a community project like the 7th War Loan Drive makes the work much easier and the hours spent seem less long — and the welding together of ideas brings an efficient, smooth-running working organization. Don't you want to do your part? Call your neighborhood representative and give him a lift. You'll be a Good Neighbor, for sure. You may offer to help through a sense of duty, but you'll finish up by making new friends and really enjoying every minute you spend.

My curiosity is about to consume me — I've been asked to suggest to you all that you keep your eyes peeled in the vicinity of the railroad park for the next few days. You'll be watching, too?

And now, until next week, when I'll have more 7th War Loan Drive news for you, keep on buying bonds.

Your Neighbor.

Leaves for Frisco conference

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Felbinger of Albert Street, Mt. Prospect, were hosts in Chicago last Friday evening at a dinner party they gave in honor of old Washington newspaper friends of theirs who were passing through en route to the San Francisco peace conference.

Mr. Felbinger, veteran newsreel political reporter and Midwest Editor of Paramount News, then boarded the special train, en route to San Francisco where he will be stationed the next four to six weeks covering the assignment.

Ball season opens Sunday at Mt. Prospect

Arlington church team is visitor in double header

The baseball season will be inaugurated this coming Sunday afternoon when St. John of Arlington Heights is the visiting team in a double header in Mt. Prospect. Twenty boys have tried out for the team and from this group a fairly good team has been formed. The boys have been practicing diligently for the past several weeks and after a few games of real competition the team should give the fans some good baseball. Several of the boys play on the high school team and some of the other boys show real promise.

Games have been scheduled for the next two Sundays but the team is looking for more games, both at home and in the neighboring area. Any team wishing games please call Wm. Wille at Mt. Prospect 1170-J.

Since the older boys have gone to war Mt. Prospect has been without a baseball team for several years. The youngsters hope to keep the game alive in Mt. Prospect.

For real baseball thrills and good clean sport come and help support your home town team. The diamond is located on Busse and Owen and the first game starts at 1:30.

Girl scouts make plans for coming years

Every member of the Girl Scout organization in Arlington Heights from seven-year-old Brownies to council members, will have a chance to participate in planning for the work of Girl Scouting throughout the nation during 1946 and 1947, according to a plan announced by Mrs. Alva H. Meyer, President of the G. S. Council.

The two-year plan of work for Girl Scouting will be formulated for the years ahead during the late spring and summer. Both Girl Scout adults and Girl Scouts, here and all over the country, will share in building the nation-wide Plan of Work, and this plan, once it has been completed and adopted, will in turn be used as a basis for formulating the plan of work for each council.

The theme for the 1946-47 plan of work will be "Active Citizenship", because nothing seems more important to us than good citizenship in winning the war and protecting the peace.

Active Citizenship is:

Knowing your community and what it needs to make it a happy community. Knowing something about the people who live in it and doing what you can to help them be active citizens.

Believing in the value of doing one's duty to God, to the country and to all mankind. Believing in the right of all citizens to share in the privileges and responsibilities of the community, the country and the world.

Belonging to a community by working with other people for the welfare of the community.

Doing the things one has to do in order to be the kind of person who makes the most valuable kind of active citizen in home, community, country and world.

Girl Scouts in the troops are asked, in helping formulate the nation-wide plan of work, to list at least four things they have done during the past year that have helped them to become more active citizens. They also are asked to list two or three things which they, as individuals and as members of the troop, want to do in the immediate future to become more active citizens. Last, the troop members are asked to list two or three things which they think Girl Scouts all over the country could do in the next two years to promote active citizenship.

Adult members of the organization—leaders, committee members, council members and members of regional and national committees—also have been asked to assist in the preparation of the nation-wide plan which will provide the direction and emphasis for Girl Scouting in the nation. The completed plan will be announced in the fall.

Marionette show next week Sunday

The Arlington Heights Junior Woman's Club is presenting the George Cole family and their marionettes on Sunday, May 6th. The show will be given at the Arlington Heights Recreation Park Field House. Three performances will be given this year at 1:30 p. m.; 3:00 p. m.; and 4:30 p. m. Tickets are on sale this week at your school at 30c each, including tax.

Mrs. George Cole was at the schools demonstrating how the marionettes work on Thursday of this week.

Special attention will be given to seating the little folks this year so that they will be able to see the show without having to stand. Candy will be sold before the performance.

Chief operator given farewell party

Mrs. Joanne Hart, Park Ridge, who has been chief operator at the Arlington Heights telephone exchange since April, 1944, was honored Wednesday evening by the "hello" girls. A party was held in the recreation room of the office, where refreshments were served and a gift presented to Mrs. Hart which expressed the regret of her fellow employees over her departure. She leaves at the end of the week, taking a well earned furlough.

Miss Olga Skarlose will be the new chief operator.

S1c William Lidderdale, who is stationed at Great Lakes was a Sunday guest at the Allen Schulte home.

OES notes

Thursday evening, April 26, Arlington Heights Chapter O. E. S. will observe Friends Night. Catherine and Darwin Van Scoyoc, worthy matron and worthy patron of Palatine chapter will be in the East. Lena Newlon, worthy matron of Glenview chapter, will be guests of honor. The Girls Club of Arlington Heights chapter will sponsor a penny social following the meeting.

Agnes Olson, associate matron, served as organist at Edison Park chapter on April 16. Myrtle Frye, G. L., was guest of honor on Past Officers night at Des Plaines chapter. Florence Luckner, secretary of Arlington Heights chapter, served as Esther the same evening.

Mrs. Marie Bolte was hostess to the Five Hundred Club at her home Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Clarence Horcher entertained the birthday club Wednesday at a one o'clock luncheon at her home.

Mrs. Arthur Weinrich entertained her pinochle club at her home Thursday evening. High honors were won by Mrs. H. Collignon.

Mrs. Levi Heap and daughter, Mrs. Verna Meyer, of Crystal Lake visited friends in Arlington Heights Friday.

Cpl. Gene Hughes of Camp Meade, Md., was a recent house guest at the C. A. Hughes home.

Cpl. Wm. G. Diener, stationed at Great Bends, Wis., visited Miss Catherine Hughes recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Haynes Schuler, nee Lorraine Muller, Albuquerque, N. M., are parents of a baby girl, Mary Louise, born Monday, April 23. Mrs. Schuler formerly lived in Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Charles Heiss, accompanied by her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Risak of Highland Park, returned Monday from a week's visit with friends in Youngstown, Ohio.

Mr. & Mrs. Winkelman are married 50 years

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winkelman, 219 S. Evergreen St., Arlington Heights, held open house Wednesday, April 18 in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Over a hundred guests called during the reception hours in the afternoon and evening. A buffet luncheon was served at a table attractive with gold and white decorations.

In the evening at eight o'clock the hour which Mr. and Mrs. Winkelman were married, four grandchildren, Mrs. Shirley Cundoff, Arlene Michel, Jean Scharringhausen, accompanied by Irene Scharringhausem, sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold and "What Friend We Have in Jesus".

Mr. and Mrs. Winkelman were married in Hampshire, Ill., April 18, 1895, and have lived in Arlington Heights since that time.

They have nine living children, Miss Emma Winkelman, Mrs. Edna Scharinghausem, Mrs. Alice Hahnfeldt, Edwin Winkelman of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Clara Michel, Mrs. Theresa Erwig of River Grove, Mrs. Blanche DePue, Palatine, Mrs. Lydia Sponholtz, Chicago, Pvt. George Winkelman in service, and nine grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Winkelman entertained the immediate family at dinner Sunday evening in celebration of their golden anniversary.

Girl scouts make plans for coming years

Every member of the Girl Scout organization in Arlington Heights from seven-year-old Brownies to council members, will have a chance to participate in planning for the work of Girl Scouting throughout the nation during 1946 and 1947, according to a plan announced by Mrs. Alva H. Meyer, President of the G. S. Council.

The two-year plan of work for Girl Scouting will be formulated for the years ahead during the late spring and summer. Both Girl Scout adults and Girl Scouts, here and all over the country, will share in building the nation-wide Plan of Work, and this plan, once it has been completed and adopted, will in turn be used as a basis for formulating the plan of work for each council.

The theme for the 1946-47 plan of work will be "Active Citizenship", because nothing seems more important to us than good citizenship in winning the war and protecting the peace.

Active Citizenship is:

Knowing your community and what it needs to make it a happy community. Knowing something about the people who live in it and doing what you can to help them be active citizens.

Believing in the value of doing one's duty to God, to the country and to all mankind. Believing in the right of all citizens to share in the privileges and responsibilities of the community, the country and the world.

Belonging to a community by working with other people for the welfare of the community.

Doing the things one has to do in order to be the kind of person who makes the most valuable kind of active citizen in home, community, country and world.

Girl Scouts in the troops are asked, in helping formulate the nation-wide plan of work, to list at least four things they have done during the past year that have helped them to become more active citizens. They also are asked to list two or three things which they, as individuals and as members of the troop, want to do in the immediate future to become more active citizens. Last, the troop members are asked to list two or three things which they think Girl Scouts all over the country could do in the next two years to promote active citizenship.

Adult members of the organization—leaders, committee members, council members and members of regional and national committees—also have been asked to assist in the preparation of the nation-wide plan which will provide the direction and emphasis for Girl Scouting in the nation. The completed plan will be announced in the fall.

Marionette show next week Sunday

The Arlington Heights Junior Woman's Club is presenting the George Cole family and their marionettes on Sunday, May 6th. The show will be given at the Arlington Heights Recreation Park Field House. Three performances will be given this year at 1:30 p. m.; 3:00 p. m.; and 4:30 p. m. Tickets are on sale this week at your school at 30c each, including tax.

Mrs. George Cole was at the schools demonstrating how the marionettes work on Thursday of this week.

Special attention will be given to seating the little folks this year so that they will be able to see the show without having to stand. Candy will be sold before the performance.

Chief operator given farewell party

Mrs. Joanne Hart, Park Ridge, who has been chief operator at the Arlington Heights telephone exchange since April, 1944, was honored Wednesday evening by the "hello" girls. A party was held in the recreation room of the office, where refreshments were served and a gift presented to Mrs. Hart which expressed the regret of her fellow employees over her departure. She leaves at the end of the week, taking a well earned furlough.

Miss Olga Skarlose will be the new chief operator.

S1c William Lidderdale, who is stationed at Great Lakes was a Sunday guest at the Allen Schulte home.

Martha Circle honor Mr. and Mrs. Winkelman

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winkelman, 219 S. Evergreen st., Arlington Heights, were guests of honor at a twelve o'clock luncheon Tuesday given in celebration of their fiftieth wedding anniversary by the Martha Circle of the St. Johns church in the church dining room.

The table, artistically arranged with gold and white decorations, was centered with a large wedding cake.

Following the luncheon a skit, "The First Tiff" was presented by Mrs. Kamphenkel and Mrs. Barney Runge. A poem "Home" was then read and dedicated to the bride and groom by Mrs. Wm. Deering. Mrs. Kamphenkel gave a poem which she had cleverly written relating the life history of the couple. The "Winkelman Tree" was given by Mrs. Wm. Lauterburg.

Rev. Kamphenkel closed the afternoon with a blessing for the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Winkeman have been members of the St. John Evangelical church for the past twenty years.

'Tom Sawyer' operetta next week

On Thursday evening, May 3, and on Sunday evening, May 6, pupils of St. Peter Lutheran school will present the operetta "Tom Sawyer" in the Lutheran school auditorium in Arlington Heights.

This operetta is based on Mark Twain's story "Tom Sawyer". The The story was dramatized by Theodosia Paynter; this music was written by G. A. Grant Schaefer.

Faculty and pupils are busily at work rehearsing the operetta. A donation of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children is requested. Tickets may be obtained from the pupils of the school. The public is invited.

Des Plaines girl bride of Ensign John Rodgers

Miss Norma Jean Van Arsdale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Van Arsdale, Des Plaines, became the bride of Ens. John Rodgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Rodgers, Prospect Heights, Saturday, April 21, at 7:30, at the Des Plaines Congregational church. The Rev. Brehm officiated at the candle light service.

The bride was charming in a white taffeta gown with a long train and a finger tip veil with a tiara of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was white carnations and gardenias with sweet pea streamers.

Miss Annabeil Van Arsdale, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a pink net gown with a matching blusher and carried a colonial bouquet of pink, yellow and white carnations centered with deep orchid sweet peas.

Miss LaVerne Kranz, bridesmaid, was dressed in a yellow net gown. Miss Shirley Benson, bridesmaid, wore a blue net gown and Miss Beverly Lutz, another bridesmaid, was dressed in an aqua net gown. The attendants all had matching blushers.

Lt. Robert Semnott of Evanston acted as best man. The ushers were Peter Rodgers and William and Boyd MacRoberts.

The mother of the bride wore an aqua dress with a white gardenia corsage. The groom's mother was dressed in a navy and light blue dress with a white gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for 125 guests.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at the Edgewater Beach Hotel, Chicago.

The groom has served eight months on the Fighting Lady in the West Pacific. They will leave May 1 to make their home in Jacksonville, Florida, where he is now stationed.

Leadership school attracts large number

The Northwest Suburban Leadership School for Church School teachers and officers attracts larger numbers each week of its session. There are at present 125 persons enrolled in the school, an increase of 21 over a week ago. Dr. Melconian attracts a large audience to his spirited addresses on the "Religion in the Bible".

The various commissions are covering practical materials and the teachers are urged to bring their problems to these working sessions. Comments heard indicate that this is a real clinical experience and much abiding value will come from these sessions of instruction and leadership.

There are still three sessions. They are held every Monday night at the Methodist Meeting House, Arlington Heights, from 7:30 to 9:45 p. m.

Next week a detailed report on the enrollment and attendance from the various churches will be given. An analysis will also be made by divisions.

4-H club rally

The annual rally of the 4-H clubs will be held at Rand Field House in Des Plaines, Friday, May 8, at 7:30 p. m. All the girls and boys are invited.

Dist. Legion Auxiliary honors state officers

The 25th anniversary dinner given by the ninth district American Legion Auxiliary Thursday, April 19, was held at the Swedish Club 1258 N. LaSalle st., Chicago.

Guests of honor were Mrs. Bertha Shimkus, president department of Illinois, Mrs. Katherine Stack, 2nd vice president department of Illinois, Mrs. Florence Hoffman, chaplain department of Illinois, Mrs. Mary O'Brien, president Cook County Council, Chas. Donath, 9th district commander, Dr. Arthur Platts, 9th district senior vice commander, George Comfield, district junior vice commander, Fred Peper, district adjutant, Philip Skwers, district sergeant at arms, Erwin Harland, S. A. L. chairman, Doris Mae Zimmerman, 9th district junior chairman, Robert Moehling, 9th district S. A. L. captain.

Decorations were silver and white in keeping with the 25th anniversary of the founding of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Preceding a dinner of roast turkey with all the trimmings, the program was opened by the pledge of allegiance and singing the Star Spangled Banner by the assembly. A prayer was read by the district chaplain, Bernice Korcz.

After the dinner a few opening remarks were made by the 9th district director, Fannie Harland and chairman, co-chairman, personal guests and 9th district legion officers were introduced.

Community singing was led by Anne Kelly of Belmont Park unit. Two baton twirlers, known as the "twirlettes" entertained the assembly with a band. A good laugh was furnished everyone by "The Midget Review" put on by six members of Melin Romer Unit.

Greetings were given by Robert Moehling, S. A. L. captain; Doris Mae Zimmerman, 9th district junior chairman; Mary O'Brien, Cook county council president.

The officers of the department of Illinois were then introduced and Mrs. Bertha Shimkus, department president, spoke of the Auxiliary's silver jubilee of service to the legion. She stated the hospital program is getting heavier and will continue to grow as the boys returning home will look to us for help and they must not be forgotten. She told of several incidents of boys returning and their problems. Mrs. Shimkus said that through the child welfare program the group is endeavoring to bring aid to every needy veteran's child.

Mrs. Shimkus commended the 9th district for the way they have participated in the departments program.

Mrs. Lucia Lackowsky, membership chairman, was introduced and reported that the 9th district had reached its quota with a total membership of 2,785. There are 22 units in the district that have reached their quota.

A clever poem depicting trials and glories, facts and figures of 25 years of service given by the 9th district American Legion Auxiliary was written and read by Mrs. Anne Feller of Albany Park unit. During the 25 years the membership has increased from 740 members to the present total of 2,785.

Mrs. Mae Wisersky, district treasurer, reported a total of 282 reservations made for the dinner.

Just Around the Corner

Dear Elly:

There isn't one of us but what will regret your moving away. You say in your letter that "this time I do not want to go", but I know that actually you are looking forward to meeting new faces and having new experiences. You are not one to long be dissatisfied or unhappy in any situation. You will make your place wherever you go—and you will be contented.

I've searched among "my souvenirs" to find just the right verse to best describe our Elly, but I've failed. Though somehow, if the following poem were to have included little Ken, too, I think it might well be yourself speaking.

Desire

"A slant roof snugged against a quiet hill,
The scent of apple blossoms in the spring.
Then, summer's red geraniums on the window sill,
The maple's flame—of autumn—and I sing
Because each season's change my soul inspires,
These are the changes that my heart desires.
Red berried hedges wreathed in funneled snow,
The fanatasies of frost ferned window panes,
The pungent smell of wood smoke, and I know
The cheery warmth of firelight's eager flames,
Old books, well loved, upon a shelf or two,
And near me, in the flame-lit dusk —just you".

Elly, the books I ordered from Mrs. Collin's Open Book Shop in Elgin, finally arrived in the mail. They had lost their way for a while having been sent to what I formerly thought was radio's mystical country town of Rosedale.

Oh, Elly, you'll love Bolts of Melody! It seems these newly found poems of Emily Dickinson were locked away in a camphorwood chest back in 1896 and not until 1929 were they re-discovered. This present volume is the third step in presenting to the world the literary debut of Emily Dickinson, as none of these poems were published in the other two earlier publications. Here are two short fragments:

In this short life
That only lasts an hour,
How much, how little
Is within our power!
Time does go on,
I tell it gay
To those that suffer now;
They shall survive!
There is a sun!
They don't believe it now.

And Elly, Louis Bromfield's story of his farm, Pleasant Valley, keeps Rob and me burning the lights of night to a scandalous hour! But that's easily understood for Rob and I are farmers at heart (and we hope, in reality) in the not too distant future.

Bromfield says in the preface of his book, "I think it will be understood by the good husband-man who loves his soil and his animals and by the man or woman who finds that for himself there is nothing so exciting or so satisfying or so beautiful as the earth and the seasons and rich green fields and fat cattle, the sound of foxes barking in the night and the racoon's print in the snow."

Yes, I certainly do think old Hi Ho had something when he wrote that there would be "big rainbow in sky and song in heart" if we'd stop telling "everybody how do everything" and "tell self what do". I think Confucious was right. So was Laotzu when he said:

A man with outward courage dares to die,
A man with inward courage dares to live;
But either of these men
Has a better and a worse side than the other.
And who can tell exactly to which qualities
Heaven objects?
Heaven does nothing to win the day,
Says nothing—
Is echoed.
Orders nothing—
Is obeyed,
Advises nothing—
Is right:
And which of-us, seeing that nothing is outside the vast
Wide-meshed net of heaven, knows just how it is cast?

Des Plaines girl bride of Ensign John Rodgers

Miss Norma Jean Van Arsdale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Van Arsdale, Des Plaines, became the bride of Ens. John Rodgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Rodgers, Prospect Heights, Saturday, April 21, at 7:30, at the Des Plaines Congregational church. The Rev. Brehm officiated at the candle light service.

The bride was charming in a white taffeta gown with a long train and a finger tip veil with a tiara of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was white carnations and gardenias with sweet pea streamers.

Miss Annabell Van Arsdale, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a pink net gown with a matching blusher and carried a colonial bouquet of pink, yellow and white carnations centered with deep orchid sweet peas.

Miss LaVerne Kranz, bridesmaid, was dressed in a yellow net gown. Miss Shirley Benson, bridesmaid, wore a blue net gown and Miss Beverly Lutz, another bridesmaid, was dressed in an aqua net gown. The attendants all had matching blushers.

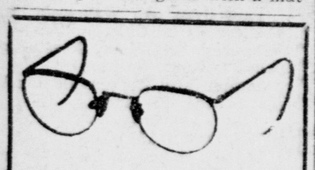

Lt. Robert Semnott of Evanston acted as best man. The ushers were Peter Rodgers and William and Boyd MacRoberts.

The mother of the bride wore an aqua dress with a white gardenia corsage. The groom's mother was dressed in a navy and light blue dress with a white gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for 125 guests.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at the Edgewater Beach Hotel, Chicago.

The groom has served eight months on the Fighting Lady in the West Pacific. They will leave May 1 to make their home in Jacksonville, Florida, where he is now stationed.

Leadership school attracts large number

The Northwest Suburban Leadership School for Church School teachers and officers attracts larger numbers each week of its session. There are at present 125 persons enrolled in the school, an increase of 21 over a week ago. Dr. Melconian attracts a large audience to his spirited addresses on the "Religion in the Bible".

The various commissions are covering practical materials and the teachers are urged to bring their problems to these working sessions. Comments heard indicate that this is a real clinical experience and much abiding value will come from these sessions of instruction and leadership.

There are still three sessions. They are held every Monday night at the Methodist Meeting House, Arlington Heights, from 7:30 to 9:45 p. m.

Next week a detailed report on the enrollment and attendance from the various churches will be given. An analysis will also be made by divisions.

4-H club rally

The annual rally of the 4-H clubs will be held at Rand Field House in Des Plaines, Friday, May 8, at 7:30 p. m. All the girls and boys are invited.

Dist. Legion Auxiliary honors state officers

The 25th anniversary dinner given by the ninth district American Legion Auxiliary Thursday, April 19, was held at the Swedish Club 1258 N. LaSalle st., Chicago.

Guests of honor were Mrs. Bertha Shimkus, president department of Illinois, Mrs. Katherine Stack, 2nd vice president department of Illinois, Mrs. Florence Hoffman, chaplain department of Illinois, Mrs. Mary O'Brien, president Cook County Council, Chas. Donath, 9th district commander, Dr. Arthur Platts, 9th district senior vice commander, George Comfield, district junior vice commander, Fred Peper, district adjutant, Philip Skwers, district sergeant at arms, Erwin Harland, S. A. L. chairman, Doris Mae Zimmerman, 9th district junior chairman, Robert Moehling, 9th district S. A. L. captain.

Decorations were silver and white in keeping with the 25th anniversary of the founding of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Preceding a dinner of roast turkey with all the trimmings, the program was opened by the pledge of allegiance and singing the Star Spangled Banner by the assembly. A prayer was read by the district chaplain, Bernice Korcz.

After the dinner a few opening remarks were made by the 9th district director, Fannie Harland and chairman, co-chairman, personal guests and 9th district legion officers were introduced.

Community singing was led by Anne Kelly of Belmont Park unit. Two baton twirlers, known as the "twirlettes" entertained the assembly with a band. A good laugh was furnished everyone by "The Midget Review" put on by six members of Melin Romer Unit.

Greetings were given by Robert Moehling, S. A. L. captain; Doris Mae Zimmerman, 9th district junior chairman; Mary O'Brien, Cook county council president.

The officers of the department of Illinois were then introduced and Mrs. Bertha Shimkus, department president, spoke of the Auxiliary's silver jubilee of service to the legion. She stated the hospital program is getting heavier and will continue to grow as the boys returning home will look to us for help and they must not be forgotten. She told of several incidents of boys returning and their problems. Mrs. Shimkus said that through the child welfare program the group is endeavoring to bring aid to every needy veteran's child.

Mrs. Shimkus commended the 9th district for the way they have participated in the departments program.

Mrs. Lucia Lackowsky, membership chairman, was introduced and reported that the 9th district had reached its quota with a total membership of 2,785. There are 22 units in the district that have reached their quota.

A clever poem depicting trials and glories, facts and figures of 25 years of service given by the 9th district American Legion Auxiliary was written and read by Mrs. Anne Feller of Albany Park unit. During the 25 years the membership has increased from 740 members to the present total of 2,785.

Mrs. Mae Wisersky, district treasurer, reported a total of 282 reservations made for the dinner.

Just Around the Corner

Dear Elly:

There isn't one of us but what will regret your moving away. You say in your letter that "this time I do not want to go", but I know that actually you are looking forward to meeting new faces and having new experiences. You are not one to long be dissatisfied or unhappy in any situation. You will make your place wherever you go—and you will be contented.

I've searched among "my souvenirs" to find just the right verse to best describe our Elly, but I've failed. Though somehow, if the following poem were to have included little Ken, too, I think it might well be yourself speaking.

Desire

"A slant roof snugged against a quiet hill,
The scent of apple blossoms in the spring.
Then, summer's red geraniums on the window sill,
The maple's flame—of autumn—and I sing
Because each season's change my soul inspires,
These are the changes that my heart desires.
Red berried hedges wreathed in funneled snow,
The fanatasies of frost ferned window panes,
The pungent smell of wood smoke, and I know
The cheery warmth of firelight's eager flames,
Old books, well loved, upon a shelf or two,
And near me, in the flame-lit dusk —just you".

Elly, the books I ordered from Mrs. Collin's Open Book Shop in Elgin, finally arrived in the mail. They had lost their way for a while having been sent to what I formerly thought was radio's mystical country town of Rosedale.

Oh, Elly, you'll love Bolts of Melody! It seems these newly found poems of Emily Dickinson were locked away in a camphorwood chest back in 1896 and not until 1929 were they re-discovered. This present volume is the third step in presenting to the world the literary debut of Emily Dickinson, as none of these poems were published in the other two earlier publications. Here are two short fragments:

In this short life
That only lasts an hour,
How much, how little
Is within our power!
Time does go on,
I tell it gay
To those that suffer now;
They shall survive!
There is a sun!
They don't believe it now.

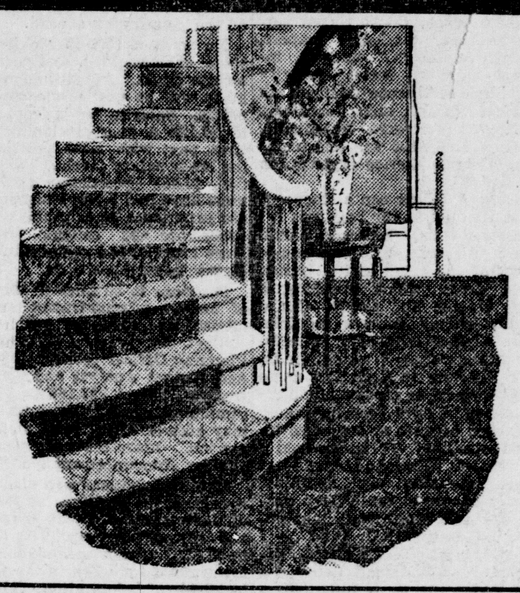

And Elly, Louis Bromfield's story of his farm, Pleasant Valley, keeps Rob and me burning the lights of night to a scandalous hour! But that's easily understood for Rob and I are farmers at heart (and we hope, in reality) in the not too distant future.

Bromfield says in the preface of his book, "I think it will be understood by the good husband-man who loves his soil and his animals and by the man or woman who finds that for himself there is nothing so exciting or so satisfying or so beautiful as the earth and the seasons and rich green fields and fat cattle, the sound of foxes barking in the night and the racoon's print in the snow."

Yes, I certainly do think old Hi Ho had something when he wrote that there would be "big rainbow in sky and song in heart" if we'd stop telling "everybody how do everything" and "tell self what do". I think Confucious was right. So was Laotzu when he said:

A man with outward courage dares to die,
A man with inward courage dares to live;
But either of these men
Has a better and a worse side than the other.
And who can tell exactly to which qualities
Heaven objects?
Heaven does nothing to win the day,
Says nothing—
Is echoed.
Orders nothing—
Is obeyed.
Advises nothing—
Is right:
And which of-us, seeing that nothing is outside the vast
Wide-meshed net of heaven, knows just how it is cast?

With love, Mary.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: I've been told that every veteran should keep his service records in order and in a safe place where they can always be found. Do you agree?

Answer: Yes, indeed. Every ex-member of the armed forces has a serial, service or file number. It is most important that you keep a record of it and of other such data—such as originals or legal copies of necessary papers—in a safe place. There is a good reason for this. Claims and requests for benefits usually require certain information such as Army or Marine Corps serial number, Navy file or service number, details of discharge and, in some cases, proof of the relationship of dependents. The most important records to keep are: Army or Marine Corps serial number, Navy service or file number, Coast Guard service number, discharge papers, disability claim "C" number, insurance policies, social security card, birth certificate (self), birth certificate (wife), birth certificate (children), marriage certificate, divorce decree, last will and testament, selective service registration card.

Question: Where can a discharged vet file claims for back pay?

Answer: Army veterans should address inquiries to the Finance Officer of the camp in the United States from which discharged. Navy, Marine and Coast Guard veterans should address inquiries to the Claims Division, General Accounting Office, Washington 25, D. C. Be sure to print full name and give serial or service number.

Question: I have been honorably discharged because of a service incurred disability. I understand I can receive vocational rehabilitation to overcome my handicap. Will I continue to receive my pension if I take vocational rehabilitation under the G. I. Bill?

Answer: Strictly speaking, "vocational rehabilitation" does not come under the G. I. Bill. There are two training programs operated by the Veterans' Administration—one is "Vocational Rehabilitation" under Public Law 16; the other is the educational feature of the G. I. Bill (Title II, Public Law 346).

If a veteran has a service-connected disability that has been recognized by the Veterans' Administration as constituting a vocational handicap, the veteran is entitled to Vocational Rehabilitation training under Public Law 16; although he may elect to take training under the G. I. Bill.

Vocational training under Public Law 16 may continue for four years, regardless of the length of service in the armed forces.

You are eligible for educational benefits under the G. I. Bill if

a. You have served in the active military or naval service of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the end of World War II.

b. You weren't dishonorably discharged.

c. You have served in the armed forces 90 days or more; or if you were discharged because of injury or disability incurred in service, even though you served less than 90 days.

d. You were not over 25 years old when you were inducted; or, if your education or training was impeded, delayed, interrupted or interfered with by your military service.

The veteran who takes vocational training will receive a monthly check including his pension, as follows:

Single, no depend.	$ 92.00
Married, one depend.	103.50
Married, two depend.	109.25

Civil service examinations

Persons experienced in the fields of budget administration, administrative analysis, and information will be interested in two new examinations announced by the Civil Service Commission. Most positions to be filled from these examinations will be in Washington, D. C., with only a few in other parts of the country or aboard.

No written test is required for these examinations, and there are no age limits. Appointments to be made will be war service appointments. Salaries range from $3,163 to $7,128 a year, including overtime pay, with most positions at the lower salary levels. To qualify for $3,163 positions, applicants must have had 3 years of appropriate experience or a combination of experience and college training. More experience is required for the higher paying positions.

Positions to be filled in the fields of budget administration and administrative analysis will include Budget Officer and Management Planning Officer ($5,228 to $7,128) and Budget Analyst and Administrative Analyst ($3,163 to $7,128). Similar positions in these two fields may also be filled from this examination. Interested persons should ask for Announcement No. 356.

Qualified persons are also being sought to fill positions as Director of Information ($5,228 to $7,128) and Information Specialists ($3,163 to $7,128). Information specialists are wanted for work in the following fields of information: (1) press and publications; (2) visual presentation; (3) radio and (4) advertising. Complete information on this examination can be found in Announcement No. 357.

Draftsmen of various types are urgently needed for government service in the states of Illinois and Wisconsin.

Among qualified specialists being sought are those listed in statistical, topographical, engineering, mechanical, cartographic, architectural, electrical, and heating and ventilating. Opportunities also are open for workers less advanced in these lines.

Yearly salaries range from $1752 up to $3163, which includes overtime. There are no age limits and no written examination is required.

Vacancies in the position of Inspector, Powder and Explosives exist in the Ordnance Department at Large, War Department, throughout the states of Illinois and Wisconsin. Annual salaries, including overtime, are from $1752 to $3163.

It Happened Here

Such a stir! The neighbors seem all to be caught in the same vortex; everything flaps because everyone is hanging out curtains, blankets, draperies, sheets by the score and multi-colored rugs; even the fruit trees and clouds have caught the infection, are dazzlingly white or blown hither and thither. Blankets flap to the danger of their bindings and there is much raking in the yards along with fence mending and painting of iron grille work; the birds think it's a party and provide music; over in the woods the crow shouts, "Haw! Haw!" in true top sergeant style. Spring is all right but need it be so strenuous? Peggy says she wishes she needn't worry so much about her neighbors; Betty, she is sure, will be lame from so many hours of raking; Mrs. C.'s house is large and has so many windows and it may rain before all those curtains are stretched and dry; eight sheets on Mrs. G.'s line are far too many for one woman to handle, and the plaid blankets on the pulley line will be switched to bits in this April breeze; Mr. Smith looks all fagged out returning from his victory garden; Mrs. Sell, with a brood of youngsters, is trying to wash the woodwork of her front room and Grandpa Graham has an endless task painting his iron fence. Better draw the shades and shut out the neighbor's doings.

—S'AMUSER.

Prof. Smyser entertained the senior class with a reception at his home Saturday night.

Arlington Heights

The 8 boys of St. Peter's congregation, Adolph Noack, Peter Hartmann, Paul Taege, Oscar Weinrich, Albert Meier, Henry Erhardt, Edwin Schulenburg and Henry Meier, who are attending the Lutheran college at Milwaukee, are home this week for their spring vacation.

Mr. Frank Kreft and family spent Sunday at Mt. Prospect to celebrate the birthday of their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pohlmann.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hartmann are parents of a son born April 10.

A farewell surprise party was given in honor of Miss Mayme Schmidt at the home of Miss Daisy Proctor last Friday evening.

Spices reappear on U. S. shelves

Natural spices are returning to shelves of stores and pantries to cheer up the American cooks who like to add a dash of this or a dash of that for variety.

The spice story involves the favorable progress of the war which has reopened the major world ports to commerce. There have been spices available throughout the war years but many of these have come from pre-war supplies or have been synthetic. The A. & P. Service for Home-Makers explains that for many months after the start of Nazi U-boat operations and the Jap attack at Pearl Harbor the usual shipping of Old World and Oriental spice and herb supplies was almost impossible.

Proof that the spice map covers most of the world is shown in the listing of ports from which spices and herbs again are flowing into American commerce. Importers are renewing contact with Indian sources of pepper, nutmeg and mace. The Mediterranean area is ready with cumin, coriander and herbs. Holland, Belgium and Russia have supplies of caraway seed, France is a source of thyme and marjoram, Zanzibar for cloves, Spain for paprika and Madagascar for vanilla.

PALATINE

The will of William Langhorst, who died in Palatine January 24, leaving an estimated $18,000 estate, has been admitted to probate. He left all his estate to his widow, Sophia.

Space Heater

The French warming pan (rechaud) was the connecting link between the ancient brazier and the modern space heater. Consisting of a firebox with openings at the bottom for drafts of air and an arrangement at the top for cooking, all it lacked to be a true stove was a pipe to carry off the smoke—and that was later added by a Frenchman named Savot. But the rechaud enjoyed no popularity in England or America, where people clung to the traditional open hearth.

Benjamin dance this Saturday

A spring assembly and dance sponsored by the employees and management of the Benjamin Electric Mfg. Company will be held Saturday, April 28, at 8 o'clock at the Rand Park Field House in Des Plaines.

Hoyt P. Steele, Vice president of the company, will give a progress report on the future plans of the company designed to provide continuous employment of all Benjamin employees including those now on military leave of absence.

A feature of the program will be a Benjamin Amateur Revue under the direction of George Benbow of the Engineering Department. Dance music will be by Norm Falkner and his orchestra.

The entertainment committee, which consists of Mary Hanus, Tony DeFalco, Elmer Garms and Frank Callahan, has distributed more than 900 tickets to Benjamin employees for distribution to their families and friends.

New gas group

Recently announced changes in the gasoline rationing regulations creating a new classification of drivers referred to as "semi-preferred" who will be allowed 825 miles of occupational driving a month will not benefit the great majority of "B" book holders, such as salesmen or persons in other non-preferred occupations, says a bulletin issued by the Chicago Motor Club.

"The effect of the change" says the bulletin "is principally to cut down the rations of some drivers in the "C" classification who have heretofore been entitled to more than 825 miles a month."

Tell of services possible with frozen locker plant

Plans for one of the most modern locker plants in this section of the country are being completed by George Ehlers, a pioneer in the frozen food locker business. He installed one of the first locker plants in the Chicago area in Des Plaines several years ago, and has followed the many changes and improvements in the frozen food industry. He plans to open a locker plant in Arlington Heights soon.

For those who are not yet acquainted with the operation of a locker plant this is the usual procedure. A locker is rented for an individual family, who are then entitled to bring in for processing any merchandise they want quick frozen and stored for future use, as meat, fish, poultry, vegetables and fruit.

The locker patron's meat may be brought in by the carcass with instructions to be cut, wrapped, labeled, quick frozen and stored in the locker ready to prepare for the table. Poultry can be brought in alive or ready dressed.

The new plant will handle farm electric appliances as well as a full line of frozen foods.

The plant plans, if enough applications are signed and priorities are granted, will accommodate 600 patrons with a large bulk storage room for restaurants, taverns and locker overflows.

A large chill room to accommodate farmers who do their own butchering will be available so they can have their meat cooled and aged at correct temperatures.

The cutting room will be glass partitioned to give the patrons the opportunity to see the merchandise processed, a service many locker patrons have been waiting for.

An office with evening hours 7 to 9 p. m. has been opened at 304 N. Evergreen st., Arlington Heights.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: I've been told that every veteran should keep his service records in order and in a safe place where they can always be found. Do you agree?

Answer: Yes, indeed. Every ex-member of the armed forces has a serial, service or file number. It is most important that you keep a record of it and of other such data—such as originals or legal copies of necessary papers—in a safe place. There is a good reason for this. Claims and requests for benefits usually require certain information such as Army or Marine Corps serial number, Navy file or service number, details of discharge and, in some cases, proof of the relationship of dependents. The most important records to keep are: Army or Marine Corps serial number, Navy service or file number, Coast Guard service number, discharge papers, disability claim "C" number, insurance policies, social security card, birth certificate (self), birth certificate (wife), birth certificate (children), marriage certificate, divorce decree, last will and testament, selective service registration card.

Question: Where can a discharged vet file claims for back pay?

Answer: Army veterans should address inquiries to the Finance Officer of the camp in the United States from which discharged. Navy, Marine and Coast Guard veterans should address inquiries to the Claims Division, General Accounting Office, Washington 25, D. C. Be sure to print full name and give serial or service number.

Question: I have been honorably discharged because of a service incurred disability. I understand I can receive vocational rehabilitation to overcome my handicap. Will I continue to receive my pension if I take vocational rehabilitation under the G. I. Bill?

Answer: Strictly speaking, "vocational rehabilitation" does not come under the G. I. Bill. There are two training programs operated by the Veterans' Administration—one is "Vocational Rehabilitation" under Public Law 16; the other is the educational feature of the G. I. Bill (Title II, Public Law 346).

If a veteran has a service-connected disability that has been recognized by the Veterans' Administration as constituting a vocational handicap, the veteran is entitled to Vocational Rehabilitation training under Public Law 16; although he may elect to take training under the G. I. Bill.

Vocational training under Public Law 16 may continue for four years, regardless of the length of service in the armed forces.

You are eligible for educational benefits under the G. I. Bill if

a. You have served in the active military or naval service of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the end of World War II.

b. You weren't dishonorably discharged.

c. You have served in the armed forces 90 days or more; or if you were discharged because of injury or disability incurred in service, even though you served less than 90 days.

d. You were not over 25 years old when you were inducted; or, if your education or training was impeded, delayed, interrupted or interfered with by your military service.

The veteran who takes vocational training will receive a monthly check including his pension, as follows:

Single, no depend.	$ 92.00
Married, one depend.	103.50
Married, two depend.	109.25

Civil service examinations

Persons experienced in the fields of budget administration, administrative analysis, and information will be interested in two new examinations announced by the Civil Service Commission. Most positions to be filled from these examinations will be in Washington, D. C., with only a few in other parts of the country or aboard.

No written test is required for these examinations, and there are no age limits. Appointments to be made will be war service appointments. Salaries range from $3,163 to $7,128 a year, including overtime pay, with most positions at the lower salary levels. To qualify for $3,163 positions, applicants must have had 3 years of appropriate experience or a combination of experience and college training. More experience is required for the higher paying positions.

Positions to be filled in the fields of budget administration and administrative analysis will include Budget Officer and Management Planning Officer ($5,228 to $7,128) and Budget Analyst and Administrative Analyst ($3,163 to $7,128). Similar positions in these two fields may also be filled from this examination. Interested persons should ask for Announcement No. 356.

Qualified persons are also being sought to fill positions as Director of Information ($5,228 to $7,128) and Information Specialists ($3,163 to $7,128). Information specialists are wanted for work in the following fields of information: (1) press and publications; (2) visual presentation; (3) radio and (4) advertising. Complete information on this examination can be found in Announcement No. 357.

Draftsmen of various types are urgently needed for government service in the states of Illinois and Wisconsin.

Among qualified specialists being sought are those listed in statistical, topographical, engineering, mechanical, cartographic, architectural, electrical, and heating and ventilating. Opportunities also are open for workers less advanced in these lines.

Yearly salaries range from $1752 up to $3163, which includes overtime. There are no age limits and no written examination is required.

Vacancies in the position of Inspector, Powder and Explosives exist in the Ordnance Department at Large, War Department, throughout the states of Illinois and Wisconsin. Annual salaries, including overtime, are from $1752 to $3163.

It Happened Here

Such a stir! The neighbors seem all to be caught in the same vortex; everything flaps because everyone is hanging out curtains, blankets, draperies, sheets by the score and multi-colored rugs; even the fruit trees and clouds have caught the infection, are dazzlingly white or blown hither and thither. Blankets flap to the danger of their bindings and there is much raking in the yards along with fence mending and painting of iron grille work; the birds think it's a party and provide music; over in the woods the crow shouts, "Haw! Haw!" in true top sergeant style. Spring is all right but need it be so strenuous? Peggy says she wishes she needn't worry so much about her neighbors; Betty, she is sure, will be lame from so many hours of raking; Mrs. C.'s house is large and has so many windows and it may rain before all those curtains are stretched and dry; eight sheets on Mrs. G.'s line are far too many for one woman to handle, and the plaid blankets on the pulley line will be switched to bits in this April breeze; Mr. Smith looks all fagged out returning from his victory garden; Mrs. Sell, with a brood of youngsters, is trying to wash the woodwork of her front room and Grandpa Graham has an endless task painting his iron fence. Better draw the shades and shut out the neighbor's doings.

—S'AMUSER.

Injured vet home on furlough

Now home on furlough from Billings Gen'l Hopsital at Indianapolis, Indiana, is Harold Nebel of Arlington Heights. Harold was injured in a jeep accident December 22, and has been in the hospital ever since.

The jeep in which Nebel was riding struck a 6x6 truck driven by a French civilian, who had just backed on to the road as the jeep was hurrying to the front lines. Two men were killed and Harold suffered the loss of his front teeth, part of his nose, and suffered cuts about the face and eyes, plus compound fracture of the knee cap.

Harold arrived home Friday and will be home 30 days. He then returns to Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis.

Virginia

Changing her address from Washington, D. C. to Arington, Va., is Sgt. Anna Reeb of Wheeling. Her address is Sgt. Anna Reeb, Henderson Hall, Co E Bks 3, Arlington, Va.

Now at Portsmouth, Virginia, is G. W. Goeddeke of Mt. Prospect. He was formerly stationed at Farragut, Idaho. His address is PhM3c G. W. Goeddeke, H. C. Sch., Portsmouth, Va.

Hawaii

Working day and night to get the damaged ships back in the fighting line are the men of the Navy's Ship Repair Unit. A member of the Pearl Harbor Unit is Raymond J. Voelker, electrician's mate second class, USN, of Arlington Heights.

Voelker entered the Navy December 22, 1941, and has been at Pearl Harbor for seven months. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Voelker, live at 202 North State Road, Arlington Heights, and his wife, Mrs. Doris Jean Voelker and their son, make their home at 3414 University ave, Des Moines, Iowa. Before joining the Navy, Voelker was employed as an electrician by Armour and Co., of Chicago.

Voelker, like thousands of other Ship Repair Unit men, was rewarded last fall when a U. S. Naval Force met and practically annihilated a strong Japanese surface force in the Battle of Surigao Strait, the second Battle of the Philippines. The ships which fought the battle had returned for their revenge, largely because of a group of 1,600 Ship Repair Unit men who three years before had gone out to Pearl Harbor and raised the USS Mississippi, the USS Pennsylvania, USS West Virginia, USS California and the USS Tennessee when the Japanese had recorded them as "sunk".

Iwo veteran tells of 'hot and heavy' on Iwo

Pfc. Harold "Boots" Bauer of Arlington Heights, wounded Marine vet of Iwo Jima, returned home Monday morning after spending the last month in Balboa hospital at San Diego, California.

"Iwo was plenty hot," stated "Boots." "I landed with the 19th wave about 11:30 on the morning of February 19, D-day. Our VP boat landed us right up on shore where we could 'get to work.' We didn't even get our feet wet.

"The Japs were throwing shells all about us, keeping us on the deck most of the time. We landed on the beaches right under the volcano —our feet sinking in the ashes for about a foot. We all dug foxholes and crowded in them as far as we could.

"In all the time from the 19th until I was hit late on the 21st we moved just 200 yards. That was slow moving but a fast pace was impossible. In the first place an entire battalion landed on one small beach. Men were crowded everywhere. You could hardly move.

We move up

"Whenever an officer gave the move order to the squad leader, he would repeat it to us, and up we'd jump, running about 25 feet. Then down again for a few moments, then on. Usually the Nips would welcome us with a few machine guns pinning us down for an hour or more.

"It is then as you lay face down in the ashes, trying to burrow into the earth, that you start praying, you think of home and hope you get to see it again. When the first shell comes over you get scared, and never do get over it until the battle is over, or until you have been hit.

Many think only one bullet has your name

"When you are wounded you think the battle is over and that you are immune to being hit again. Many more men are hit when they stand up and walk back to the aid station, just as if there were no more bullets or shells with your name engraved.

"In my case my left arm was struck by shell fragments as I lay crouched on the ground. I had my arm covering the left side of my face. My gas mask was tucked under my arm, elevating it just enough to be exposed.

"I lay there about a half hour until a medic fixed me up, then walked back to the aid station. I didn't think that I'd be hit again, and wasn't. But many others were. In fact, many of those killed on Iwo were struck by shell fragments a second time while lying on the beach waiting to be evacuated.

Medics do a swell job

"But my heart goes out to those Navy and Marine corps medical corpsmen who sacrificed their lives to care for the wounded. Those men were running about continually without regard to their personal safety.

"I don't think many of them came out alive. They certainly ought to have special recognition for their part in the Iwo battle. When other units stopped and dug in, the medics were still moving, caring for and picking up all wounded.

Flame throwers burn some

"One 'boomerang' in the campaign were the flame throwers Pillboxes were so entrenched that only flame throwers could be effectively used against them. Our job was usually to fire at any pill box we saw, and wait until the flame throwers could be brought to bear.

"But many times the liquid fire would bounce off and run back to our lines. Even a strong wind would blow it back in our faces. One buddy of mine had all his clothes burned off in this manner. He got up and started peeling off his skin. Medics finally took him back on a stretcher.

We don't sleep

"Of course, we didn't get much sleep the two nights I was on Iwo. Two men were assigned to each fox hole with alternate watches every hour. About the time you'd finally get to sleep you would be awakened and it would be your turn to take the watch.

"Only food we had was what we brought on our backs. K rations were the only menu the first five days, I've been told. I ate them just the two days until I was wounded.

"Two local men serving with our 5th 'Spearhead' division were Elroy Koeppen and Edward Wolfarth of Mt. Prospect. Ed was wounded, too, and is now stationed at Great Lakes hospital."

ENTRANCE TO RANDHILL

12 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD PURCHASE LOTS IN RANDHILL PARK CEMETERY

1 Because it is located on the Rand road — on the highest ridge between Lake Michigan and Fox Lake.

2 Because Rand road is a leading artery accessible from all parts of the city and suburbs.

3 Because RANDHILL PARK is a place endowed with natural scenic beauty.

4. Because of the artistic landscaping, beautiful trees and shrubs, and greens of the field, with no obstructions of any kind.

5 Because Nature inspires us to love and admire the beautiful fields, with its sky-line of elm, firs, pines, laurels, oaks and a great variety of other trees.

6 Because of its lagoons, with full depth of crystalized water, wsich shows its reflection of the neighboring trees and shrubs, as in a morror.

7 Because of its mugho-pines, viburnums and elderberries, lilacs, roses and a great many other blooming varieties.

8 Because it has natural, gentle rolling effects.

9 Because of its engineering. Expert architects have applied their best scientific methods in designing and constructing it.

10 Because RANDHILL PARK contains acres of park, instead of stone.

11 Because perpetual care preserves the park-like Nature of the community.

Two men are rescued from prison camp

Mike Render now in France

Happiness came Saturday morning to the Wines family in Palatine household when Miss Jean Wines received a V-mail letter from her fiance, S-Sgt. Michael R. Render, saying that he had just been liberated from a German prison camp by the allied advance.

Sgt. Render went overseas in October with the 106th Infantry (Golden Lion) Diyision which bore the brunt of the German breakthrough during the battle of the bulge in December. He was reported missing in action since December 21 and Miss Wines and Sgt. Render's mother had received cards from him dated January 9 and 18 from Stalag IX B at Bad Orb, Germany, saying that he was a prisoner but "still alive and kicking".

The ex-prisoners are back in France now, getting new clothes and physicals, and they are on a special diet to put them in shape after several months of "mostly soup and bread". Sgt. Render expects to be home again soon and says "I used to gripe about sweating out a chow line, but never again!"

Word was received from Pfc. Edwin S. Breitzman of Northbrook after several months, April 20, stating he was on his way home. He was in a German prison camp in Bad Orb for 86 days. He wrote that he was safe and well and was happy to see the American soldiers.

Iwo Jima

Ex-coach Norman Kirby of Bensenville writes this week from aboard ship in the Pacific. He formerly participated in the invasion action at Iwo Jima, thus we're putting him still there, though it is known he has since participated in another action, possibly Okinawa.

"Sitting here in my quarters on the U. S. S. Lenawee the thought occurred to me that it would be nice to get some mail from Bensenville so would appreciate it if you put my address in the service men's section. After spending 11 months as physical instructor (Georgia Pre-Flight) I was ordered to sea on the A.P.A. 195 (attack transport) U.S.S. Lenawee.

"We have been in the Pacific area now six months. My major duty is commanding a beach platoon—supervising the beaching and unloading of amphibious ships on the beachhead. I spent eight days from D 1 to D 9 on bloody Iwo Jima, an experience never to be forgotten.

"We are just completing our second operation but naval censorship does not permit as yet disclosing the location. I've certainly missed my coaching activities at Bensenville High and hope some day to return to coaching. Right now the game out here is just finishing the first half—the toughest part lies ahead.

"Thanks for your excellent sport coverage of Bensenville events—would like a copy of your paper if you send them overseas."

His address is Lt. (j. g.) N. J. Kirby, USNR, % FPO, San Francisco, Calif.

Okinawa

CM2c Walter Dettman of Northbrook is in Okinawa.

Berlin

This space reserved for first letter from Berlin.

Pacific

Three Resingers of Northbrook now in or to be in service are Ernest, Harold and Paul. Harold has been in service two and a half years, and is now in the Pacific. Ernest has just joined the navy while Paul is scheduled to go in this week. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Resinger of Pfingsten road.

Charles Roy Butkus of Palatine is now home on leave for 21 days after being in the Pacific theatre for over a year. He has taken part in nine major battles and after being bombed, the aircraft carrier was brought in for repairs.

Air Medal

Sgt. F. H. Steingraber, of Bensenville, has been awarded the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flight against the enemy."

The 23-year-old radio-gunner on a 15th Air Force Flying Fortress attended Leyden High School and formerly was employed by the Austin Construction Company. Enlisting in the Army October 5, 1942, he was graduated from the radio operator's school at Sioux Falls, S. D., and the aerial gunnery school at Yuma, Ariz.

Sgt. Steingraber has flown combat sorties with the oldest heavy bombardment group in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations. This group has flown more than 450 combat missions and has been awarded the Distinguished Unit Citation.

The Sergeant flew his first combat sortie on March 1, when the oil-refineries of Moosbierbaum, Austria, were bombed. He has earned the European-African-Middle East Theater Ribbon with one battle participation star.

So. Pacific

Seaman 1c Richard Sellers of East Maine is enjoying a well deserved 30-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers, after serving with the navy in the South Pacific and other war theaters for the past three and one half years. Richard will report at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station when he returns to duty.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Judge, remember that place up in the mountains where we went trout fishing last year?"

"I sure do, George. We had a great time up there, didn't we?"

"I'll never forget it. But this will interest you, Judge. I heard just yesterday that the revenue men raided a big still right near there. Guess that's where all that high-priced moonshine we heard about has been coming from."

"Wouldn't be a bit surprised. I saw in the paper the other day where the Government has raided thousands of such stills during the past year."

"Sounds sort of reminiscent, doesn't it, Judge?"

"Exactly and it's not hard to figure out. As soon as the distillers stopped making whiskey and devoted their entire facilities to the production of industrial alcohol for the Government... the racketeers muscled in again."

"I hate to think of how that might have spread, Judge, if the Government hadn't found it possible, without interfering with our war effort in any way, to permit a short resumption of legal whiskey production recently."

Word was received from Pfc. Edwin S. Breitzman of Northbrook after several months, April 20, stating he was on his way home. He was in a German prison camp in Bad Orb for 86 days. He wrote that he was safe and well and was happy to see the American soldiers.

Iwo Jima

Ex-coach Norman Kirby of Bensenville writes this week from aboard ship in the Pacific. He formerly participated in the invasion action at Iwo Jima, thus we're putting him still there, though it is known he has since participated in another action, possibly Okinawa.

"Sitting here in my quarters on the U. S. S. Lenawee the thought occurred to me that it would be nice to get some mail from Bensenville so would appreciate it if you put my address in the service men's section. After spending 11 months as physical instructor (Georgia Pre-Flight) I was ordered to sea on the A.P.A. 195 (attack transport) U.S.S. Lenawee.

"We have been in the Pacific area now six months. My major duty is commanding a beach platoon—supervising the beaching and unloading of amphibious ships on the beachhead. I spent eight days from D 1 to D 9 on bloody Iwo Jima, an experience never to be forgotten.

"We are just completing our second operation but naval censorship does not permit as yet disclosing the location. I've certainly missed my coaching activities at Bensenville High and hope some day to return to coaching. Right now the game out here is just finishing the first half—the toughest part lies ahead.

"Thanks for your excellent sport coverage of Bensenville events—would like a copy of your paper if you send them overseas."

His address is Lt. (j. g.) N. J. Kirby, USNR, % FPO, San Francisco, Calif.

Pacific

Three Resingers of Northbrook now in or to be in service are Ernest, Harold and Paul. Harold has been in service two and a half years, and is now in the Pacific. Ernest has just joined the navy while Paul is scheduled to go in this week. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Resinger of Pfingsten road.

Charles Roy Butkus of Palatine is now home on leave for 21 days after being in the Pacific theatre for over a year. He has taken part in nine major battles and after being bombed, the aircraft carrier was brought in for repairs.

Air Medal

Sgt. F. H. Steingraber, of Bensenville, has been awarded the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flight against the enemy."

The 23-year-old radio-gunner on a 15th Air Force Flying Fortress attended Leyden High School and formerly was employed by the Austin Construction Company. Enlisting in the Army October 5, 1942, he was graduated from the radio operator's school at Sioux Falls, S. D., and the aerial gunnery school at Yuma, Ariz.

Sgt. Steingraber has flown combat sorties with the oldest heavy bombardment group in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations. This group has flown more than 450 combat missions and has been awarded the Distinguished Unit Citation.

The Sergeant flew his first combat sortie on March 1, when the oil-refineries of Moosbierbaum, Austria, were bombed. He has earned the European-African-Middle East Theater Ribbon with one battle participation star.

So. Pacific

Seaman 1c Richard Sellers of East Maine is enjoying a well deserved 30-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers, after serving with the navy in the South Pacific and other war theaters for the past three and one half years. Richard will report at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station when he returns to duty.

12 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD PURCHASE LOTS IN RANDHILL PARK CEMETERY

1 Because it is located on the Rand road — on the highest ridge between Lake Michigan and Fox Lake.

2 Because Rand road is a leading artery accessible from all parts of the city and suburbs.

3 Because RANDHILL PARK is a place endowed with natural scenic beauty.

4. Because of the artistic landscaping, beautiful trees and shrubs, and greens of the field, with no obstructions of any kind.

5 Because Nature inspires us to love and admire the beautiful fields, with its sky-line of elm, firs, pines, laurels, oaks and a great variety of other trees.

6 Because of its lagoons, with full depth of crystalized water, wsich shows its reflection of the neighboring trees and shrubs, as in a morror.

7 Because of its mugho-pines, viburnums and elderberries, lilacs, roses and a great many other blooming varieties.

8 Because it has natural, gentle rolling effects.

9 Because of its engineering. Expert architects have applied their best scientific methods in designing and constructing it.

10 Because RANDHILL PARK contains acres of park, instead of stone.

11 Because perpetual care preserves the park-like Nature of the community.

12 Because of limiting interments to persons of the Caucasian Race.

BECAUSE if you don't buy NOW, the very lot you may want may be gone tomorrow.

Lots in beautiful Randhill Park are conveyed by Warranty Deed and are fully secured. That is your security. This assures purchasers, their families and heirs an eternal abiding place. Drive out Sunday. Representative on grounds.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Judge, remember that place up in the mountains where we went trout fishing last year?"

"I sure do, George. We had a great time up there, didn't we?"

"I'll never forget it. But this will interest you, Judge. I heard just yesterday that the revenue men raided a big still right near there. Guess that's where all that high-priced moonshine we heard about has been coming from."

"Wouldn't be a bit surprised. I saw in the paper the other day where the Government has raided thousands of such stills during the past year."

"Sounds sort of reminiscent, doesn't it, Judge?"

"Exactly and it's not hard to figure out. As soon as the distillers stopped making whiskey and devoted their entire facilities to the production of industrial alcohol for the Government... the racketeers muscled in again."

"I hate to think of how that might have spread, Judge, if the Government hadn't found it possible, without interfering with our war effort in any way, to permit a short resumption of legal whiskey production recently."

A Comprehensive Review and Analysis of the Sports News of the Week

GERALD A. McELROY

Plans for the 1945 Palatine Relays seem to indicate that it will be the biggest and best meet of them all. A record number of schools will enter if all appear who have indicated they will enter. The school band directed by Milton Case will be on the program. A public address system for announcing results is being prepared for the occasion and the largest crowd ever to attend the meet is expected. If the perfect weather of the last five Palatine Relays is with us it should be a top affair in the long series of 13.

Pirates out to win two mile relay

Palatine expects to win the two mile relay in class "B" this year. This event has been a Palatine favorite for the Pirates hold the record and have won it three out of four times. Last year Bensenville pushed Palatine back a notch to second. Palatine has in Vogt, Henker, and Hapke, three boys who can run half miles in 2:13 or better and probably Matt Weinacht who has been running the 440 will take the other spot and round out a team capable of going well under the nine minutes for the two miles. Coach Stinson is banking on a first in this event.

DuPage county meet records unusual marks

Remarkable marks were made in the DuPage County meet Saturday, won by Downers Grove. Bensenville did not score a point but Naperville tallied 28. A Wheaton boy won the 880 in 1:59 to break the county record by four seconds. A York boy ran a 4:38 mile with two Naperville boys, Morrison and Shiffler, right behind them. Morrison has run a 4:36 mile, three seconds under the Palatine Relays record. In fact most of the marks were as good or better than the college meet in which Wheaton, North Central and the University of Chicago participated the same day.

Good discus thrower coming from Oswego

A telephone call from Oswego last week asked if they could still get into the relay meet. They were especially anxious to bring their discus thrower who has been consistently throwing over 132 feet. Maybe he will be able to give Legel of Crystal Lake a little competition. Legel is returning '44 winner and had the mest mark in the state in the district last year but failed to get in the points at the Champaign state meet. He is only a junior now.

Pirates card 10 home games in basketball

Palatine's 1945-46 basketball schedule has just been completed by the signing of Maine Township to a two-year contract. Coach Stutzman and his Pirates, who include four returning letterman, will play 18 games of which 10 will be on the home court. Seven members of the Northwest Conference plus Maine, Arlington, and Warren will appear at Palatine. Maine will play at the Thanksgiving week-end Homecoming.

Another Palatine Athlete gives life for country

George Herrmann, Jr., former lightweight basketball captain and football player at Palatine high, is the third letterman to give his life for his country in the present war. Herrman was in the same class as John O'Brien and his close pal. O'Brien was lost 18 months ago in a bombing raid in the South Pacific. Herrman was reported this past week killed in action in Belgium Herrman finished high school at Morgan Park military academy. He was a very popular boy at Palatine High back in 1934-37. Carl Hermann who coached for several years at Wauconda is an uncle of George Jr.

Coaches enter politics

This part week we were surprised and pleased to learn that two coaches of the Northwest Conference were winners in the election for mayor in their respective communities. H. L. Wesner, veteran Ela coach is now mayor of Lake Zurich while Albert Kroll, coach at Antioch, has been elected mayor of Libertyville. Kroll is a former athletic star of Libertyville's Wildcats playing in the line on the great 1934 team. He played at Lake Forest College and then went to Antioch to teach and assist in athletics. When Wolfenbarger went into the navy two years ago Kroll took over and has made a good record. He commutes to Antioch daily to take care of his teaching duties and continues to reside in Libertyville. We have an idea that these election results will be good news to the boys in service from Lake Zurich and Libertyville.

Several schools pass up the relays

Morrison, Marengo, and Woodstock, expected entries in the relays Saturday due to earlier notice decided not to attend the meet. Morrison had two meets postponed so gave up coming in favor of local meets. Woodstock and Marengo did not feel strong enough to make a worth while showing. Northbrook, just starting track, is too weak and too many boys work on Saturday.

Individual events stronger this year

For a good many years the field events have been of poor caliber at the Palatine Relays. This year good marks are expected all down the line. The pole vault should go 11 feet for a change, the shot should be tossed 48 feet, the discus 140, the broad jump close to 21 and the high jump should go 5' 8". Best individual event will be the mile in which Hann of Somanauk, Miles of Belvidere, and Morrison and Shifler of Naperville are capable of breaking 4:40 if conditions are right.

If more than 16 boys remain in the mile run after scratches are made it is planned to run the event in two heats with the fastest boys in the second race. A new record is a possibility. Bender of Belvidere who has run the 100 yard dash in :10.4 has the best pre-meet time. McDonald of Arlington and Lennartz of Libertyville are Northeast Conference boys who are expected to score in the 100 yard dash.

Baseball underway

Baseball is well underway with some fine pitching showing up in the Northeast openers. Robinson of Arlington certainly has a league record due to stand for a long, long time in the two no hit games he has pitched in the conference.

Bensenville evidently knew what they were doing when they started baseball if that 16-0 victory last week is an indication. I am told that most of the Bisons have had considerable junior legion playing the past two summers and they knew that they had good material ready. Barrington got sweet revenge on Ela for many past beatings and appears to have a dangerous contender in the Northwest.

Bisons get stiff test Friday

Friday's games in the Northwest loop send Bensenville to cross bats with Northbrook's champs and the Bisons will get a real test of whether or not they are championship material. In other games Barrington should make it two straight at Wauconda and Ela will be host to Grant.

Food Waste

From plow to plate, 20 to 30 per cent of all food produced in the United States is wasted, according to the War Food administration.

All set for Palatine Relays Saturday

21 schools, 300 athletes to participate

Twenty-one schools will compete in the 13th annual Palatine Relays Saturday in competition which is expected to be the closest in years. Eight will run in class "A" and 13 in class "B" according to the final entries.

Naperville is an established favorite to win the "A" division as they did for five years in a row before they started going to the Wheaton Relays the same week end three years ago. This season, however, they are back and while their squad is supposed to be below the usual Naperville class it should be plenty good enough to handle the Northeast Conference and Belvidere who furnish the rest of the "A" class competition. Crystal Lake is expected to take second.

Batavia should win class "B" if their runners are half as good as their field men. Bortner in the pole vault has gone 11 feet 9 inches and Berguson has put the shot 48 feet. Both should be winners and Batavia has potential point getters in the rest of the field events. Geneva was a tough second last year when Bensenville copped class "A" and is expected to have the balanced strength to be a strong contender. Neither Lake Forest in "A" class nor Bensenville in "B" are expected to be in the running at all.

An advance sale of tickets at 30c is being carried on but at the game the price will be 50c for adults and 30c for identified students. All spectators must use the north entrance to the field and view the meet from the bleachers in the enclosure. Only competitors and officials will be allowed in the infield. A record crowd is expected.

The Girls Athletic Association will serve a noon lunch to teams which have made reservations and will sell pop etc. during the afternoon session which opens at 1:15. The Palatine band directed by Milton Case will handle patriotic ceremonies prior to the opening of the meet. Charge is made only for the afternoon session.

Schools entered in "A" class are Arlington Heights, Belvidere, Crystal Lake, Lake Forest, Leyden, Libertyville, Naperville and Niles Twp. In class "B" the 13 entries are Antioch, Barrington, Batavia, Bensenville, Geneva, Mooseheart, Palatine, Sandwich, Somanauk, St. Charles, Wauconda and West Chicago.

AWARDS

Ribbons will be awarded to five places in each of the individual events. Individual events are open competition but points gained count for a school in their own class. Points and ribbons will be given for five places in each class in each relay event. Trophies will be awarded the schools winning the most points in each class. Schools under 350 enrollment are in "B" class.

POINTS

In the individual events the points count 5-4-3-2-1 and in the relay events they count 10-8-6-4-2. In all relays except the two mile relay the events will be run in heats with the winners determined on the basis of the best time.

Howlett back in civies, to manage ball club

Family to move to Tulsa, Oklahoma, this June

Believed to be the first returned serviceman to have bought into a professional baseball club as a post-war future, Grayle W. Howlett, Jr., of 501 E. Euclid ave., Arlington Heights, plans to leave the village in mid-June with Mrs. Howlett and their two children for Tulsa, Okla., where Howlett will serve as general manager and part-owner of that city's Texas League baseball entry.

Howlett was honorably discharged from the navy early last February after 14 months service, including destroyer duty in the Southwest Pacific. He was commissioned an ensign in November, 1943.

He will be associated with five of the outstanding oil men in the southwest in operation of the Tulsa club. They include William G. Skelly, president of the Skelly Oil Co.; P. C. Lauinger, president of the Petroleum Publishing Co., publishers of the Oil & Gas Journal; W. K. Warren, president of the Warren Petroleum Co.; John Mabee, widely-known drilling contractor and rancher, and William L. Kistler, Jr., large independent oil producer.

Cubs aid in deal

Howlett worked out the deal through the Chicago Cubs, from whom the group purchased the franchise. In addition to Tulsa, the Texas League includes the cities of Oklahoma City, Beaumont, Houston, Dallas, Ft. Worth, San Antonio, and Shreveport. Due to the war, the league suspended its activities after the 1942 season, but is generally expected to resume play in 1946.

It is among the nation's five high minor leagues, with a classification of A-1, and during normal times a large number of players went right from the Texas league to the majors—among them Dizzy Dean, Joe Medwick, Dizzy Trout and Hal Newhouser of Detroit, Dick Wakefield and a host of others.

"We are the most sports-minded nation in the world, and there is every indication that the post-war period will see us reach even greater levels of athletic interest," Howlett said in commenting on the move which takes him into the executive side of baseball after ten years of sports writing.

"And of all our sports, baseball —as the national pastime—would seem to have the brighest future in the years beyond the war, providing baseball goes to that future. The Texas League has always been one of the fastest of the minor leagues . . . it is located in a section of the country rich in the resources which make for sound living conditions. Tulsa is a most progressive city of close to 200,000 population, and I believe we are going to be able to work out an outstanding baseball operation down there."

Was WGN sports editor

Howlett is a graduate of Northwestern University, and while attending college wrote sports for several mid-western newspapers. He spent six months with the Associated Press, Chicago Bureau, after leaving school, then joined the sports staff of the Chicago Tribune in 1936, where he worked under Arch Ward until March, 1940, when he accepted a position with Radio Station WGN as sports editor.

At WGN, Howlett teamed with a number of well-known announcers in coverage of the most extensive sports broadcasting schedule of any major radio station in the country, including play-by-play accounts of major league baseball. During his four years as WGN sports editor, he worked with Bob Elson, Jack Brickhouse, Red Barber, Johnny Neblett, Guy Savage, and Joe Boland.

He left WGN in 1943 to accept a commission in the Navy, and trained at Ft. Schuyler, N. Y., Norfolk, Va., and Philadelphia, before being assigned to duty aboard a destroyer.

The Howletts have resided in Arlington Heights since December, 1941, moving to the village from Evanston.

In-Between Colors

In-between colors — bluish-violets, buff, ecru—are considered more livable than primary hues. They are less likely to grow monotonous.

Robinson in 'no-hitter' against Barrington

Jim Robinson pitched another no-hitter in Arlington's conference opener with Leyden last Friday, winning a 2 to 0 ball game. This is Robinson's second complete no-hit game in two years and the Cards' third no-hitter in the same period. Robinson blanked Niles last year and Brumm and Robinson collaborated in doing likewise to Barrington two weeks ago.

Hits of any description were scarce. Arlington getting only 5 themselves. Fortunately, however, 3 hits in the first inning pushed over 2 runs which were plenty in view of Robinson's efforts. Ehard led off with a single; took second on a passed ball; held second while Holtz struck out; and advanced to third on G. Stroker's single. Stroker promptly stole second on the first ball pitched to Aldrich and both Ehard and Stroker scored on Aldrich's hit; Crawford then lifted a fly to right field to end the inning and the scoring for the day.

This game was a personal triumph for both of the Strokers and Robinson. Gene Stroker took batting honors with two singles in three trips to the plate; Al Stroker turned in a magnificient job behind the plate in his first full length varsity job of catching; and Robinson, in addition to his pitching, got one of the five hits of the game.

Bisons win, 16-0

Bensenville opened the Northwest Conference season with a 16-0 victory over Wauconda's baseball team last Friday. Bob Tholander freshman hurler for the Bisons struck out 13 in six innings on the mound and Pete Neuman, who took over in the seventh, struck out the side. The Bisons scored in every inning. Wauconda showed much weakness in both hitting and fielding.

Grant-Northbrook rained out

The league opener between Grant and Northbrook was rained out after three scoreless innings of play. Northbrook is defending champ and expected to make a strong bid to repeat.

Warren 1, Niles 0

Behind the five hit pitching of Cannon, Warren shut out Niles 1-0 in the Northeast opener last Friday. Lane of Niles allowed only two hits but was scored on in the third when a base on balls, an error, a sacrifice bunt, and a passed ball produced the winning run.

The same afternoon Robinson of Arlington twirled a no hit game against Leyden to start the Cardinals off on the championship train to repeat last year's title season. It was the second no hitter in two seasons for Robinson.

Red Wings in practice tilt at Algonquin

Next Sunday afternoon the Arlington Redwings will go to Algonquin to play a practice game with the Algonquin club of the Fox River Valley league. This game will be a warm up for the Arlington club and will give Manager Ed Wahl a chance to watch some of the new comers on the squad in action.

Last Sunday's practice was restricted to batting. Although the boys were lining the straight pitches to the far corners of the park, there is no telling what will happen if the Algonquin pitchers start sending curve balls off of the mound.

After the game next Sunday the Arlington line up for the opening game at home in Recreation Park will be announced. The opener will be either May 6 or May 13.

A definite announcement will be made next week along with a complete report on the make up of the 1945 Arlington Redwings.

Barrington in 6-3 win over Ela

Barrington opened the Northwest conference baseball season with a 6-3 victory over Ela. Jack Flock drove in four runs for Barrington with a timely double with the bags loaded in the third and a single in the seventh. Ladd on the mound for Ela struck out 11 but hit one batter and walked three. Three of these free passes to first base resulted in runs. Gaulke of Barrington struck out seven and walked three.

Gaulke was invincible for the Bronchos except in the third inning when Ela bunched four of their five hits for three runs. Brewer singled and Ladd hit a tremendous homer for two runs. Then K. Grever doubled and Chamberlain singled him home.

Cards win double dual from Palatine, Leyden

Arlington Heights beat both Leyden and Palatine in a double dual track meet on the Palatine track Friday afternoon while Leyden had an eight point edge over Palatine's Pirates.

Best mark of the meet was made by Quaranta of Leyden who beat Vogt of Palatine in the mile with a time of 4:55.9. Vogt had 4:57.3. Quaranta, a sophomore, also won the 880 in the fine time of 2:11.4. Marks of :10.4 in the 100 yard dash by McDonald and :16.9 in the high hurdles by Miller highlighted Arlington's afternoon. Miller was Arlington's only double winner as he also got a tie with team mate Kamps in the high jump at 5 feet 4 inches. Palatine's winner against both Arlington and Leyden were Rose in the discus, Howes in the pole vault, and Stevenson in the broad jump. Morowski, who won the 440 and Michaels, who took the 200 yard low hurdles in :25.1 for Leyden are both underclass boys as is Quaranta, the outstanding distance runner. Lack of balance in the field events cost Leyden a chance at a double victory. However, the Eagles are outstanding in the running events.

GERALD A. McELROY

Plans for the 1945 Palatine Relays seem to indicate that it will be the biggest and best meet of them all. A record number of schools will enter if all appear who have indicated they will enter. The school band directed by Milton Case will be on the program. A public address system for announcing results is being prepared for the occasion and the largest crowd ever to attend the meet is expected. If the perfect weather of the last five Palatine Relays is with us it should be a top affair in the long series of 13.

Pirates out to win two mile relay

Palatine expects to win the two mile relay in class "B" this year. This event has been a Palatine favorite for the Pirates hold the record and have won it three out of four times. Last year Bensenville pushed Palatine back a notch to second. Palatine has in Vogt, Henker, and Hapke, three boys who can run half miles in 2:13 or better and probably Matt Weinacht who has been running the 440 will take the other spot and round out a team capable of going well under the nine minutes for the two miles. Coach Stinson is banking on a first in this event.

DuPage county meet records unusual marks

Remarkable marks were made in the DuPage County meet Saturday, won by Downers Grove. Bensenville did not score a point but Naperville tallied 28. A Wheaton boy won the 880 in 1:59 to break the county record by four seconds. A York boy ran a 4:38 mile with two Naperville boys, Morrison and Shiffler, right behind them. Morrison has run a 4:36 mile, three seconds under the Palatine Relays record. In fact most of the marks were as good or better than the college meet in which Wheaton, North Central and the University of Chicago participated the same day.

Good discus thrower coming from Oswego

A telephone call from Oswego last week asked if they could still get into the relay meet. They were especially anxious to bring their discus thrower who has been consistently throwing over 132 feet. Maybe he will be able to give Legel of Crystal Lake a little competition. Legel is returning '44 winner and had the mest mark in the state in the district last year but failed to get in the points at the Champaign state meet. He is only a junior now.

Pirates card 10 home games in basketball

Palatine's 1945-46 basketball schedule has just been completed by the signing of Maine Township to a two-year contract. Coach Stutzman and his Pirates, who include four returning letterman, will play 18 games of which 10 will be on the home court. Seven members of the Northwest Conference plus Maine, Arlington, and Warren will appear at Palatine. Maine will play at the Thanksgiving week-end Homecoming.

Another Palatine Athlete gives life for country

George Herrmann, Jr., former lightweight basketball captain and football player at Palatine high, is the third letterman to give his life for his country in the present war. Herrman was in the same class as John O'Brien and his close pal, O'Brien was lost 18 months ago in a bombing raid in the South Pacific. Herrman was reported this past week killed in action in Belgium Herrman finished high school at Morgan Park military academy. He was a very popular boy at Palatine High back in 1934-37. Carl Hermann who coached for several years at Wauconda is an uncle of George Jr.

Coaches enter politics

This part week we were surprised and pleased to learn that two coaches of the Northwest Conference were winners in the election for mayor in their respective communities. H. L. Wesner, veteran Ela coach is now mayor of Lake Zurich while Albert Kroll, coach at Antioch, has been elected mayor of Libertyville. Kroll is a former athletic star of Libertyville's Wildcats playing in the line on the great 1934 team. He played at Lake Forest College and then went to Antioch to teach and assist in athletics. When Wolfenbarger went into the navy two years ago Kroll took over and has made a good record. He commutes to Antioch daily to take care of his teaching duties and continues to reside in Libertyville. We have an idea that these election results will be good news to the boys in service from Lake Zurich and Libertyville.

Several schools pass up the relays

Morrison, Marengo, and Woodstock, expected entries in the relays Saturday due to earlier notice decided not to attend the meet. Morrison had two meets postponed so gave up coming in favor of local meets. Woodstock and Marengo did not feel strong enough to make a worth while showing. Northbrook, just starting track, is too weak and too many boys work on Saturday.

Individual events stronger this year

For a good many years the field events have been of poor caliber at the Palatine Relays. This year good marks are expected all down the line. The pole vault should go 11 feet for a change, the shot should be tossed 48 feet, the discus 140, the broad jump close to 21 and the high jump should go 5' 8". Best individual event will be the mile in which Hann of Somanauk, Miles of Belvidere, and Morrison and Shifler of Naperville are capable of breaking 4:40 if conditions are right.

If more than 16 boys remain in the mile run after scratches are made it is planned to run the event in two heats with the fastest boys in the second race. A new record is a possibility. Bender of Belvidere who has run the 100 yard dash in :10.4 has the best pre-meet time. McDonald of Arlington and Lennartz of Libertyville are Northeast Conference boys who are expected to score in the 100 yard dash.

Baseball underway

Baseball is well underway with some fine pitching showing up in the Northeast openers. Robinson of Arlington certainly has a league record due to stand for a long, long time in the two no hit games he has pitched in the conference.

Bensenville evidently knew what they were doing when they started baseball if that 16-0 victory last week is an indication. I am told that most of the Bisons have had considerable junior legion playing the past two summers and they knew that they had good material ready. Barrington got sweet revenge on Ela for many past beatings and appears to have a dangerous contender in the Northwest.

Bisons get stiff test Friday

Friday's games in the Northwest loop send Bensenville to cross bats with Northbrook's champs and the Bisons will get a real test of whether or not they are championship material. In other games Barrington should make it two straight at Wauconda and Ela will be host to Grant.

All set for Palatine Relays Saturday

21 schools, 300 athletes to participate

Twenty-one schools will compete in the 13th annual Palatine Relays Saturday in competition which is expected to be the closest in years. Eight will run in class "A" and 13 in class "B" according to the final entries.

Naperville is an established favorite to win the "A" division as they did for five years in a row before they started going to the Wheaton Relays the same week end three years ago. This season, however, they are back and while their squad is supposed to be below the usual Naperville class it should be plenty good enough to handle the Northeast Conference and Belvidere who furnish the rest of the "A" class competition. Crystal Lake is expected to take second.

Batavia should win class "B" if their runners are half as good as their field men. Bortner in the pole vault has gone 11 feet 9 inches and Berguson has put the shot 48 feet. Both should be winners and Batavia has potential point getters in the rest of the field events. Geneva was a tough second last year when Bensenville copped class "A" and is expected to have the balanced strength to be a strong contender. Neither Lake Forest in "A" class nor Bensenville in "B" are expected to be in the running at all.

An advance sale of tickets at 30c is being carried on but at the game the price will be 50c for adults and 30c for identified students. All spectators must use the north entrance to the field and view the meet from the bleachers in the enclosure. Only competitors and officials will be allowed in the infield. A record crowd is expected.

The Girls Athletic Association will serve a noon lunch to teams which have made reservations and will sell pop etc. during the afternoon session which opens at 1:15. The Palatine band directed by Milton Case will handle patriotic ceremonies prior to the opening of the meet. Charge is made only for the afternoon session.

Schools entered in "A" class are Arlington Heights, Belvidere, Crystal Lake, Lake Forest, Leyden, Libertyville, Naperville and Niles Twp. In class "B" the 13 entries are Antioch, Barrington, Batavia, Bensenville, Geneva, Mooseheart, Palatine, Sandwich, Somanauk, St. Charles, Wauconda and West Chicago.

Half mile relay (B&A).

AWARDS

Ribbons will be awarded to five places in each of the individual events. Individual events are open competition but points gained count for a school in their own class. Points and ribbons will be given for five places in each class in each relay event. Trophies will be awarded the schools winning the most points in each class. Schools under 350 enrollment are in "B" class.

POINTS

In the individual events the points count 5-4-3-2-1 and in the relay events they count 10-8-6-4-2. In all relays except the two mile relay the events will be run in heats with the winners determined on the basis of the best time.

Red Wings in practice tilt at Algonquin

Next Sunday afternoon the Arlington Redwings will go to Algonquin to play a practice game with the Algonquin club of the Fox River Valley league. This game will be a warm up for the Arlington club and will give Manager Ed Wahl a chance to watch some of the new comers on the squad in action.

Last Sunday's practice was restricted to batting. Although the boys were lining the straight pitches to the far corners of the park, there is no telling what will happen if the Algonquin pitchers start sending curve balls off of the mound.

After the game next Sunday the Arlington line up for the opening game at home in Recreation Park will be announced. The opener will be either May 6 or May 13.

A definite announcement will be made next week along with a complete report on the make up of the 1945 Arlington Redwings.

Food Waste

From plow to plate, 20 to 30 per cent of all food produced in the United States is wasted, according to the War Food administration.

Barrington in 6-3 win over Ela

Barrington opened the Northwest conference baseball season with a 6-3 victory over Ela. Jack Flock drove in four runs for Barrington with a timely double with the bags loaded in the third and a single in the seventh. Ladd on the mound for Ela struck out 11 but hit one batter and walked three. Three of these free passes to first base resulted in runs. Gaulke of Barrington struck out seven and walked three.

Gaulke was invincible for the Bronchos except in the third inning when Ela bunched four of their five hits for three runs. Brewer singled and Ladd hit a tremendous homer for two runs. Then K. Grever doubled and Chamberlain singled him home.

Howlett back in civies, to manage ball club

Family to move to Tulsa, Oklahoma, this June

Believed to be the first returned serviceman to have bought into a professional baseball club as a post-war future, Grayle W. Howlett, Jr., of 501 E. Euclid ave., Arlington Heights, plans to leave the village in mid-June with Mrs. Howlett and their two children for Tulsa, Okla., where Howlett will serve as general manager and part-owner of that city's Texas League baseball entry.

Howlett was honorably discharged from the navy early last February after 14 months service, including destroyer duty in the Southwest Pacific. He was commissioned an ensign in November, 1943.

He will be associated with five of the outstanding oil men in the southwest in operation of the Tulsa club. They include William G. Skelly, president of the Skelly Oil Co.; P. C. Lauinger, president of the Petroleum Publishing Co., publishers of the Oil & Gas Journal; W. K. Warren, president of the Warren Petroleum Co.; John Mabee, widely-known drilling contractor and rancher, and William L. Kistler, Jr., large independent oil producer.

Cubs aid in deal

Howlett worked out the deal through the Chicago Cubs, from whom the group purchased the franchise. In addition to Tulsa, the Texas League includes the cities of Oklahoma City, Beaumont, Houston, Dallas, Ft. Worth, San Antonio, and Shreveport. Due to the war, the league suspended its activities after the 1942 season, but is generally expected to resume play in 1946.

It is among the nation's five high minor leagues, with a classification of A-1, and during normal times a large number of players went right from the Texas league to the majors—among them Dizzy Dean, Joe Medwick, Dizzy Trout and Hal Newhouser of Detroit, Dick Wakefield and a host of others.

"We are the most sports-minded nation in the world, and there is every indication that the post-war period will see us reach even greater levels of athletic interest," Howlett said in commenting on the move which takes him into the executive side of baseball after ten years of sports writing.

"And of all our sports, baseball —as the national pastime—would seem to have the brighest future in the years beyond the war, providing baseball goes to that future. The Texas League has always been one of the fastest of the minor leagues . . . it is located in a section of the country rich in the resources which make for sound living conditions. Tulsa is a most progressive city of close to 200,000 population, and I believe we are going to be able to work out an outstanding baseball operation down there."

Was WGN sports editor

Howlett is a graduate of Northwestern University, and while attending college wrote sports for several mid-western newspapers. He spent six months with the Associated Press, Chicago Bureau, after leaving school, then joined the sports staff of the Chicago Tribune in 1936, where he worked under Arch Ward until March, 1940, when he accepted a position with Radio Station WGN as sports editor.

At WGN, Howlett teamed with a number of well-known announcers in coverage of the most extensive sports broadcasting schedule of any major radio station in the country, including play-by-play accounts of major league baseball. During his four years as WGN sports editor, he worked with Bob Elson, Jack Brickhouse, Red Barber, Johnny Neblett, Guy Savage, and Joe Boland.

He left WGN in 1943 to accept a commission in the Navy, and trained at Ft. Schuyler, N. Y., Norfolk, Va., and Philadelphia, before being assigned to duty aboard a destroyer.

The Howletts have resided in Arlington Heights since December, 1941, moving to the village from Evanston.

In-Between Colors

In-between colors — bluish-violets, buff, ecru—are considered more livable than primary hues. They are less likely to grow monotonous.

Robinson in 'no-hitter' against Barrington

Jim Robinson pitched another no-hitter in Arlington's conference opener with Leyden last Friday, winning a 2 to 0 ball game. This is Robinson's second complete no-hit game in two years and the Cards' third no-hitter in the same period. Robinson blanked Niles last year and Brumm and Robinson collaborated in doing likewise to Barrington two weeks ago.

Hits of any description were scarce, Arlington getting only 5 themselves. Fortunately, however, 3 hits in the first inning pushed over 2 runs which were plenty in view of Robinson's efforts. Ehard led off with a single; took second on a passed ball; held second while Holtz struck out; and advanced to third on G. Stroker's single. Stroker promptly stole second on the first ball pitched to Aldrich and both Ehard and Stroker scored on Aldrich's hit; Crawford then lifted a fly to right field to end the inning and the scoring for the day.

This game was a personal triumph for both of the Strokers and Robinson. Gene Stroker took batting honors with two singles in three trips to the plate; Al Stroker turned in a magnificient job behind the plate in his first full length varsity job of catching; and Robinson, in addition to his pitching, got one of the five hits of the game.

Bisons win, 16-0

Bensenville opened the Northwest Conference season with a 16-0 victory over Wauconda's baseball team last Friday. Bob Tholander freshman hurler for the Bisons struck out 13 in six innings on the mound and Pete Neuman, who took over in the seventh, struck out the side. The Bisons scored in every inning. Wauconda showed much weakness in both hitting and fielding.

Grant-Northbrook rained out

The league opener between Grant and Northbrook was rained out after three scoreless innings of play. Northbrook is defending champ and expected to make a strong bid to repeat.

Warren 1, Niles 0

Behind the five hit pitching of Cannon, Warren shut out Niles 1-0 in the Northeast opener last Friday. Lane of Niles allowed only two hits but was scored on in the third when a base on balls, an error, a sacrifice bunt, and a passed ball produced the winning run.

The same afternoon Robinson of Arlington twirled a no hit game against Leyden to start the Cardinals off on the championship train to repeat last year's title season. It was the second no hitter in two seasons for Robinson.

Cards win double dual from Palatine, Leyden

Arlington Heights beat both Leyden and Palatine in a double dual track meet on the Palatine track Friday afternoon while Leyden had an eight point edge over Palatine's Pirates.

Best mark of the meet was made by Quaranta of Leyden who beat Vogt of Palatine in the mile with a time of 4:55.9. Vogt had 4:57.3. Quaranta, a sophomore, also won the 880 in the fine time of 2:11.4. Marks of :10.4 in the 100 yard dash by McDonald and :16.9 in the high hurdles by Miller highlighted Arlington's afternoon. Miller was Arlington's only double winner as he also got a tie with team mate Kamps in the high jump at 5 feet 4 inches. Palatine's winner against both Arlington and Leyden were Rose in the discus, Howes in the pole vault, and Stevenson in the broad jump. Morowski, who won the 440 and Michaels, who took the 200 yard low hurdles in :25.1 for Leyden are both underclass boys as is Quaranta, the outstanding distance runner. Lack of balance in the field events cost Leyden a chance at a double victory. However, the Eagles are outstanding in the running events.

120 yd. high hurdles: won by Miller A :16.9; Michaels L 2nd :17.2, Busse A 3rd :17.7, Moody P 4th :17.9, Kamps A 5th, Jost P 6th.

Says farm veterans should go home

Cpl. Herbert Struck of Bensenville sends a suggestion this week of a way to ease the food situation in this country. He is now stationed in England, but formerly served in France.

"As I lie here in my bed, reading our famous overseas paper, the 'Stars and Stripes', I came across an interesting article about the acute food shortage that seems to exist, affecting people at home and abroad as well.

"It seems a great shortage of the various products exist, with no relief in sight for sugar, potatoes, milk, and various other products. As I know of some of the acute food shortages over here, I can readily understand those in the States, although I am sure they are not as acute as over in these liberated countries. There are a good many people here who have not tasted meat for a month and many, many families are wondering where their next meal is going to come from.

"Why, in the first place, was the government in the beginning of this war, classifying farm laborers and farm boys A-1 and inducting them so rapidly to allow a shortage of experienced agricultural workers to occur. We all know that in our country alone there are so many farms which would be so much more productive if they had the help.

"But now that it has occurred I am sure there can be some remedy to the situation.

"Why not allow farm boys like myself, who have spent nearly four years in the army, and thirty months of those overseas in a combat division, who have been wounded one or more times (as for myself, three) return to the States and help in this acute food crisis. I mean they should receive a certain financial backing which would enable them to buy machinery, pay the rent for the coming year, in general, carry them through the first year. I am sure that, having been over here, seeing combat, they would use every effort to produce the highest amount expected from any piece of land.

"As we all know this would not relieve the immediate crisis that now exists, but things aren't going to improve unless we do take immediate action. Another thing, if the war should end tomorrow with both Germany and Japan, the food situation would be just as acute, and in all probability more so and will continue to exist for the next five years."

His address is Cpl. Herbert J. Struck, 108th General Hosp., 4134 Hosp. Plant, APO 887, % PM, New York, N. Y.

Deadline

Deadline for news for With Uncle Sam is Tuesday at 5 of each week. Pictures, letters or news of servicemen should be mailed or called direct to the publication office. Cooperation of the folks at home is sought to make a bigger and better With Uncle Sam.

Philippines

From the Philippines comes word of Marvin Perry of Palatine. Marvin has been made a second lieutenant in the field it was learned last week.

"Just a few lines to let you know that I am alright. Everything is going along fine and dandy. Won't be long before I spend my fourth birthday in the army and I sure hope it's the last one. What a lot of wishful thinking that is but they are getting along with this thing over here and you can't tell what might happen.

"We had our first real rain a couple of days ago and everything is a mess now. This doesn't make my job any easier because we have to climb slippery hills instead of dry ones. It also makes it awfully hard to get around with a vehicle. We went over the side and into the ditch twice in one day but were lucky it wasn't in a place where there was a long drop—some of them along the road are 1,000 ft. straight down.

"We are now taking six hour shifts as Duty Officer and the night shifts are really bad, especially the one from one o'clock until seven. It doesn't leave a man much time to sleep.

"The news has been so good from the other side the past few days that it's almost too good to believe. Maybe Warren will get home before long. That would be nice as long as he didn't get sent out here and I imagine that's what they will do with a lot of them from over there.

"The mail situation has been very poor over here lately. I think I've had only one letter in the past three weeks so I am looking forward to a few letters one of these days.

"Just got our beer ration for the month. Twelve cans so you can imagine how long mine lasted—just about two days.

"Still haven't seen a movie or had any recreation of any kind. Maybe if we get sent to a rest camp the facilities will be available. You don't have time for such things on the front lines."

His address is 2nd Lt. Marvin Perry, APO 33, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

'Since You Went Away' returns to Palatine Theater Wed. & Thurs. eves., May 2 and 3

Claudette Colbert, Jennifer Jones and Shirley Temple get sad news from the fighting front in a highlight moment from David O Selznick's human story of the American home front, "Since You Went Away," at the Palatine Theater Wednesday and Thursday evenings, May 2 and 3. Joseph Cotten, Monty Woolley, Lionel Barrymore and Robert Walker are also starred in the moving Selznick production.

Oklahoma

Seaman 2c Roy Schroeder of East Maine returned to his base in Oklahoma leaving April 18 after spending a fifteen day furlough at home. His father, Theodore Schroeder is expected home from the St. Francis hospital in Evanston this week where he has been for more than two months nursing a broken elbow which he sustained in a fall while working at Douglas.

New Mexico

Now at Hobbs, New Mexico, is Marvin Cosman of Palatine.

"We are now here at Hobbs taking transition in the B-17's. I will be here for ten weeks after which time I will be sent overseas as first pilot on a B-17. I still enjoy the home town newspaper very much and I really do appreciate it."

His address is Lt. Marvin A. Cosman, 0-2082672, Box 4348, Hobbs AAF, Hobbs, New Mexico.

Bronze star

Details of the Bronze Star award given to Pfc. August Olson of Palatine were received this week from the army. The following citation tells the story.

"Private First Class August L. Olson, 36670891, 334th Inf., United States Army. For heroic service in connection with military operations against the enemy in Germany, 23 Feb. to 5 March 1945. During a rapidly moving advance by his unit during this period, Private First Class Olson, with complete disregard for his safety, repeatedly exposing himself to all types of enemy fire, administered medical aid and evacuated wounded men in a superior manner. On one occasion he made his way over a road which was under unusually heavy artillery fire and, reaching a German town which was only partially captured, successfully evacuated all casualties. The courageous, unselfish action, loyalty and commendable conduct displayed by Pfc. Olson reflect high credit upon himself and the armed forces of the United States."

New York

Washington

Sgt. Leonard U. Maloney of Arlington Heights, who is home on a 45 day leave, flew to Seattle, Wash., to visit his brother, Ens. Richard W. Maloney, who is stationed at Whidley Island. The boys, who hadn't seen each other for over three years, had a happy reunion.

Bud is scheduled to report to Ft. Sheridan May 14 while Richard is awaiting assignment.

From Seattle, Washington, comes word of Al Harth of Arlington Heights.

"Been moving around a good deal lately and at last it seems I can give you an address. Want to be sure of getting the hometown paper as soon as possible. We'll be here in Seattle for a while waiting for our squadron to form."

His address is S1c ARM A. J. Harth, Box A, NAS, Seattle, Wash.

Wringing Rayon

Contrary to popular belief, washable rayon fabrics may be wrung or squeezed, either by hand or through a clothes wringer. Tests made on rayon fabrics show that wringing is not injurious. If the garment has fragile trimmings, such as lace or embroidery, you should handle it gently, as usual, and remove excess moisture by rolling it in a Turkish towel rather than wringing or twisting.

Wringing Rayon

Contrary to popular belief, washable rayon fabrics may be wrung or squeezed, either by hand or through a clothes wringer. Tests made on rayon fabrics show that wringing is not injurious. If the garment has fragile trimmings, such as lace or embroidery, you should handle it gently, as usual, and remove excess moisture by rolling it in a Turkish towel rather than wringing or twisting.

See greatest wheat crop in U.S. history

The support price for good and choice butcher hogs up to 270 lbs. has been raised from $12.50 to $13.00, Chicago basis, to September 1, 1946. The current ceilings of $14.75 and $14.00 will not be lowered before September 1, 1946. Farmers are asked to increase the fall pig crop 18 percent over 1944.

The largest winter wheat crop ever produced in the United States is indicated by the government crop report released April 10. Based on present conditions, a crop of 863 million bushels is in prospect. This is nearly 100 million bushels more than was harvested last year and is 38 million bushels above the previous record crop of 1931. Condition on April 1 was the highest since 1919, and the growth is two or three weeks ahead of normal. Production estimates were not given for rye, but condition was estimated at 91 percent of normal compared with 79 percent a year ago and 75 percent for the 10-year average on April 1. The condition this year is equal to that of April 1, 1914, otherwise the highest since 1910.

Stocks of wheat on farms April 1 were estimated at 239 million bushels, the third largest since the records began in 1927, and almost 20 million bushels larger than last year. The farm stocks of corn were at near-record levels at 1,340 million bushels, 23 percent larger than a year ago. Stocks of oats were estimated at 430 million bushels, about 15 million bushels above last year.

The War Production Board has authorized distilleries to use corn that grades No. 4, No. 5 and sample in unlimited quantities for the manufacture of industrial alcohol. Presumably there will be a considerable shift from wheat to corn for this purpose. The government is attempting to export large quantities of wheat and flour, and our supplies of corn are adequate to take care of all requirements.

As a result of the "Broadest demand in trade history," cattle prices reached the highest level of the season Wednesday, April 11. Finished steers in load lots reached $17.85, which is within 15 cents of the overriding OPA ceiling on live cattle at Chicago. Short-feds were in strong demand, and the price spread between them and choice kinds became still narrower.

The Office of Price Administration, in compliance with the requirement that ceiling prices be announced before planting time, has proposed the following ceiling prices on soybeans; U. S. No. 2, yellow and green, $2.10 per bushel of 60 pounds; U. S. No. 2, brown, black and mixed, $1.90 per bushel. The same differentials for grade and quality are suggested for the 1945 crop as were provided in the regulation for sales of soybeans of the 1944 crop. Illinois farmers are likely to be more favorably disposed toward soybeans this year because of a serious chinch bug hazard facing them. According to Dr. G. C. Decker, entomologist with the University of Illinois and the State Natural History Survey, a ten-fold increase in chinch bug population this year over 1944 is revealed in recent surveys. Infested areas extend from Carbondale on the south to Rock Island and Chicago on the north.

The War Production Board has indicated that allocations of material for production of new farm machinery have been cut one-third.

AAA urges farmers to plant every contracted beet

A request to farmers not to substitute other crops for sugar beets in their spring plantings has been issued by N. E. Dodd, Agricultural Adjustment agency chief, through the AAA offices in states producing sugar beets.

The official statement:

"The agricultural production pattern established by the goals is still the most practical balance for 1945. The sugar beet goal cannot be met if farmers in sugar beet areas substitute other crops for sugar beets. Sugar is still a critical war crop and every farmer should plant the largest possible acreage of beets consistent with his goals for other crops. Farmers in sugar beet areas should not overlook the fact that production history has been an important factor in pro-rating the domestic production quotas among growers under the Sugar Act of 1937."

Despite reports from Illinois farmers indicating 1,688 acres have been signed up for 1945, the total is almost 50% short of the official goal of 3,000 planted acres. Representatives of the beet sugar industry stress that every possible acre of sugar beets is urgently needed.

Watch Crews

Technicians have developed the airplane to a point where mechanical failure is rare, but man is still bound by human frailties. Man has been outbuilt, and now it is the pilot who cracks up before the plane, so high are the speeds and so intense the pressures of responsibility and combat-fatigue. To combat these strains the navy has placed a flight surgeon with each squadron, who watches over the aircrews like an anxious mother, and takes them off duty when they approach the breaking point.

This is no bull

A registered Holstein - Friesian cow in the dairy herd owned by Alfred E. Meyer, Amboy, has recently completed a 356-day production record of 649 pounds of butterfat and 18,474 pounds of milk. The Holstein-Friesian Association of America announces. This is more than 3½ times the production of the average dairy cow in the nation.

Her official name is Coles Cascade Pietertje Maid. She was milked 3 times daily, and was 4 years 6 months of age when she began her test period.

Testing was supervised by the University of Illinois, in cooperation with The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Shrimp Fishery

The shrimp fishery is the leading seafood industry of the south, furnishing an annual production of about 150,000,000 pounds, and bringing a larger return to fishermen than any other fishery product of the area. Although shrimp are caught commercially all the way from North Carolina to Texas, about 85 per cent of the yield comes from the Gulf coast and 66 per cent from Louisiana alone. Texas is second in shrimp production, followed by Georgia, Mississippi and Florida.

Launch campaign to keep war workers on the job

Following on the heels of the All-Chicago War Worker Absenteeism Slogan contest sponsored by the Production Urgency Information Committee, defense plants throughout the Chicago area this week launched intensive campaigns aimed to keep employes on the job.

Directing the program are the contest's 31 winners, each of whom has announced they are out to "practice what they preach." Plant-wide posting of winning slogans, each of which stressed the importance of being at work every day, featured opening of the campaign.

"With the labor market at a low point we cannot too strongly stress the necessity of each and every employe being on the job, each and every working day," was the statement of H. M. Anderson, Director of Personnel at the Douglas Aircraft Company plant in Park Ridge. "There is no getting around the fact that absenteeism curtails production. No one wants to see that happen. As long as our boys and girls are out there pitchin' we all must stay on the job. We expect it of them and they certainly have a right to expect it from us."

Anderson pointed to a recent statement by Col. Dan A. Hardt, Chairman of the Production Urgency Information Committee, in which he said:

"With the end of the German conflict in sight, many Americans are prone to overlook the fact that Japan, a formidable enemy, is yet to be defeated.

"We must all stick to our duties until the Pacific War is over. Japan has much in supplies and manpower in reserve. She has 4,000,000 men under arms, and a reserve of 2,000,000 to draw from. In addition to this, she is in the position of having supplies and workers in the countries already conquered and under her power."

Winners in the city-wide absenteeism contest, participated in by more than 5,000 individual war workers from every defense plant in the area, were guests last Sunday morning of the Douglas Aircraft Company at breakfast and on a flight in the C-54 Skymaster, largest cargo airplane now in full production. Including the crew of five, the ship's passengers for the flight numbered 48.

Expect good peach crop in Illinois in coming season

Southern Illinois fruit growers expect a good peach crop this year, according to reports made at the annual meeting of the Illinois Fruit Growers Exchange held in Carbondale April 17. The Exchange is an associated company of the Illinois Agricultural Association and is a statewide fruit and vegetable marketing cooperative.

The Exchange marketed more than 300,000 bushels of fruit and vegetables in 1944, including 179,726 bushels of peaches. The peaches moved from Illinois to buyers in 25 different states, and some 50 carloads were purchased by government departments for the military services. Dollar volume of the Exchange's business passed the million dollar mark in 1944 as compared with $788,000 in 1943.

Increased cooperative purchases of orchard supplies was reported by the Exchange's affiliate, the Fruit Exchange Supply Company, which paid patronage dividends of $17,884.13 on 1944 business of $60,000. This is double the patronage dividend paid in 1943.

SEED CORN

Due to the shortage of some varieties of seed corn I advise my customers to call as soon as possible for their DeKalb Quality Hybrid Seed Corn. Even if you previously placed your order with me, do not delay in getting your supply at once. I have endeavored to protect my regular customers but the demand on some varieties exceeds the supply and those who delay may be disappointed.

Due to my assessing work I ask customers to call at my home in the mornings.

Expect 10 times more chinch bugs this year

A probable ten-fold increase in chinch bug populations this year over the 1944 season is revealed in recent surveys, reports George C. Decker, entomologist with the University of Illinois and State Natural History Survey. Infested areas extend from Carbondale on the south to Rock Island and Chicago on the north.

He pointed out that it is not likely that weather conditions can materially reduce the expected high numbers during the next month, as the adult chinch bugs can survive almost any combination of April weather conditions. Rains later on in May, June and July can and may be helpful in destroying the young newly hatched bugs.

"It seems almost certain that the bugs now coming out of hibernation will migrate and find their way into the small grain field," the entomologist indicated. "In fact a migration has already started, but it is slowed down or suspended during wet, cool weather; we can expect that it will be resumed as soon as warm, sunny days return. Extensive flights may occur on any clear, calm day when the temperature is around 80 degrees."

Decker reported that the migration will be continuous until late May or mid-June. Bugs that first become established in wheat fields may later move and finally make their way to oat fields. He recommended using such practices as will assure well-developed crop stands, as the chinch bugs do most damage to weak and thin stands of crops. Use of fertilizers and good seed help achieve healthy stands.

Materials may be short for barriers—dinitro dust and creosote. Farmers should plan to reduce their requirements for these materials.

"Cook County will probably be the last infected area" states Farm Adviser, C. A. Hughes. "Migrations are from small grain to corn. Frequently we feel time spent on barriers is poor pay unless bugs are very bad. However, we suggest keeping corn away from oats fields as much as possible. Sometimes a small strip of early millet will trap a few bugs."

John Bull

John Bull, as a popular synonym for the English people, was first given currency in John Arbuthnot's famous "History of John Bull," a satire, published in 1712, on the duke of Marlborough and the War of the Spanish Succession. John Bull is well known as a burly country squire, impetuous, honest, narrow-minded and dogmatic.

Lime increases production of all farm land

Application of limestone is essential on soils that are lime deficient, which means on about 75 percent of the cropland and pasture land in the humid regions of the United States.

The War Food Administration, in emphasizing the importance of lime in the maintenance of soil productivity to meet war demands, points out that an estimated 35 to 40 million tons of ground limestone could be profitably applied each year in the needy areas. A total of some 20,971,000 tons were used in 1942, highest and latest reported figure. Of this amount Illinois farmers used 3,866,000 tons, an all-time record.

Ninety-one per cent, or 18,971,400 tons of the nearly 21 million applied in that year, went into the soil under the conservation program administered by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. Assistance in liming their cropland and pastures is again available to farmers through the same source.

Lime is needed to help grow legume crops such as alfalfa, red clover, and sweet clover, to supply nitrogen and organic matter to the soil, and cheap high protein feed for livestock. As a matter of fact lime alone is of little value unless alfalfa and clovers are grown in the land every three or four years to supply nitrogen and organic matter.

Lime will not take the place of phosphorus or potassium and where there is a shortage of either of these materials in the soil, phosphate or potash needs to be applied in addition to lime for the successful growing of legumes.

W. A. Hinz, county AAA committee, urged farmers who wish to apply limestone to order their supply now and accept delivery of the material whenever such delivery can be made.

Home Accidents

Home accidents in 1943 claimed 32,500 American lives, including the 6,000 workers—7 per cent more than in 1942, according to National Safety council figures—the Federal Security agency pointed out. Analysis of the 32,500 home accident deaths shows that falls accounted for two-thirds of the total, a 5 per cent increase over 1942. Burns (including explosions) and poisonings were next in order of severity. One-fourth of all the fatal home accidents occurred on stairways. The yard was the scene for one-fifth and the kitchen for another one-fifth of the home accident deaths.

Sanitation will clean up many animal diseases

Extra precautions this year against the more common livestock diseases, such as hog cholera, enteritis, brucellosis, mastitis and erysipelas, will aid greatly toward this year's war food effort, according to the Department of Animal Pathology and Hygiene, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. These diseases alone, the veterinarians say, account for losses totaling hundreds of millions of dollars.

The hog producer's old enemy—cholera—is still going strong, according to a final summary of last year's swine losses recently reported. During the past year cholera caused the death of more than 2,700,000 hogs, resulting in a cash loss to farmers of more than $27,000,000. In view of the need for higher pork production this year, Illinois veterinarians are urging that every farmer have spring pigs vaccinated as the only certain protection against cholera losses.

Swine erysipelas is becoming more prevalent all the time and is spreading to new areas, according to livestock officials. The disease is often difficult to deal with because its symptoms may resemble hog cholera, influenza or enteritis, which leads to confusion and delay in treatment unless an accurate diagnosis has been obtained in the early stages. Losses have been especially severe among young pigs. The chief weapon against erysipelas—vaccination with a highly potent serum—is showing encouraging results.

To eliminate parasites and disease hazards this spring, a thorough clean-up of barnyard and livestock quarters is necessary. All buildings, especially those where young animals are to be born or housed, should be cleaned and disinfected. Muddy barnyards and livestock lots which may harbor parasites and germs of disease should be filled in with cinders or properly drained. Haul out manure and burn old straw stacks. For extra precaution this year, move animals to fresh clean pasture as early as possible.

Warn of rise in land values

Economists from 12 midwest states interpret the dangers inherent in the present land value situation in a publication of Iowa State College entitled "Preventing Farm Land Price Inflation in the Midwest."

Professor H. C. M. Case, head of the department of agricultural economics, University of Illinois College of Agriculture, was chairman of the group which prepared the bulletin. Professor C. L. Stewart, chief in land economics in the department, took an active part in its preparation.

"Farm land price inflation is again threatening to become a principal problem of American agriculture," the bulletin states. "Buyers, sellers, lenders and borrowers are again overemphasizing the importance of wartime farm incomes.

"In many areas in the midwest, farm land prices are rising as rapidly as during World War 1. Land values probably will continue to rise during the war and for a year or two thereafter. But in the long run, farm land prices are likely to decline below present levels in many areas.

"Many purchasers who contract heavy mortgages will be in danger of losing their life earnings, lowering their levels of living and depleting soil resources."

Various measures for avoiding the excesses of a land boom are discussed. "The only safe course in view of prevailing uncertainties is to keep down mortgage debt and curb land price advances until future economic conditions are better known," is a conclusion stated in the bulletin.

"This bulletin warrants careful reading and consideration by any prospective purchaser of farm land," opines L. J. Norton, acting head of the University of Illinois department of agricultural economics.

Copies of the publication may be obtained upon request to the College of Agriculture, Urbana.

Reseed bare and thin spots of your lawn with a good grade of grass seed. Use 4 to 5 pounds of seed per 1,000 square feet.

Vets like flowers

One of the deepest impressions of the war for the men who were overseas—ranking high with souvenirs from the battle fields and the letters which have been tied and saved—are the memories of the flowers which were sent home to a mother, a wife or a sweetheart from the very foxholes themselves. Many thousands of flower orders were cleared by Army Exchange Service posts, and the Navy League, and many times these flowers were the only communications between men at the front or at sea and the folks back home.

List many factors of food shortage here

"So far as civilians are concerned, the next few months will see the tightest food situation experienced during the war period," declares L. J. Norton, acting head of the department of agricultural economics, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Norton lists three factors as responsible:

First, less food is being produced. Pork supplies have been drastically reduced because of the sharp cut in the 1944 pig crop. Also poultry flocks are reduced and so there are fewer eggs.

Second, the armed services are buying vast quantities of food of many kinds. Their problem is growing, as more and more prisoners have to be fed and as our armies overrun increasing areas where people must be fed for security reasons. Military buying centers at points in the marketing process where large quantities are obtained as, for example, at the plants of inspected meat packers. This leaves less food available for distribution through commercial channels.

Third, because of shortage of supplies in regular channels, all sorts of irregular channels are developing to more foodstuffs. Some of these are undoubtedly strictly legal, whereas others may involve "black market" operations. Whichever they are, they tend to reduce supplies in regular market channels and make it necessary for the armed services to take increasing percentages of food available there.

The basic difficulty is, according to Norton, that supplies are short in relation to the tremendous demands. He expects this situation to get more acute before it gets easier.

"If people would understand that there is basic scarcity in relation to demand for many foods and that the immediate cause is huge military purchases deemed to be necessary by the responsible authorities, we would meet this situation with less confusion," Norton pointed out.

"If food moves overseas it cannot be consumed here. No one in this country is going to suffer for lack of food, and if everyone would realize that if they get more than their share someone else will get less and the military procurment programs may be handicapped, the situation would be improved," he concluded.

Vice President's Home State

The 12th amendment of the constitution provides: "Electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for president and vice president, one of whom at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves." As a practical matter, besides important political considerations, candidates for the presidency and vice presidency are never chosen from the same state, since the electors of that state could vote for only one of the two and would have to cast their votes for the other office for a candidate from another state or completely throw them away.

Electricity aids production of food on farms

More than 25,000 northern Illinois farms and rural establishments are now using electricity from rural power lines of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois to help speed wartime food production and ease household tasks, Britton I. Budd, president, said today.

Another 700 farms are adjacent to the utility's electric lines, Budd said, making electricity available to 86.5% of the farms in the 6200 square mile, 16-county, area served by the company. Farm electric customers are being added, he said, wherever applicants can justify their wartime need for electricity under war production board regulations.

During the year ended March 31, farm customers of the company used an average of 2439 kilowatt hours of electricity, an increase of 158 over the 2281 kilowatthour average of the previous year.

Electric work-saving equipment (much of it homemade) listed by Budd as accounting for the greater wartime power use on northern Illinois farms includes pig and chick brooders; milking machines, milk coolers, and milk stirrers; water warmers; water pumps; feed grinders and mixers; grain elevators; hay hoists; lighting in the farm buildings; hay dryers; barn cleaners; and the usual household appliances such as refrigerators, ranges, water heaters, washers, freezers, irons, toasters and radios.

Utility Dress

One of the new functional dresses for housework now being designed in clothing laboratories of the Federal Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics is a princess-style frock, fashioned with an eye to safety. It is made for quick action; its sleeves are above the elbow where they can't catch on pan handles; belt ties are in the back (no front bows or knots to catch fire near the stove); no bows or dangling trim at the neck front to catch on electrical equipment; skirt moderately wide (not too narrow to hamper free action; not too wide to droop and catch on heels when stooping); pockets at hand level where they are less likely to catch on door knobs and handles.

Skis Camouflaged

Expect good peach crop in Illinois in coming season

Southern Illinois fruit growers expect a good peach crop this year, according to reports made at the annual meeting of the Illinois Fruit Growers Exchange held in Carbondale April 17. The Exchange is an associated company of the Illinois Agricultural Association and is a statewide fruit and vegetable marketing cooperative.

Military buying centers at points in the marketing process where large quantities are obtained as, for example, at the plants of inspected meat packers. This leaves less food available for distribution through commercial channels.

Third, because of shortage of supplies in regular channels, all sorts of irregular channels are developing to more foodstuffs. Some of these are undoubtedly strictly legal, whereas others may involve "black market" operations. Whichever they are, they tend to reduce supplies in regular market channels and make it necessary for the armed services to take increasing percentages of food available there.

The basic difficulty is, according to Norton, that supplies are short in relation to the tremendous demands. He expects this situation to get more acute before it gets easier.

"If people would understand that there is basic scarcity in relation to demand for many foods and that the immediate cause is huge military purchases deemed to be necessary by the responsible authorities, we would meet this situation with less confusion," Norton pointed out.

"If food moves overseas it cannot be consumed here. No one in this country is going to suffer for lack of food, and if everyone would realize that if they get more than their share someone else will get less and the military procurment programs may be handicapped, the situation would be improved," he concluded.

Vice President's Home State

The 12th amendment of the constitution provides: "Electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for president and vice president, one of whom at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves." As a practical matter, besides important political considerations, candidates for the presidency and vice presidency are never chosen from the same state, since the electors of that state could vote for only one of the two and would have to cast their votes for the other office for a candidate from another state or completely throw them away.

Electricity aids production of food on farms

More than 25,000 northern Illinois farms and rural establishments are now using electricity from rural power lines of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois to help speed wartime food production and ease household tasks, Britton I. Budd, president, said today.

Another 700 farms are adjacent to the utility's electric lines, Budd said, making electricity available to 86.5% of the farms in the 6200 square mile, 16-county, area served by the company. Farm electric customers are being added, he said, wherever applicants can justify their wartime need for electricity under war production board regulations.

During the year ended March 31, farm customers of the company used an average of 2439 kilowatt hours of electricity, an increase of 158 over the 2281 kilowatthour average of the previous year.

Electric work-saving equipment (much of it homemade) listed by Budd as accounting for the greater wartime power use on northern Illinois farms includes pig and chick brooders; milking machines, milk coolers, and milk stirrers; water warmers; water pumps; feed grinders and mixers; grain elevators; hay hoists; lighting in the farm buildings; hay dryers; barn cleaners; and the usual household appliances such as refrigerators, ranges, water heaters, washers, freezers, irons, toasters and radios.

Utility Dress

Skis Camouflaged

In order to render ski-troopers as inconspicuous as possible against snow, even their skis are camouflaged as well as protected by painting them with a special white protective coating.

So. America

From South America comes word of Roy Bedell of Prospect Heights. Roy is an ATC pilot now on his way to a new overseas station.

"We were all seated in the theater tonight viewing a mystery thriller when our commanding officer entered with the most shocking news since Pearl Harbor, the death of our President, our commander-in-chief. All the A. T. C. flyers stood in solemn reverence while the minutes ticked away and we prayed for the guidance which our country needs in these perilous times.

"Two nights ago we were listening to the president's pledge for a lasting peace, the plans of which he had discussed at the Yalta conference. Congress stood and applauded; we of the armed forces understood. On the deserts, in the mountains, across the seas, and in the jungles, all over the world the flags are at half mast; may God be with the new commander-in-chief for the San Francisco conference and the eternal destiny of our nation await the answering of our prayers.

"Today, we flew a rough weather route crossing the equator and the broad mighty rolling Amazon, another brother to 'Old Man River'. 'm some where in Brazil tonight, hut in by the jungle and the rain. Our ship was more like a submarine today than an aircraft for the clouds were oceans of sky.

"Some one from the signal corps has brought a radio into the club where everyone is tense, excited, nervous, and the smoke hovers thick over the conversation. Many cannot believe their ears, the remainder are discussing the future of our war effort, the four freedoms, and unconditional surrender. There is a hush here in the jungle, a hush that's carried o'er all the earth this night.

"Another letter in the near future will have to suffice for news of my whereabouts. Momentous words are coming over the ether, making listening far more apropos for this hour and those to follow.

"I'll be hoping for all the back copies of the Herald when I finally arrive at my destination. Thanks in advance."

Now at Pueblo, Colorado, is Leonard Halter of Roselle. He was formerly stationed at Mountain Home, Idaho. His address is Cpl. Leonard F. Halter, CCS PO Box 4195, PAAB, Pueblo, Colorado.

Pvt. Ralph Busse left Wednesday to return to the Army hospital at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Bronze star

Announcement of the award of the Bronze star to Staff Sergeant Roy Beese of Arlington Heights was received this week. Roy participated in the battle of the Belgian bulge in Luxemburg. The citation reads:

"For heroic achievement in Luxemburg on 29 December 1944, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States.

"After leading his machine gun squad through heavy enemy artillery and mortar fire to a defensive position near Ringel, Luxemburg, on 29 December 1944, S. Sgt. Beese directed such effective fire on the enemy that the attack was halted.

"During the engagement S. Sgt. Beese, disregarding his own safety, went to the aid of several wounded riflemen. His courage, leadership and devotion to duty are in keeping with the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States."

Roy suffered a hip wound in February. He is now with the 80th division in Germany.

Germany

From Germany comes word of Bob Harth of Arlington Heights.

"Met a home town boy, Harold Bartelt, a couple of days ago. Our divisions just happened to meet. Will Becker was also close by. We tried to find him, but were unsuccessful.

"Bartelt and I are both medics and we had a chance to put an army leg splint on a passing G. I. It sure was swell talking over old times.

"Now that we're over the Rhine it won't take long to finish this thing. Won't be long before I'm eating breakfost in Berlin."

Nick Mayer of Arlington Heights writes in thanks for the traveling bank.

"Sure was surprised to receive the traveling bank. It was greatly appreciated.

"I am in the best of health at present, but naturally want to return home as soon as possible."

His address is Pfc. Nicholas J. Mayer, 36762516, APO 339, % P M, New York, N. Y.

Pvt. Charles Cokenower of Wheeling is back in the line of duty somewhere in Germany after recovering from wounds received in earlier combat. Charles is now doing mechanical work in an ordnance Bn of a tank division.

Sgt. Raymond Rugen of Northbrook is in Germany.

T-5 Elmer Hacker of Northbrook is in Germany.

Philippines

From the Philippines comes word of Alan Reinshagen of Palatine.

"The censorship rules have been changed some what and I can now tell you where I've been since I've come overseas. Here's a list of the places where I've left my footprints since leaving Frisco—Sydney and Brisbane, Australia, in New Guinea, Port Moresby, Nadzab, Lae, Hollandia, also Biak and Morotai. Quite an itinerary!

"I'll give you a little more of a description of my present station. The streets of this town are macadam and slightly narrower than a two lane highway, something like Freeman rd. They run along between rows of picturesque houses built on bamboo pilings, the floors are from 4' - 6' off the ground. When the rainy season comes I'll probably find out why! The floors are split bamboo.

"The walls are of woven bamboo, nipa palm thatching, or light wood. The roofs are nipa palm thatching. The houses I've just described are occupied by the average class Filipinos. The space under the house is taken up by piles of firewood, clothes washing equipment, consisting mainly of a large, flat pan and a wooden paddle used to beat the wet clothes until they're clean. Goats, chickens, etc., also run underneath. In back of the houses stretch "paddy" fields for raising rice. They range in size from the size of our west orchard up to 3 or 4 acres. They're separated by dikes, walls of sod raising 5' above the level of field. The dikes are several feet wide at the top and it's fun to ramble around on them. The local yokels are plowing the paddy fields now, so when it rains all the time and they fill up with water they can plant their rice.

"There are plenty of stone houses occupied by the more well-to-do folks. They're 2-story places, very pretty and stuff—some are combination stone and wood. The big churches, municipal buildings, schools, etc., are made of stone also. Quite large and very pretty. The architecture is Spanish. There are numerous palms, banana trees and trees and bushes of all descriptions in the yards of the houses and along the borders of roads, some paddy fields and any place they find room to grow."

His address is Cpl. H. Reinshagen, 36630010, APO 70, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Oscar Laurance, TM3c of Wheeling, thinks the Philippines a pretty hot spot to be in. He says "It's hotter than the dickens" and the Japs are still around, so they have plenty to do. But the food is better which helps a lot.

T-5 Melvin Rugen of Northbrook is in the Philippines.

England

Pvt. Irvin McDougall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McDougall of 7 W Campbell st., Arlington Heights, recently arrived in the European theatre of operations and received a brief orientation course in England designed to help him adjust himself to life in a combat zone.

Pvt. McDougall will soon transfer to his permanent station from which America's fighting planes cover our advance into Germany.

Bob Link of Roselle writes from England this week, giving his new address.

"Please continue my subscription to that address. That addres' is in England. I enjoy your paper and am looking forward to reading it from cover to cover again."

His address is Pfc. Robert Link, 36740918, APO 635, % PM, New York, N. Y.

Capt. Lawrence Lee and Capt. (Chaplain) E. I. Stevens, both of Mt. Prospect, recently spent two days together in London. Both are stationed in England.

Changing his address in England is Cliff Haemker of Palatine. His address is Sgt. Clifford Haemker, 36305884, APO 558, % PM, New York, N. Y.

New Guinea

Now believed to be in New Guinea is Bill Jensen of Palatine. His APO was there at last reports, though many N. G. APOs are now moving up to the Philippines. He was formerly stationed at Charlotte, North Carolina. His address is Major William A. Jensen, 0-412272, APO 713-1, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Washington D. C.

Wac Pfc. Louise Stange of Palatine left this Wednesday to return to Washington, D. C. She had spent two weeks at home on furlough.

Marine air

Returns home after tour of duty on Marshalls

Now home on furlough after 15 months overseas, most of them in the Marshalls, is Pfc. Vernon Clausing of Arlington Heights. Vern returned home Friday, April 13, and reports, after 30 days, to Cherry Point, North Carolina.

"Life in the Marshalls was monotonous, but we had a pretty good set-up. We were located on Majaro atoll, a group of 15 islands about 10 miles long. The Seabees had linked the islands together with a 2-car-wide road. The islands were 2 to 4 blocks wide, a small place to spend 15 months.

"I did quartermaster work with the Marine Air Wing. We had three squadrons at our field, all fighter-bombers. There was plenty of activity most of the time I was on the Atoll, but two of the squadrons had been moved farther up when I left.

"Also, the atoll was 'state-side' when I left. When we first arrived there was just one 'theater' and that operating just a few times a week. We had moved in just a month after the original landings, so everything was pretty rough at first.

"But now everything is up to date. There are roads, 5 or 6 theaters, all kinds of recreational facilities, a library, and numerous other features. We also had basketball courts, and football and baseball fields. One bad part of athletics was the very hard coral floor. It is just like hard gravel and any fall is a nasty fall. I still carry a 'wounded' knee from basketball. (No Purple Heart).

"Only Jap plane we ever saw was one observation plane when the fleet had put in at our harbor. Our anti-aircraft opened up without success. Reports of expected landings of suicide squads of Japs were recurrent when I left. Guards were posted everywhere with Tommy guns.

"Only person I ever met from this immediate area was Marvin Stegeman of Prospect Heights. Marvin is a cook with the Seabees. I had gone to school with him, but didn't recognize him. When I knew him he was pretty thin, but not now. Guess that proximity to food has something to do with it."

Pfc. Clausing entered service June 23, 1943. After training at San Diego, California, he went overseas in January of '44. He stopped at American Samoa for six weeks, then Wallis Island then Funa Futi of the Ellice Island group. He arrived in the Marshalls in March of 1944.

Vernon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clausing, 202 S. Vail, Arlington Heights.

Maryland

From Bainbridge, Maryland, comes word of Oren Breda of Arlington Heights.

"Here's my new address so the Herald will continue to reach me okay. I'm now up in Fire Control school in Maryland for 16 weeks of training. Then I'll probably go to Washington, D. C. to advanced school for 5 months. So I'll be ashore for quite a while if everything goes as they tell me it will.

"This base has around 40,000 men on it and out of that 40,000 there are only about 100 of us Coast Guardsmen. So we have our difficulties. I was wondering if there's anyone from around home stationed in or near here. If there is I sure would be glad to see someone from around home.

"I managed to see the President's funeral train pass through Baltimore last Saturday evening. It sure was a sad sight."

Now at Ft. Meade, Maryland, is Norman Thune of Arlington Heights. He was formerly stationed at Camp Livingston, La. His address is Pfc. N. Thune, AGF Repl. Depot—Ft. Meade, Maryland.

Pfc. Arthur Guenther of East Maine came home from Texas on a ten-day furlough on April 15. When he reports back for duty it will be at Fort Meade, Maryland.

Mississippi

Now back at Camp Shelby Mississippi, is Emmett Doyle of Arlington Heights.

"Have returned to Camp Shelby, Miss. after a short stay in Alabama. Had a nice time in Alabama for three weeks and would have liked to stay there rather than to return to Mississippi.

"The weather here is rather warm and the sun is hot, especially when a fellow keeps his shirt off too long. I had my shirt off the other afternoon and got a little sunburn.

"At the present time I have a new address and don't know how long I will keep it but would appreciate it very much if you would transfer my mail to the address at the end of this letter. I have been receiving the town paper regularly and appreciate it every week."

His address is Pfc. Emmett J. Doyle, Surplus Det 1, SCU 1473, Camp Shelby, Miss.

Texas

Now at Hondo, Texas, is John Dresser of Mt, Prospect. He was formerly stationed at San Antonio, Texas. His address is AC John R. Dresser, Branch 6 HAAF, Hondo, Texas.

Marianas

Adding his name to subscription lists of the Arlington Heights Herald this week is A. F. Scolaro of Arlington Heights who is in the Marianas. His address is Sgt. A. F. Scolaro, 16078862, APO 246, Unit 2, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

New Hebrides

Mrs. Harold Boyer of Northbrook has heard from her son, S1c (j. m.) John H. Boyer, from New Hebrides Islands.

Enlist

Marvin Wessel of Palatine was scheduled to enter the armed forces this Thursday.

Saipan

From Saipan this week comes word of Tony Scolaro of Arlington Heights.

"Today, Friday, April 13, in the year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and forty-five will go down in history as the day in which the United States received its greates loss since the death of Abraham Lincoln. The country won't go down without Roosevelt, as we all know, since the U. S. is a country made up of men (of all walks of life) ready, willing and best of all, ABLE to take over the leadership of a great State. However, the stabilizing influence will be sorely missed in the next six months when peace conferences will be needed to settle the affairs due to cessation of hostilities both in Germany and in Japan.

"Had Tyronne Powers over for dinner and a few drinks tonight. He sure is a regular guy. We are both building new stages for our respective squadrons and I don't mind saying that I have a better one in the making than he has. He is forever dropping over to make comparisons and ask questions. (I have means and ways of getting more done than he has)."

His address is 1st Lt. A. T. Scolaro, 0-579168, APO 244, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

L. O. K.

Now on his way overseas, probabiy out in the Pacific, is Burgess Field of Palatine. He left just recently from Victoria, Kansas. His address is 2nd Lt. Burgess Field, APO 14675, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Changing his address overseas is Donald Kiehl of Palatine. His address is Pfc. Donald Kiehl, 3637 2133, APO 121-B, % PM, New York, N. Y.

Changing his address out in the Pacific is Willard Schoo of Bensevenville. It is Pfc. Willard F. Schoo, 36614710, APO 38, % PM, San Francicco, Calif.

Oklahoma

Home on furlough from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, is Elmer Herrick of Arlington Heights. Cpl. Herrick has a 13 day furlough and expects to go overseas soon. He is spending his time at the home of his parents in Downers Grove, returning to duty Friday.

Now at Norman, Oklahoma, is Edward Horcher of Glenview. He was formerly stationed at Seattle, Washington. His address is AM M3c E. J. Horcher, NATTC, Norman, Oklahoma.

So. Carolina

Scott Field

Pvt. Douglas Bingham of Wheeling spent last week end with his parents at Buffalo Creek Farm. "Doug" is still doing radio work with the air corps at Scott Field.

Discharged

Leo Vernon of Mt. Prospect has been given an honorable discharge from the army. He was in service 2½ years, much of the time in India, and he was stationed in a Texas hospital after coming home. The discharge was granted April 9.

Louisiana

Arriving home on furlough Thursday from Camp Livingston, La., is Pvt. Erwin Clausing of Arlington Heights. Erwin has just completed training and expects to go overseas upon expiration of his furlough.

California

Skip Bombing

Bombs weighing about 750 pounds are best for skip bombing, according to Flying magazine. Those weighing 2,000 pounds are too heavy, those less than 500 bounce.

France

A sports bulletin from an overseas newspaper in France tells of a baseball game between two service teams with Al Duenn of Arlington Heights playing short stop for one team. Of four times at bat, Al hit safely three times and scored two runs. Box score revealed the hits to be a single, double and triple.

"In a dramatic, pulse-tingling extra inning encounter, the 476th MP EG Co eked out a 9-8 decision over the Bisons last night to take over the league leadership. The game was played on even terms throughout, both teams coming up with sensational plays at critical moments, and the issue was in doubt until the last play of the game.

"Dobrinick and Grees hit hard for the 476th. Fontana also showed well at the plate, his long home run in the 7th tieing up the game. Coyle and Friedman showed well in the field. Duenn and DiNardo led the Bisons' hitting attack with three hits apiece. Cockrell caught excellently, cutting off several potential runs at the plate."

Mrs. Florence Therrien of Northbrook has heard from her husband, Lt. John H. Therrien. He is somewhere in France. His letter was written April 13.

Now in France is Wilbert Grandt of Arlington Heights. His address is Pfc. W. H. Grandt, 36372232, APO 149, % PM, New York, N. Y.

So. America

From South America comes word of Roy Bedell of Prospect Heights. Roy is an ATC pilot now on his way to a new overseas station.

"We were all seated in the theater tonight viewing a mystery thriller when our commanding officer entered with the most shocking news since Pearl Harbor, the death of our President, our commander-in-chief. All the A. T. C. flyers stood in solemn reverence while the minutes ticked away and we prayed for the guidance which our country needs in these perilous times.

"Two nights ago we were listening to the president's pledge for a lasting peace, the plans of which he had discussed at the Yalta conference. Congress stood and applauded; we of the armed forces understood. On the deserts, in the mountains, across the seas, and in the jungles, all over the world the flags are at half mast; may God be with the new commander-in-chief for the San Francisco conference and the eternal destiny of our nation await the answering of our prayers.

"Today, we flew a rough weather route crossing the equator and the broad mighty rolling Amazon, another brother to 'Old Man River', 'm some where in Brazil tonight, shut in by the jungle and the rain. Our ship was more like a submarine today than an aircraft for the clouds were oceans of sky.

"Some one from the signal corps has brought a radio into the club where everyone is tense, excited, nervous, and the smoke hovers thick over the conversation. Many cannot believe their ears, the remainder are discussing the future of our war effort, the four freedoms, and unconditional surrender. There is a hush here in the jungle, a hush that's carried o'er all the earth this night.

"Another letter in the near future will have to suffice for news of my whereabouts. Momentous words are coming over the ether, making listening far more apropos for this hour and those to follow.

"I'll be hoping for all the back copies of the Herald when I finally arrive at my destination. Thanks in advance."

Now at Pueblo, Colorado, is Leonard Halter of Roselle. He was formerly stationed at Mountain Home, Idaho. His address is Cpl. Leonard F. Halter, CCS PO Box 4195, PAAB, Pueblo, Colorado.

Pvt. Ralph Busse left Wednesday to return to the Army hospital at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Bronze star

Announcement of the award of the Bronze star to Staff Sergeant Roy Beese of Arlington Heights was received this week. Roy participated in the battle of the Belgian bulge in Luxemburg. The citation reads:

"For heroic achievement in Luxemburg on 29 December 1944, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States.

"After leading his machine gun squad through heavy enemy artillery and mortar fire to a defensive position near Ringel, Luxemburg, on 29 December 1944, S. Sgt. Beese directed such effective fire on the enemy that the attack was halted.

"During the engagement S. Sgt. Beese, disregarding his own safety, went to the aid of several wounded riflemen. His courage, leadership and devotion to duty are in keeping with the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States."

Roy suffered a hip wound in February. He is now with the 80th division in Germany.

Germany

From Germany comes word of Bob Harth of Arlington Heights.

"Met a home town boy, Harold Bartelt, a couple of days ago. Our divisions just happened to meet. Will Becker was also close by. We tried to find him, but were unsuccessful.

"Bartelt and I are both medics and we had a chance to put an army leg splint on a passing G. I. It sure was swell talking over old times.

"Now that we're over the Rhine it won't take long to finish this thing. Won't be long before I'm eating breakfost in Berlin."

Nick Mayer of Arlington Heights writes in thanks for the traveling bank.

"Sure was surprised to receive the traveling bank. It was greatly appreciated.

"I am in the best of health at present, but naturally want to return home as soon as possible."

His address is Pfc. Nicholas J. Mayer, 36762516, APO 339, % P M, New York, N. Y.

Pvt. Charles Cokenower of Wheeling is back in the line of duty somewhere in Germany after recovering from wounds received in earlier combat. Charles is now doing mechanical work in an ordnance Bn of a tank division.

Sgt. Raymond Rugen of Northbrook is in Germany.

T-5 Elmer Hacker of Northbrook is in Germany.

Philippines

From the Philippines comes word of Alan Reinshagen of Palatine.

"The censorship rules have been changed some what and I can now tell you where I've been since I've come overseas. Here's a list of the places where I've left my footprints since leaving Frisco—Sydney and Brisbane, Australia, in New Guinea, Port Moresby, Nadzab, Lae, Hollandia, also Biak and Morotai. Quite an itinerary!

"I'll give you a little more of a description of my present station. The streets of this town are macadam and slightly narrower than a two lane highway, something like Freeman rd. They run along between rows of picturesque houses built on bamboo pilings, the floors are from 4' - 6' off the ground. When the rainy season comes I'll probably find out why! The floors are split bamboo.

"The walls are of woven bamboo, nipa palm thatching, or light wood. The roofs are nipa palm thatching. The houses I've just described are occupied by the average class Filipinos. The space under the house is taken up by piles of firewood, clothes washing equipment, consisting mainly of a large, flat pan and a wooden paddle used to beat the wet clothes until they're clean. Goats, chickens, etc., also run underneath. In back of the houses stretch "paddy" fields for raising rice. They range in size from the size of our west orchard up to 3 or 4 acres. They're separated by dikes, walls of sod raising 5' above the level of field. The dikes are several feet wide at the top and it's fun to ramble around on them. The local yokels are plowing the paddy fields now, so when it rains all the time and they fill up with water they can plant their rice.

"There are plenty of stone houses occupied by the more well-to-do folks. They're 2-story places, very pretty and stuff—some are combination stone and wood. The big churches, municipal buildings, schools, etc., are made of stone also. Quite large and very pretty. The architecture is Spanish. There are numerous palms, banana trees and trees and bushes of all descriptions in the yards of the houses and along the borders of roads, some paddy fields and any place they find room to grow."

His address is Cpl. H. Reinshagen, 36630010, APO 70, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Oscar Laurance, TM3c of Wheeling, thinks the Philippines a pretty hot spot to be in. He says "It's hotter than the dickens" and the Japs are still around, so they have plenty to do. But the food is better which helps a lot.

T-5 Melvin Rugen of Northbrook is in the Philippines.

England

Pvt. Irvin McDougall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McDougall of 7 W Campbell st., Arlington Heights, recently arrived in the European theatre of operations and received a brief orientation course in England designed to help him adjust himself to life in a combat zone.

Pvt. McDougall will soon transfer to his permanent station from which America's fighting planes cover our advance into Germany.

Bob Link of Roselle writes from England this week, giving his new address.

"Please continue my subscription to that address. That adres' is in England. I enjoy your paper and am looking forward to reading it from cover to cover again."

His address is Pfc. Robert Link, 36740918, APO 635, % PM, New York, N. Y.

Capt. Lawrence Lee and Copt. (Chaplain) E. I. Stevens, both of Mt. Prospect, recently spent two days together in London. Both are stationed in England.

Changing his address in England is Cliff Haemker of Palatine. His address is Sgt. Clifford Haemker, 36305884, APO 558, % PM, New York, N. Y.

New Guinea

Now believed to be in New Guinea is Bill Jensen of Palatine. His APO was there at last reports, though many N. G. APOs are now moving up to the Philippines. He was formerly stationed at Charlotte, North Carolina. His address is Major William A. Jensen, 0-412272, APO 713-1, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Washington D. C.

Wac Pfc. Louise Stange of Palatine left this Wednesday to return to Washington, D. C. She had spent two weeks at home on furlough.

Marine air

Returns home after tour of duty on Marshalls

Now home on furlough after 15 months overseas, most of them in the Marshalls, is Pfc. Vernon Clausing of Arlington Heights. Vern returned home Friday, April 13, and reports, after 30 days, to Cherry Point, North Carolina.

"Life in the Marshalls was monotonous, but we had a pretty good set-up. We were located on Majaro atoll, a group of 15 islands about 10 miles long. The Seabees had linked the islands together with a 2-car-wide road. The islands were 2 to 4 blocks wide, a small place to spend 15 months.

"I did quartermaster work with the Marine Air Wing. We had three squadrons at our field, all fighter-bombers. There was plenty of activity most of the time I was on the Atoll, but two of the squadrons had been moved farther up when I left.

"Also, the atoll was 'state-side' when I left. When we first arrived there was just one 'theater' and that operating just a few times a week. We had moved in just a month after the original landings, so everything was pretty rough at first.

"But now everything is up to date. There are roads, 5 or 6 theaters, all kinds of recreational facilities, a library, and numerous other features. We also had basketball courts, and football and baseball fields. One bad part of athletics was the very hard coral floor. It is just like hard gravel and any fall is a nasty fall. I still carry a 'wounded' knee from basketball. (No Purple Heart).

"Only Jap plane we ever saw was one observation plane when the fleet had put in at our harbor. Our anti-aircraft opened up without success. Reports of expected landings of suicide squads of Japs were recurrent when I left. Guards were posted everywhere with Tommy guns.

"Only person I ever met from this immediate area was Marvin Stegeman of Prospect Heights. Marvin is a cook with the Seabees. I had gone to school with him, but didn't recognize him. When I knew him he was pretty thin, but not now. Guess that proximity to food has something to do with it."

Pfc. Clausing entered service June 23, 1943. After training at San Diego, California, he went overseas in January of '44. He stopped at American Samoa for six weeks, then Wallis Island then Funa Futi of the Ellice Island group. He arrived in the Marshalls in March of 1944.

Vernon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clausing, 202 S. Vail, Arlington Heights.

Maryland

From Bainbridge, Maryland, comes word of Oren Breda of Arlington Heights.

"Here's my new address so the Herald will continue to reach me okay. I'm now up in Fire Control school in Maryland for 16 weeks of training. Then I'll probably go to Washington, D. C. to advanced school for 5 months. So I'll be ashore for quite a while if everything goes as they tell me it will.

"This base has around 40,000 men on it and out of that 40,000 there are only about 100 of us Coast Guardsmen. So we have our difficulties. I was wondering if there's anyone from around home stationed in or near here. If there is I sure would be glad to see someone from around home.

"I managed to see the President's funeral train pass through Baltimore last Saturday evening. It sure was a sad sight."

Now at Ft. Meade, Maryland, is Norman Thune of Arlington Heights. He was formerly stationed at Camp Livingston, La. His address is Pfc. N. Thune, AGF Repl. Depot—Ft. Meade, Maryland.

Pfc. Arthur Guenther of East Maine came home from Texas on a ten-day furlough on April 15. When he reports back for duty it will be at Fort Meade, Maryland.

Mississippi

Now back at Camp Shelby, Mississippi, is Emmett Doyle of Arlington Heights.

"Have returned to Camp Shelby, Miss. after a short stay in Alabama. Had a nice time in Alabama for three weeks and would have liked to stay there rather than to return to Mississippi.

"The weather here is rather warm and the sun is hot, especially when a fellow keeps his shirt off too long. I had my shirt off the other afternoon and got a little sunburn.

"At the present time I have a new address and don't know how long I will keep it but would appreciate it very much if you would transfer my mail to the address at the end of this letter. I have been receiving the town paper regularly and appreciate it every week."

His address is Pfc. Emmett J. Doyle, Surplus Det 1, SCU 1473, Camp Shelby, Miss.

Texas

Now at Hondo, Texas, is John Dresser of Mt. Prospect. He was formerly stationed at San Antonio, Texas. His address is AC John R. Dresser, Branch 6 HAAF, Hondo, Texas.

Marianas

Adding his name to subscription lists of the Arlington Heights Herald this week is A. F. Scolaro of Arlington Heights who is in the Marianas. His address is Sgt. A. F. Scolaro, 16078862, APO 246, Unit 2, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

New Hebrides

Mrs. Harold Boyer of Northbrook has heard from her son, S1c (j. m.) John H. Boyer, from New Hebrides Islands.

Enlist

Marvin Wessel of Palatine was scheduled to enter the armed forces this Thursday.

Saipan

"Today, Friday, April 13, in the year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and forty-five will go down in history as the day in which the United States received its greates loss since the death of Abraham Lincoln. The country won't go down without Roosevelt, as we all know, since the U. S. is a country made up of men (of all walks of life) ready, willing and best of all, ABLE to take over the leadership of a great State. However, the stabilizing influence will be sorely missed in the next six months when peace conferences will be needed to settle the affairs due to cessation of hostilities both in Germany and in Japan.

"Had Tyronne Powers over for dinner and a few drinks tonight. He sure is a regular guy. We are both building new stages for our respective squadrons and I don't mind saying that I have a better one in the making than he has. He is forever dropping over to make comparisons and ask questions. (I have means and ways of getting more done than he has)."

His address is 1st Lt. A. T. Scolaro, 0-579168, APO 244, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

L. O. K.

Now on his way overseas, probably out in the Pacific, is Burgess Field of Palatine. He left just recently from Victoria, Kansas. His address is 2nd Lt. Burgess Field, APO 14675, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Changing his address overseas is Donald Kiehl of Palatine. His address is Pfc. Donald Kiehl, 3637 2133, APO 121-B, % PM, New York, N. Y.

Changing his address out in the Pacific is Willard Schoo of Bensevenville. It is Pfc. Willard F. Schoo, 36614710, APO 38, % PM, San Francicco, Calif.

Oklahoma

Home on furlough from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, is Elmer Herrick of Arlington Heights. Cpl. Herrick has a 13 day furlough and expects to go overseas soon. He is spending his time at the home of his parents in Downers Grove, returning to duty Friday.

Now at Norman, Oklahoma, is Edward Horcher of Glenview. He was formerly stationed at Seattle, Washington. His address is AM M3c E. J. Horcher, NATTC, Norman, Oklahoma.

So. Carolina

Now at Greenville, South Carolina, is F. E. Peuser of Palatine. He was formerly stationed at Scott Field, Ill. His address is Pvt. F. E. Peuser, 1st AF Sq K 128th BU, Greenville, S. C.

Scott Field

Pvt. Douglas Bingham of Wheeling spent last week end with his parents at Buffalo Creek Farm. "Doug" is still doing radio work with the air corps at Scott Field.

France

A sports bulletin from an overseas newspaper in France tells of a baseball game between two service teams with Al Duenn of Arlington Heights playing short stop for one team. Of four times at bat, Al hit safely three times and scored two runs. Box score revealed the hits to be a single, double and triple.

"In a dramatic, pulse-tingling extra inning encounter, the 476th MP EG Co eked out a 9-8 decision over the Bisons last night to take over the league leadership. The game was played on even terms throughout, both teams coming up with sensational plays at critical moments, and the issue was in doubt until the last play of the game.

"Dobrinick and Grees hit hard for the 476th. Fontana also showed well at the plate, his long home run in the 7th tieing up the game. Coyle and Friedman showed well in the field. Duenn and DiNardo led the Bisons' hitting attack with three hits apiece. Cockrell caught excellently, cutting off several potential runs at the plate."

Mrs. Florence Therrien of Northbrook has heard from her husband, Lt. John H. Therrien. He is somewhere in France. His letter was written April 13.

Now in France is Wilbert Grandt of Arlington Heights. His address is Pfc. W. H. Grandt, 36372232, APO 149, % PM, New York, N. Y.

Discharged

Leo Vernon of Mt. Prospect has been given an honorable discharge from the army. He was in service 2½ years, much of the time in India, and he was stationed in a Texas hospital after coming home. The discharge was granted April 9.

Louisiana

Arriving home on furlough Thursday from Camp Livingston, La., is Pvt. Erwin Clausing of Arlington Heights. Erwin has just completed training and expects to go overseas upon expiration of his furlough.

California

Skip Bombing

Bombs weighing about 750 pounds are best for skip bombing, according to Flying magazine. Those weighing 2,000 pounds are too heavy, those less than 500 bounce.

Marianas

From the Marianas comes word of Ed Busse of Mt. Prospect.

"I still don't get my Heralds through regular channels but I get them by first class mail from home. Believe me, they are one of the best morale builders I get.

"I am now at a big B-29 base in the Marianas and our boys are really giving the Nips food for thought. We also keep their fires burning too. Here the weather is hot, a rains a lot, we have a lot of rats and lizards for company, but I'm satisfied as I know that there are a lot worse places than this.

"At first when I arrived we had a lot of alerts and a lot of Japs were brought in for awhile, but now all they bring in are skinny, starving leftovers. Everyone here works hard and the boys are doing a real job.

"We get six cases of beer a week and we sweat out lines for everything we get. Food is fair but I sure am getting enough of "C" rations and corned beef. We get so much 'Spam' that some of the boys use Spam Francisco in their address. We live in tents, but the rats should pay the rent as there are more of them than there are of us.

"We get two half days a month off. Yesterday morning I was off and I hitched a ride in a B-29. I was up about an hour and will say the B-29 is the swoothest plane I was ever in.

"Yesterday was a day of note in more ways than one. I washed my blankets and they don't smell so moldy anymore, had a ride in a B-29, got a candy bar at the PX without sweating a line, and we had ice cream for the first time in four months.

"Just as I came over to our APO tonight they brought a Jap in who was captured today. He was really skinny and was so scared and so weak they had to lift him into a truck. He certainly was no super man.

"Our APO here is set up in a tent and when it rains we have to paddle upstream to keep the whole joint in one spot. The business we do here would put many a P. O. to shame in the states even if they are in fine buildings.

"I surely am looking forward to the day when we will all be back in good old Mt. Prospect again. By the way, if anyone is in the vicinity of APO 246 in the Marianas look me up at APO 246."

301st bombardment

Sees 32 months service England, Africa, Italy

Cpl. Rudy Hajek home 45 days

Now home after serving overseas 32 months with the Army air force is Cpl. Rudy Hajek of Palatine. Rudy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Hajek, arrived home Thursday, April 12, and returns to duty May 29.

"It's great to be home after serving overseas almost three years," said Rudy. "We moved around quite a bit with the air corps over there, and saw a lot of country, but our thoughts were always of home.

Bombs fall, you dig deeper

"Especially when those bombs started falling. Then was the time every man thought of nothing but home. As you crouch in your foxhole, trying to get in deeper, with Nazis planes overhead strafing and bombing, you offer silent prayers in a hurry, think of home, and wonder if you'll get out of this raid.

"Foxholes varied, but we usually dug them about 5 feet deep. Some fellows dug them even deeper. In Africa we put up our tents right over our foxholes, making it almost like home. But when it rained the water still seeped in, and in case of a raid you just sat in that water, hoping it afforded you more protection.

"We landed in England in August of 1942, staying 4 months with the 8th air force. Then we moved to Oran, Africa, for 6 weeks. Biskra was next, plus numerous other stations in Tunisia. We transferred to Italy at Christmastime of '43. Flying with the 15th air force our planes took part on that now famous raid on Regensburg, Germany.

Wins citation

"It was on that raid that our bombardment group, the 301st, won the Presidental citation. It seems there was terrifically heavy anti-aircraft about the aircraft plants of Regensburg with many groups turning back. Ours, though I wasn't on the trip, arrived first and proceeded to drop our bombs. Only 13 of the 26 planes returned. a terrific cost, but the damage done warranted the citation.

"My job was armor man on the ground crew. It was my responsibility to see that all bombs and guns were loaded at flight time. Whenever our planes came back from a raid, usually late in the day, we would check over the entire plane, loading it up, and getting it ready for the next day's flight. We'd work until close to midnight, then retire until about 3:30 a. m. Then up again and recheck everything on the planes.

"But the hard part of the whole job was watching for the ships to come back. You were always attached to one particular ship, and would become well acquainted with the flight crew. Many times they wouldn't come back and you'd lose one of your buddies.

Snow in Oran

"One of the unusual sights in Africa was the snow in Oran. I brought home pictures of the white-covered town, an unusual sight. Another sight I'll always remember was the scene at Cassino. Our group was one of those participating in that attack. That abbey was a complete wreck.

"While in Italy I was able to visit numerous cities on pass, including Naples, Rome and Bari. Rome is almost completely untouched by war. Many persons think the Germans showed a bit of decency in declaring Rome an open city. But truth of the matter is that Rome is situated on a hard to defend plain, and any militarist would have moved his men out of there on the same situation.

"Naples was badly hit by the war, by both our own bombs and the work of the retreating Nazis. Everyone remembers how the water and light systems were destroyed by the Germans. Emergency systems were set up when I was there.

Filthy in Italy

"Outstanding feature that I remember about Italy was the filth. Everyone presumed Africa and the Arabians would be dirty, but we hadn't expected what we saw in Italy. Much of it could be blamed on the war, I realize, but there was still enough filth to show it had been accumulated over years and years.

"Many children were orphans with their parents taken away or killed. They roamed the streets continually, begging for food. I know many of them were always going through our garbage pails looking for something to eat. But everywhere in all cities was filth and more filth.

Flies 6 missions

"Of course, being in the air corps, I had the flying bug and wanted to fly myself. I did go out on 6 missions as gunner. In each case the regular gunner was unable to report and I was chosen to fly in his place. It was quite a thrill to me.

"Biggest danger in our work, except for the occasional raids in the early part of the war, was loading of bombs. You had to be on your toes all the time while loading ammunition. You put in your bombs, and then attached the fuses. Accidents were not uncommon, except that rarely did one man have more than one.

"Every so often some one would drop a bomb and everything would be blown to smithereens for a radius of 100 yards. It was too bad those fellows had to die just through carelessness. I lost two buddies that way."

Cpl. Hajek entered service February 11, 1942. He trained at Geiger Field, Spokane, Washington, Alamogordo, New Mexico, and Muroc, California. He went to England August 5 of that year.

Double citation

Cpl. Hajek wears the Presidential Citation ribbon with cluster. One issue was for the raid on Regensburg, Germany, and the other for the group sinking a four ship German ammunition convoy off the coast of Africa.

He also wears the Good Conduct ribbon and the ETO with 8 battle stars. Three of these for the Algerian campaign, the Sicilian campaign, and the Foggia-Naples battle. Other 5 are for battles in cooperation with the 5th and 8th armies in Italy. He also wears the VFW ribbon.

Rudy met several local men while overseas, including Ovid Neagle, Tom Philbin and Clifford Wente of Palatine in Italy, Howard Kruse of Palatine in Africa, and Randall Wittenberg of Palatine in London.

Tennessee

Now at Memphis, Tennessee, where he is undergoing hospitalization is Pfc. Art Clem of Arlington Heights. Art was wounded in France January 2. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Clem.

Art arrived in the States Saturday, April 14. He was them moved to Memphis. He is expected home on furlough in about a week when he may be granted a medical discharge.

QUICK TAKES By Kressy

"IT'S NO USE—ALL I GET IS GABRIEL HEATTER"

With Uncle Sam

Italy

Sgt. Jack Haben of Wheeling writes from Italy that he is very busy doing a lot of bombing and was recently awarded an oak leaf cluster. Jack says he received a letter from Marvin Horcher who is stationed nearby and he hopes to arrange a visit with Marvin very soon.

Expected home on furlough any day from Italy is Lowell Haemker of Palatine.

Now safe

Now back in military control is Lt. Ralph Hauptly of Mt. Prospect. Lt. Hauptly was forced down behind Russian lines in a raid over Austria March 23. Word received last week from a crew member stated everyone was safe. First official notice was given this week.

Great Lakes

Among those graduating recently from an intensive course of radio fundamentals at service schools at Great Lakes was Victor Baumgart, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Baumgart, Rural Route No. 1, Palatine.

This Bluejacket was selected for his specialized training on the basis of his recruit training aptitude test scores. Graduates from the 20 specialized courses taught here at the service schools are sent to sea, to shore stations, or to advanced schools for further duty.

Clifford Grandt CM2c of Wheeling spent the week end at home on a 72-hour pass from Great Lakes where he is stationed at present. Clifford is getting around quite well again after his serious injuries received in an auto accident in Hawaii in December. He has been hospitalized in California the past few months.

Silver Star

Persuades 36 Nazis to yell 'Kamerad'

The award of the Silver Star to Pfc. Theodore Decker of Arlington Heights was made known this week in a bulletin released by the war department. Decker is the son of Mrs. Claire Decker, 1429 N. Dunton street.

Award of the medal was made for action in which Ted captured 36 German prisoners single-handed. Ted had written that he saw a German medic waving to him from across the river. He had some knowledge of German so crossed the river, accepting a few wounded men as prisoners. He then met other men, persuaded them to surrender, and returned to his lines with the entire bag of 36. The citation reads:

"Crossing a river with the leading assault groups, Pfc. Decker captured an enemy soldier and learned from him the location of other soldiers. Advancing alone, he persuaded sixteen enemy surrender and then proceeded to a house and single-handedly captured twenty additional prisoners.

"His courageous action served to eliminate resistance in the immediate vicinity of an important ferry site.

"Pfc. Decker's initiative, courage and coolness in the face of grave danger exemplify the finest traditions of the American soldier and reflect distinct credit upon himself and the military service."

Just last Saturday Mrs. Decker received a Nazi flag from Ted as a souvenir. It is in perfect condition though "it makes me shiver" according to Mrs. Decker. Previously Ted had sent home souvenirs of a German knife, belt and cartridge holders, and part of a Nazi parachute.

Get first word of Leyte vet

Additional word of the wounding of Francis Reuse of Palatine were received last week, the first message in almost three months. Word that he was wounded December 11 on Leyte was received February 1, but no other news was ever forthcoming.

Last week the adjutant general notified the family that "Shrimp" had suffered intense shrapnel wounds in both arms and both legs. No letters have been received from him since the wounding, though the family have continually sent mail to him.

England

First Lt. Elwin A. Kruse, 21, was recently awarded a third Oak Leaf Cluster to his air medal for "meritorious achievement" while participating in bombing attacks on German military and industrial targets.

Lt. Kruse is a navigator on an eighth air force B-17 Flying Fortress in the 385th bombardment group, commanded by Col. George Y. Jumper, Natoma, Calif.

The airman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kruse, Milwaukee ave., Wheeling. A graduate of Highland Park high school, Lt. Kruse was a student at Georgia Military College before his entry into the army in January, 1943.

Holland

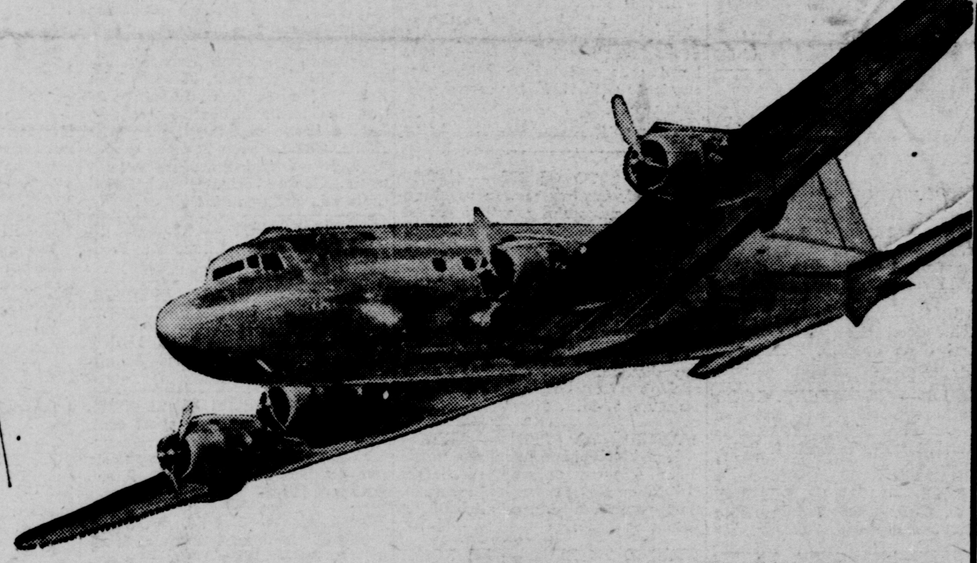

Staff Sgt. Gerald Rugen of Northbrook is in a Holland hospital after a second injury received while crossing the Rhine in Germany. There is no major injury.

48 FLY IN ONE PLANE
As a reward for composing winning slogans intended to reduce absenteeism, Col. Dan A. Hardt, Chairman of the Production Urgency Information Committee, arranged that prize winners from all the Chicago plants participating in the contest, fly in a Giant Douglas C-54 cargo transport plane Sunday, April 15. Including the crew of five, headed by Lt. Col. R. A. Holladay who personally acted as pilot, a total of forty-eight persons flew at one time in one plane on a trip covering greater Chicago and the lake front, altho the plane can carry many more.
Ask anyone who made this flight and you will be told enthusiastically about the tremendous size of this famous C-54 Skymaster. You will be told that it has room to fly jeeps, supplies, ammunition —anything—to our boys at the fighting fronts . . . and to fly back wounded from clear across the Pacific.
The C-54 is the airliner of the postwar period for which Douglas already has over a hundred million dollars worth of commercial contracts.

Last Sunday
48 SLOGAN WINNERS FROM OTHER CHICAGO PLANTS
48 FLEW IN A C-54
If You Could See What They Saw...
A giant of the air flying safely over lake or loop and capable of spanning the ocean with ease (these are the planes the ATC flies over both the Atlantic and the Pacific) . . . you would realize why the armed forces are calling for so many more C-54's. It takes planes like these to cover the vast distances we must cover to help lick Japan. You would understand that AAF schedules call for production of the C-54 to continue clear thru 1946. You would be able to visualize these planes as the commercial airliners of the future with more than $100,000,000.00 in orders already booked.
You Would Come To Work Here NOW!
You would have seen with your own eyes that the huge Douglas Chicago plant is as vast and as clean and as fine a place to work as you can find. You would feel the pride and satisfaction that can come from taking your place along with the thousands of Douglas employes who are not only helping to win the war but are acquiring skills in working the new light metals such as magnesium and aluminum, which can be utilized in many manufacturing fields besides aviation, when the war is over. Don't Delay—

"Naples was badly hit by the war, by both our own bombs and the work of the retreating Nazis. Everyone remembers how the water and light systems were destroyed by the Germans. Emergency systems were set up when I was there.

Filthy in Italy

"Outstanding feature that I remember about Italy was the filth. Everyone presumed Africa and the Arabians would be dirty, but we hadn't expected what we saw in Italy. Much of it could be blamed on the war, I realize, but there was still enough filth to show it had been accumulated over years and years.

"Many children were orphans with their parents taken away or killed. They roamed the streets continually, begging for food. I know many of them were always going through our garbage pails looking for something to eat. But everywhere in all cities was filth and more filth.

Flies 6 missions

"Of course, being in the air corps, I had the flying bug and wanted to fly myself. I did go out on 6 missions as gunner. In each case the regular gunner was unable to report and I was chosen to fly in his place. It was quite a thrill to me.

"Biggest danger in our work, except for the occasional raids in the early part of the war, was loading of bombs. You had to be on your toes all the time while loading ammunition. You put in your bombs, and then attached the fuses. Accidents were not uncommon, except that rarely did one man have more than one.

"Every so often some one would drop a bomb and everything would be blown to smithereens for a radius of 100 yards. It was too bad those fellows had to die just through carelessness. I lost two buddies that way."

Cpl. Hajek entered service February 11, 1942. He trained at Geiger Field, Spokane, Washington, Alamogordo, New Mexico, and Muroc, California. He went to England August 5 of that year.

Double citation

Cpl. Hajek wears the Presidential Citation ribbon with cluster. One issue was for the raid on Regensburg, Germany, and the other for the group sinking a four ship German ammunition convoy off the coast of Africa.

He also wears the Good Conduct ribbon and the ETO with 8 battle stars. Three of these for the Algerian campaign, the Sicilian campaign, and the Foggia-Naples battle. Other 5 are for battles in cooperation with the 5th and 8th armies in Italy. He also wears the VFW ribbon.

Rudy met several local men while overseas, including Ovid Neagle, Tom Philbin and Clifford Wente of Palatine in Italy, Howard Kruse of Palatine in Africa, and Randall Wittenberg of Palatine in London.

QUICK TAKES — By Kressy

"IT'S NO USE—ALL I GET IS GABRIEL HEATTER"

With Uncle Sam

Italy

Sgt. Jack Haben of Wheeling writes from Italy that he is very busy doing a lot of bombing and was recently awarded an oak leaf cluster. Jack says he received a letter from Marvin Horcher who is stationed nearby and he hopes to arrange a visit with Marvin very soon.

Expected home on furlough any day from Italy is Lowell Haemker of Palatine.

Now safe

Now back in military control is Lt. Ralph Hauptly of Mt. Prospect. Lt. Hauptly was forced down behind Russian lines in a raid over Austria March 23. Word received last week from a crew member stated everyone was safe. First official notice was given this week.

Great Lakes

Among those graduating recently from an intensive course of radio fundamentals at service schools at Great Lakes was Victor Baumgart, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Baumgart, Rural Route No. 1, Palatine.

This Bluejacket was selected for his specialized training on the basis of his recruit training aptitude test scores. Graduates from the 20 specialized courses taught here at the service schools are sent to sea, to shore stations, or to advanced schools for further duty.

Clifford Grandt CM2c of Wheeling spent the week end at home on a 72-hour pass from Great Lakes where he is stationed at present. Clifford is getting around quite well again after his serious injuries received in an auto accident in Hawaii in December. He has been hospitalized in California the past few months.

Silver Star

Persuades 36 Nazis to yell 'Kamerad'

The award of the Silver Star to Pfc. Theodore Decker of Arlington Heights was made known this week in a bulletin released by the war department. Decker is the son of Mrs. Claire Decker, 1429 N. Dunton street.

Award of the medal was made for action in which Ted captured 36 German prisoners single-handed. Ted had written that he saw a German medic waving to him from across the river. He had some knowledge of German so crossed the river, accepting a few wounded men as prisoners. He then met other men, persuaded them to surrender, and returned to his lines with the entire bag of 36. The citation reads:

"Crossing a river with the leading assault groups, Pfc. Decker captured an enemy soldier and learned from him the location of other soldiers. Advancing alone, he persuaded sixteen enemy surrender and then proceeded to a house and single-handedly captured twenty additional prisoners.

"His courageous action served to eliminate resistance in the immediate vicinity of an important ferry site.

"Pfc. Decker's initiative, courage and coolness in the face of grave danger exemplify the finest traditions of the American soldier and reflect distinct credit upon himself and the military service."

Just last Saturday Mrs. Decker received a Nazi flag from Ted as a souvenir. It is in perfect condition though "it makes me shiver" according to Mrs. Decker. Previously Ted had sent home souvenirs of a German knife, belt and cartridge holders, and part of a Nazi parachute.

Ted is serving with General Hodges' First army, and is known to have participated in the fighting for Leipzig.

Get first word of Leyte vet

Additional word of the wounding of Francis Reuse of Palatine were received last week, the first message in almost three months. Word that he was wounded December 11 on Leyte was received February 1, but no other news was ever forthcoming.

Last week the adjutant general notified the family that "Shrimp" had suffered intense shrapnel wounds in both arms and both legs. No letters have been received from him since the wounding, though the family have continually sent mail to him.

England

First Lt. Elwin A. Kruse, 21, was recently awarded a third Oak Leaf Cluster to his air medal for "meritorious achievement" while participating in bombing attacks on German military and industrial targets.

Lt. Kruse is a navigator on an eighth air force B-17 Flying Fortress in the 385th bombardment group, commanded by Col. George Y. Jumper, Natoma, Calif.

The airman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kruse, Milwaukee ave., Wheeling. A graduate of Highland Park high school, Lt. Kruse was a student at Georgia Military College before his entry into the army in January, 1943.

Holland

Staff Sgt. Gerald Rugen of Northbrook is in a Holland hospital after a second injury received while crossing the Rhine in Germany. There is no major injury.

48 FLY IN ONE PLANE

As a reward for composing winning slogans intended to reduce absenteeism, Col. Dan A. Hardt, Chairman of the Production Urgency Information Committee, arranged that prize winners from all the Chicago plants participating in the contest, fly in a Giant Douglas C-54 cargo transport plane Sunday, April 15. Including the crew of five, headed by Lt. Col. R. A. Holladay who personally acted as pilot, a total of forty-eight persons flew at one time in one plane on a trip covering greater Chicago and the lake front, altho the plane can carry many more.

Ask anyone who made this flight and you will be told enthusiastically about the tremendous size of this famous C-54 Skymaster. You will be told that it has room to fly jeeps, supplies, ammunition —anything—to our boys at the fighting fronts . . . and to fly back wounded from clear across the Pacific.

The C-54 is the airliner of the postwar period for which Douglas already has over a hundred million dollars worth of commercial contracts.

Last Sunday

48 SLOGAN WINNERS FROM OTHER CHICAGO PLANTS FLEW IN A C-54

If You Could See What They Saw...

A giant of the air flying safely over lake or loop and capable of spanning the ocean with ease (these are the planes the ATC flies over both the Atlantic and the Pacific) . . . you would realize why the armed forces are calling for so many more C-54's. It takes planes like these to cover the vast distances we must cover to help lick Japan. You would understand that AAF schedules call for production of the C-54 to continue clear thru 1946. You would be able to visualize these planes as the commercial airliners of the future with more than $100,000,000.00 in orders already booked.

You Would Come To Work Here NOW!

You would have seen with your own eyes that the huge Douglas Chicago plant is as vast and as clean and as fine a place to work as you can find. You would feel the pride and satisfaction that can come from taking your place along with the thousands of Douglas employes who are not only helping to win the war but are acquiring skills in working the new light metals such as magnesium and aluminum, which can be utilized in many manufacturing fields besides aviation, when the war is over.
